

Feb. 14.

A hard rain this morning before day light. Had still raining a little. The girls are baking, but not in good cheer. Smith & I hauled one load of wood. This ^{camp} ~~mine~~ wet begins to get colder and not to storm as much. Smith & Jennie hauled manure in the garden. I pined around the house. The rest of the day.

Feb. 15.

A bad looking morning at first but turns out to be a beautiful day. Pa went to the sale. I have hauled about the most of the day getting ready to attend the fair. About half past 3 o'clock when they came. Had a half past 4 o'clock in all at Ho. It was a complete surprise. We all took supper with. Did not get home till 2 AM.

Feb. 16.

A beautiful day.
On opening my eyes I found it
was broad daylight.
I had been fast
all night with me.
After breakfast was over 6 of our crowd departed from us.

He had a splendid did time the rest of the day. Mrs.
Battin and Lida
being here.

They in Battin Lida's first visit here. They stay
all night with us.

Feb. 17.

Another nice day.
We are still having a nice time.

Lida & Smith
Battin & I took a buggy ride down
part of Shepherd
to String Town according to Mr. Boddie to the Mill back part of the harbor. After dinner I took the girls to Webster. There they took the train for home.
I saw Aunt Lora
Folger, Aunt Ruth
Folger & Aunt Harriet Folger.

Feb. 18.

A nice day. It is considerably warmer and like rain.
It seems a few partly hours this evening.

Q! how warm
it seems today.
Smith & I tried to study today Gemini went to school. He is sick. I he has not sit up
but little today.

Feb. 19.

A rainy showing
day. Smith, I & I put in the day studying and reviewing our books.
I cut Gemini's hair. He went to school. Came back in the eve-ing wet as he could be.

The air is turning wilder, and the wind is blowing strongly.

Mama is getting better of her cold.

Feb. 20.

A rainy day.
Smith and I
stuck all day.

Mr MacKenzie
came here while we were eating
our supper.

He stayed
all night with
us.

Pa bought 300
peach trees of tin
and some strawberries.

Feb. 21.

A cool morning.
The ground is frost. Smith and I start to town. We catch the morning train and walk in Leicester and
mud. The valley train. Then we walked on to town, where we arrived about 8 o'clock. We did in town awhile
then walked out to Orono.
John Newell, and stayed all night.

Feb. 27

A gloomy bad
looking morning
It snows a little Smith & I went to the gymnasium room and stayed a little while.
Then went out
down street
came back & met several of them that I knew, among whom was Annie & Mattie Pattent, Tom &
Bill Gunham,
and a few other

He came out to Chart. Station
on the commandant
There we walked over to Mr. Baill where we had a lively time the rest of the evening.
After supper we went to church.
Smith with Lida
and I with Kate
we came back together and Mr.
David Lemmon &
we had a prolog singing which lasted to 2 o'clock
and later.

Feb. 29.

A rainy & gloomy
dawning morning
The day would
to get dirty on it
The all went to church, and then to the creek to tend to baptisms
down at Mr Batterson. Coming back Mattie and I came through to shaking in the mud. After dinner we had lots of music
both instruments
and vocal music.

By and by some time in p.m. to church After church we
we went down to the creek at
The Lower Okhulley
Hill to baptise
another candidate
It is a good
mild down there
came back and got supper, then we went up
to Mr Schump
about a half mile distance, to set up at a water
He had to stir around to keep awake and so doing upset a little

Feb. 24.

Thunder was at The wake. It has began to rain and I have up set the stop.

The old gentleman
is beginning to stir and so are we.

Coming home in The rain at 5 o'clock
we find Mr. Corvill folks in bed, but soon they arise.

Breakfast over we began to think of departing which we did. Mr. Corvill takes us and the preacher Brother Haskins and Mr. John Demers.

as far as Mr.
Haskins in his express. Smith and I footed it
the rest of the way across the hills
arrived at home
about 2 o'clock tired and sleepy.

We told the news
and done the chores
a little early and retired at half past 6 o'clock
for rest.

Feb. 23.

A rainy wet day. Squire has shaved four half sides boards all day.

Hattie, Lewis, & I went down to church and then to baptizing.

There were 5 baptisms. This is the first time that I have been to the Hill to church since Christmas eve.

I saw Fannie Benington, Helen Eppie, and several other mill girls which I have not seen for some time.

I came back home and put on my shoes.

Feb. 26.

A beautiful day.
The sun is now
warm. I wrote a letter to the black this forenoon, and went up on the hill for the snail
and spade.

I have been planning this after noon for the first time
this spring.

