DEDICATION

Through Christ, the Prince of Peace, we, the class of 1942 prayerfully dedicate this annual to our Alumni in the service. May He, the Prince of Peace, Who came to bring "Peace to men of good will;" Who paid the supreme sacrifice of His life to insure that peace and Who greeted His frightened and doubtful Apostles with the comforting words, "Peace be to you. It is I; fear not," be their constant protector and companion and lead them to a speedy and glorious Victory which will restore and perpetuate a stable and just Peace -- "a peace which will be deserved only if His Will is done on earth as it is in Heaven."

The Annunciate

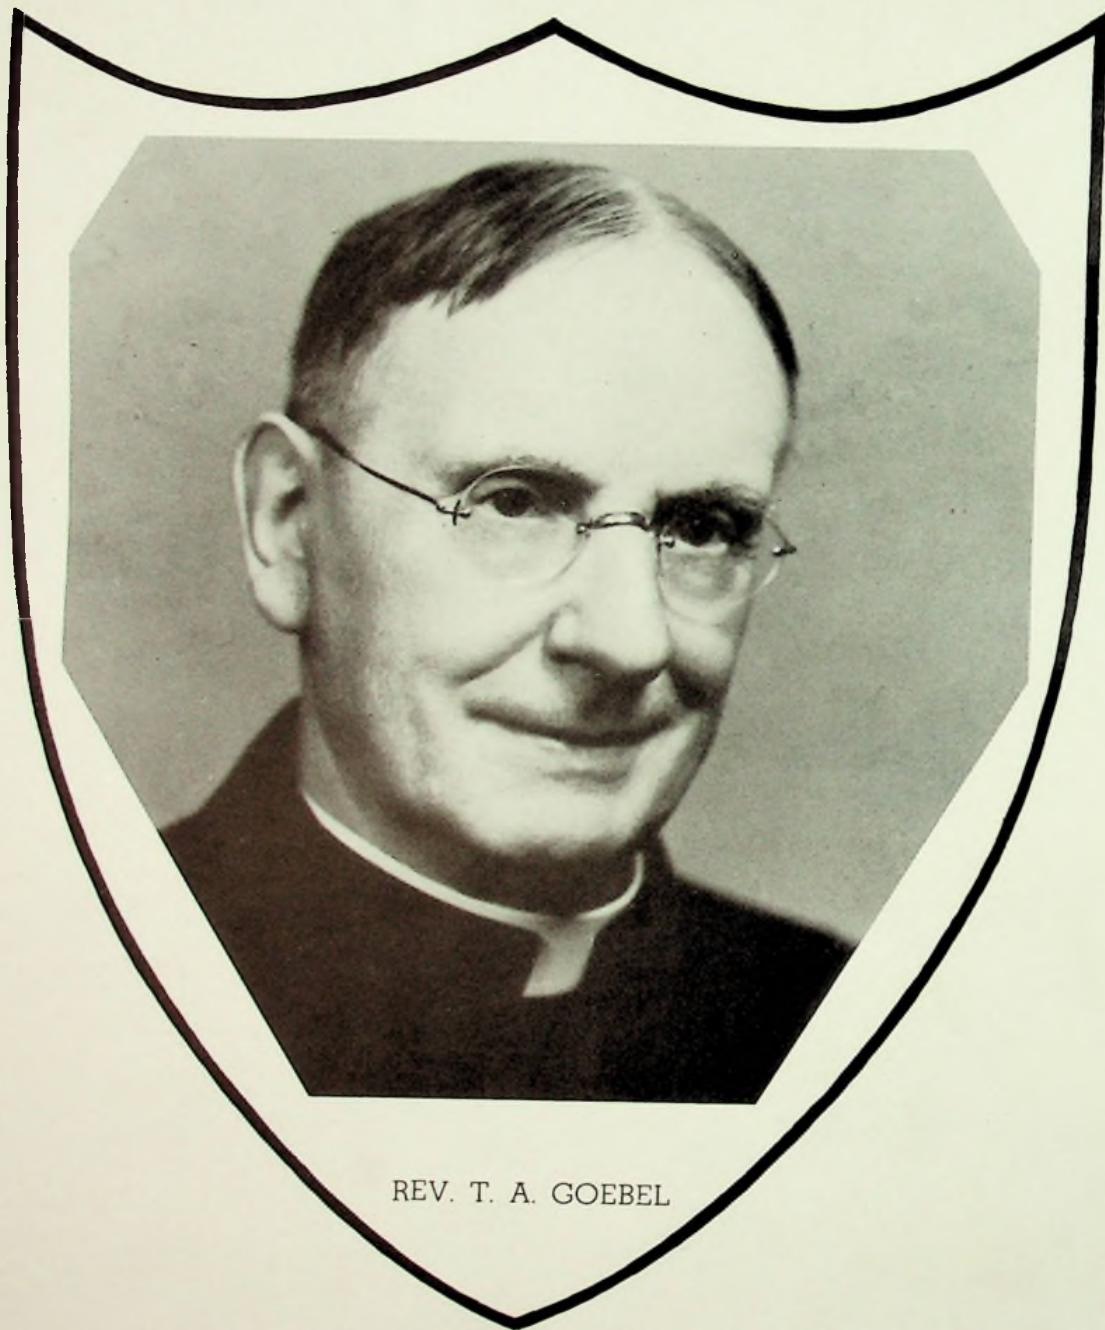

Foreword

For many years, we the Seniors of St. Mary's have been preparing ourselves both spiritually and materially to enter the world and face the many problems which will confront us as our life unfolds. As we stand upon the threshold of our graduation, our thoughts carry us to the many joys and sorrows which undoubtedly lie before us.

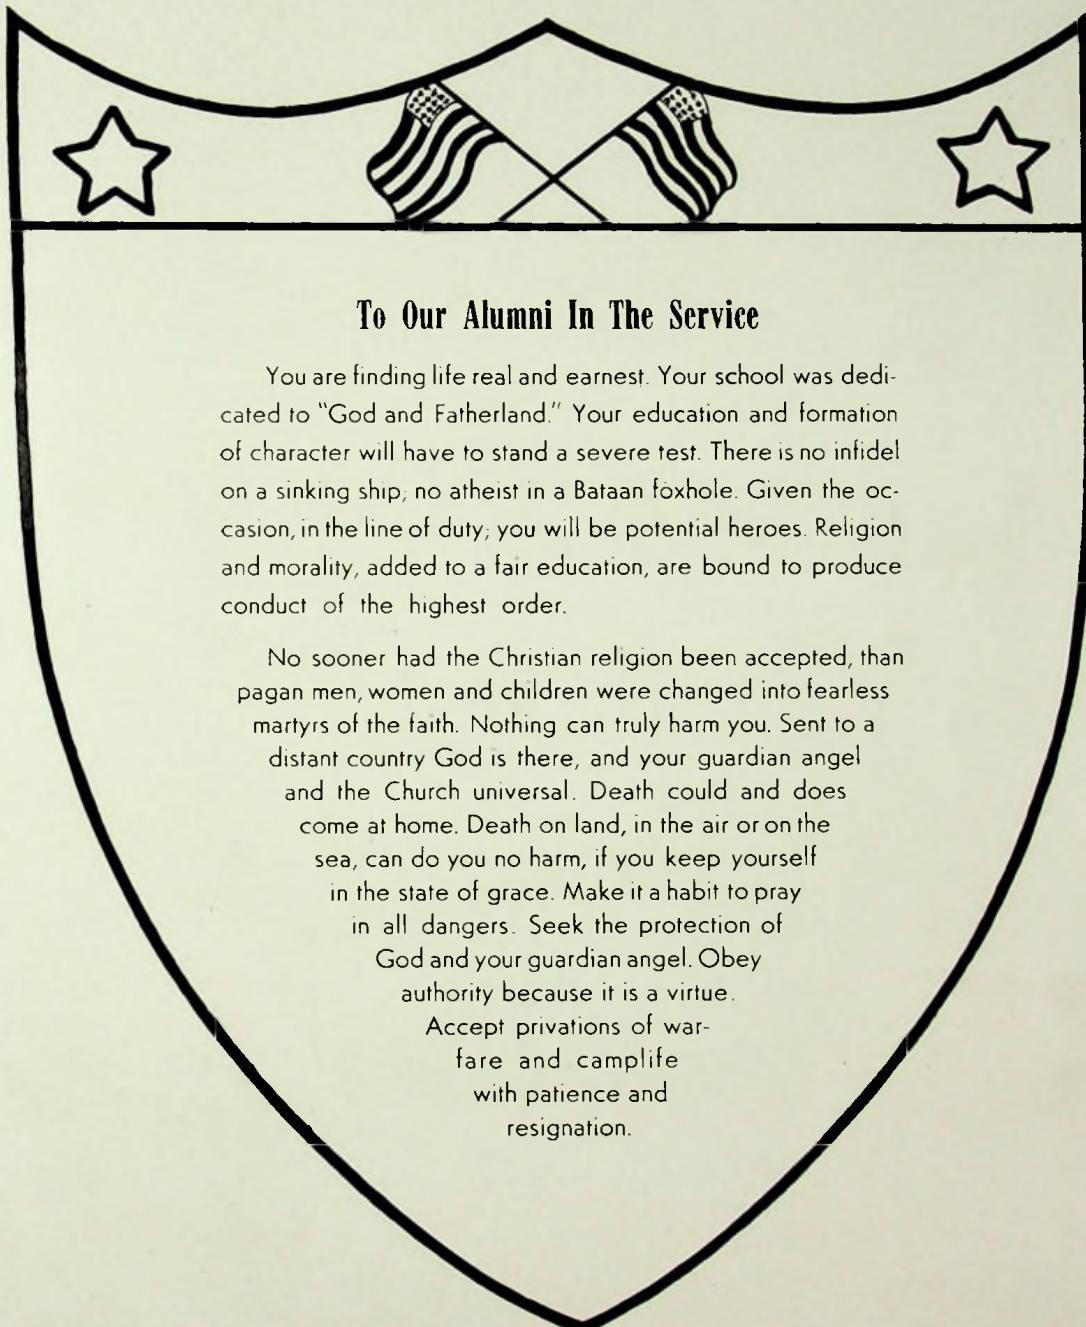

Although we have dedicated this annual to our Alumni in the service, through Christ the Prince of Peace, it is both fitting and proper that we also enroll ourselves under His banner and ask His guidance and protection. The reign of the Prince of Peace does not end on the battlefields but extends deep into our lives, and should be a constant source of comfort, no matter how great nor how small our mission in life may be.

For our Alumni already serving their country in its time of distress, and for the Seniors who will join them within a short time, there is no greater consolation than for them to realize that Christ, with a heart overflowing with love, is forever at their side -- in pain and sorrow, in sadness and hardship and in joy and prosperity. May His love be their strength and salvation -- and shield them from harm in this life and bring them through sorrow, if need be, to eternal joys.