Arthur is here this evening. He has learned us to play anther. I have wrote a letter to Miss Stella.

Feb. 27.

A bad looking morning, but does not rain
till in the evening.
I hauled rails and wrote and dug drags
for the piece in the boiler.

Samth, & Gem
went up to the school
to a spelling.
I have started to read the Horn & Spy
through.

Feb. 28.

It rained hard enough to raise the creek.
It was out of bank
above us. The wind blows cold and chilly.
It gets colder towards evening. I helped collect logs in the creek and then got some en-
grafts, and engrafted
some before dinner.
I helped Squire to nail on sails the rest of the day.
He liked to a
proze. G. O. S.
came here this after-noon and took supper with us.

Oliver Purdy and the Frowine came here about dusk.
They swam their horse across Hope Hollow. They got their supper for them, and after they eat we all went down to the Mill to ahure.
We got back a little after ten.

Feb. 7.

A bad disagree-
able day.
It snowed
a wet snow
which melted
as fast as it fell. I put up the day at the court. I went down to bin in Frank love and bought me a lunch for dinner.
I got through about 3 o'clock
went down to bin in love and stayed till supper
time.

Feb. 2.

A wet day
It rained all the forenoon.

Mrs. Hayward
Roy, and I went to Sunday school
and then to church.

After dinner we took our papers and read till about 4 o'clock. Then we went down to the store and office
came back and it was dark.

Mrs. Hayward
ask Roy, and I
a few bible questions and then retired for bed.

Feb. 3.

It is raining this morning, but not hard.

I have gathered up and hid down the road by a
the horse-drawn
and I start down to the store.

After getting out
a pair of dry-stone I went to the depot
see Mr. Ballie.
The train left

town at 9-30 AM.
Got at the Bus at half past 10.
Walked over to the place where South
came along with the

Feb 4.

A nice warm day. Spring has come for there is it seems.

The boys went to school. I have been studying to day.

I wrote Miss. Abbie a large letter.

I have fixed a blank book to copy all of the different words into with the meaning.

Feb 5.

A nice day. Warm till evening. It began to get chilly. The boys went to school. I have been trying to study.

but can not amount to much on the account of a bad cold.

Lewis worked half a day and quit his year job.

Earnest Trap has made his appearance again.

I took a dose of medicine this evening for the first time for a long time.

Feb. 6.

A nice day
It was very chilly to day. The boys went to school.

I am sick to my stomach. Had to take another dose of medicine I am feeling better this evening.

Fannie went down to the Hill with Caroline. She got the mail.

I received a letter from Miss. Hattie.

Feb. 7.

A rainy bad day.
It is a cold rain,
I helped Squire
shave shingles till noon. After dinner
I fixed Hattie's shoes.
Lewie & Earnest
was down after dinner awhile.

The boys went to school. Smith brought his books
home with him.
I wrote Miss.
Hattie a large
letter this evening.

Feb. 8.

A nice day over head. It rained
most of the night.
Along this morning
it turned to snow. The sun melted about all of it off during the day. It has got cooler this evening and is freezing. The creek is out over the bottoms. Smith went to the Hill
with the letter
he brought me back a letter from
C. J. Emory and my return from Austin.

Feb. 9.

A delightful day.
The ground was frozen this morning.
Thawed during the day. We were all
at home all day and alone. The most of the time.
He wrote a letter to Uncle J.
Emory. The girls went out on the hill and gathered some fern for ornaments.

Feb 10.

Another nice day.
The ground was
frozen this morning.
The butchered on hugs. - Squire & Billie Halme help ed us.

Mr. Ashby sat
dinner with us.
After dinner Smith
and I got up wood. - Gini has been sick all day
and is on better this evening. I have wrote a letter to Roy Sr.

Feb 11.

A nice day.
On awaking this morning I find
I have a severe headache and my bones ache.
I help get wood and make walks till noon.
Then I went to bed and did not get up till dark.
Got up and drank some pepper steam
and bathed my feet, then went to bed.

Feb. 12.

A nice day.
I put considerable better. Hunted around all day
and don't matter except on a message.

Mattie & Pa went to town this morning with 27 chickens and three turkeys.
They brought them 78 & cents a pound.

They got back before dark.

Edmund stayed
all night with
us.

Feb. 13.

Another nice day.
Smith and I
got wood down from off the hill till noon.
After dinner Pa
went with us and we worked
along the creek.
He chopped the drift of the port log.

Levi & Earnest
came down in the evening.

Several of the boys from the hill came up part going to pulling but was