REV. T. A. GOEBEL

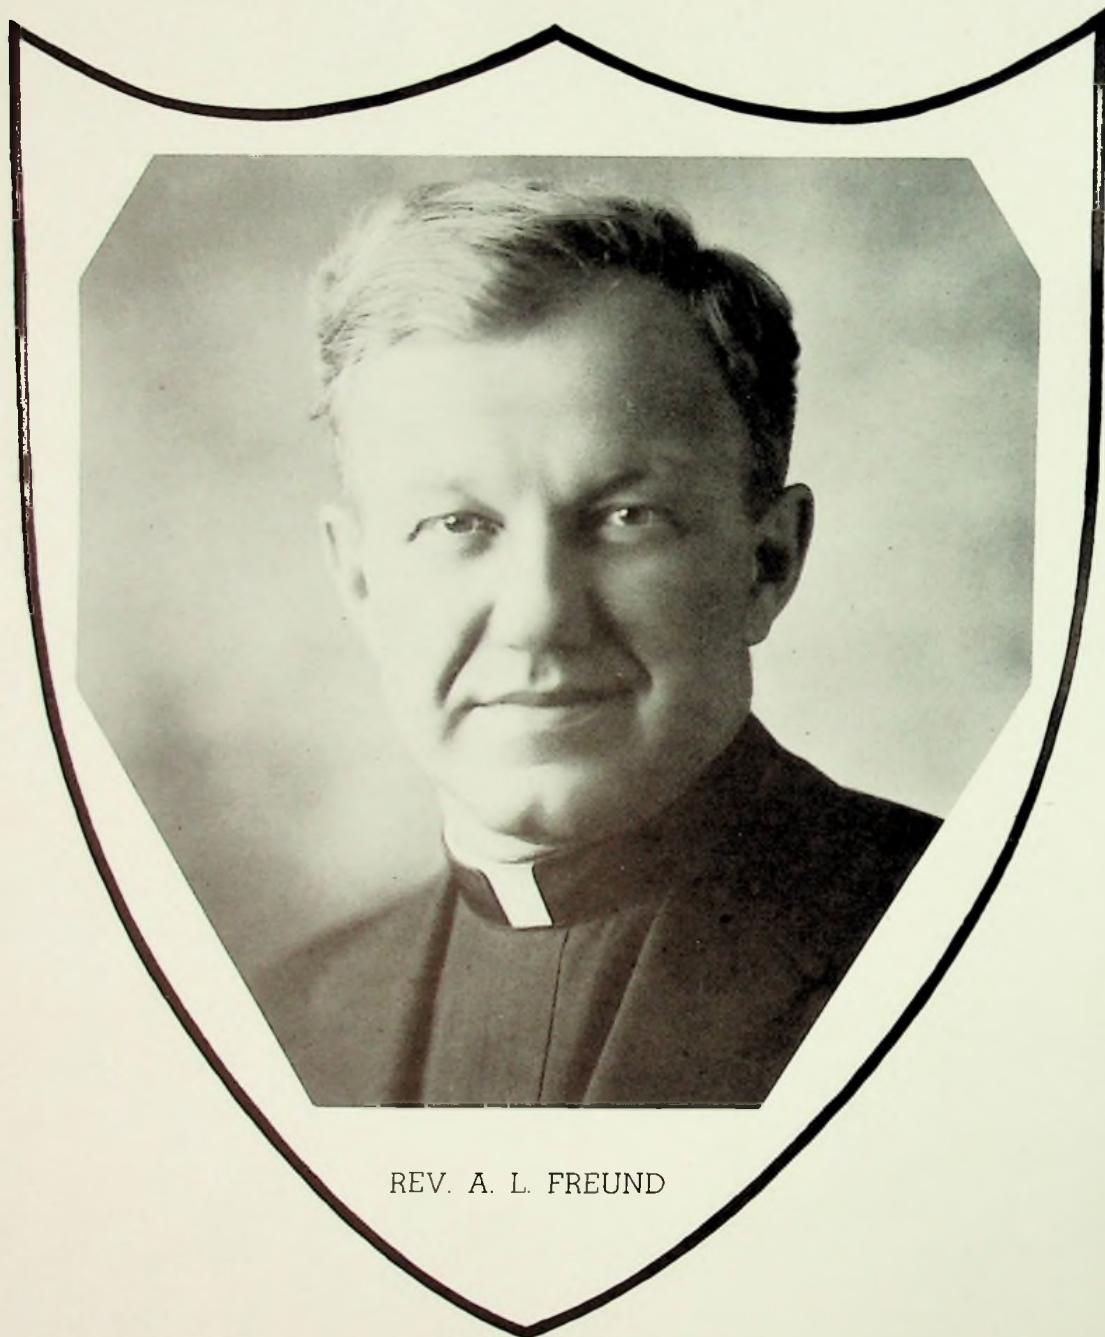

To Our Alumni In The Service

You are finding life real and earnest. Your school was dedicated to "God and Fatherland." Your education and formation of character will have to stand a severe test. There is no infidel on a sinking ship; no atheist in a Bataan foxhole. Given the occasion, in the line of duty, you will be potential heroes. Religion and morality, added to a fair education, are bound to produce conduct of the highest order.

No sooner had the Christian religion been accepted, than pagan men, women and children were changed into fearless martyrs of the faith. Nothing can truly harm you. Sent to a distant country God is there, and your guardian angel and the Church universal. Death could and does come at home. Death on land, in the air or on the sea, can do you no harm, if you keep yourself in the state of grace. Make it a habit to pray in all dangers. Seek the protection of God and your guardian angel. Obey authority because it is a virtue.

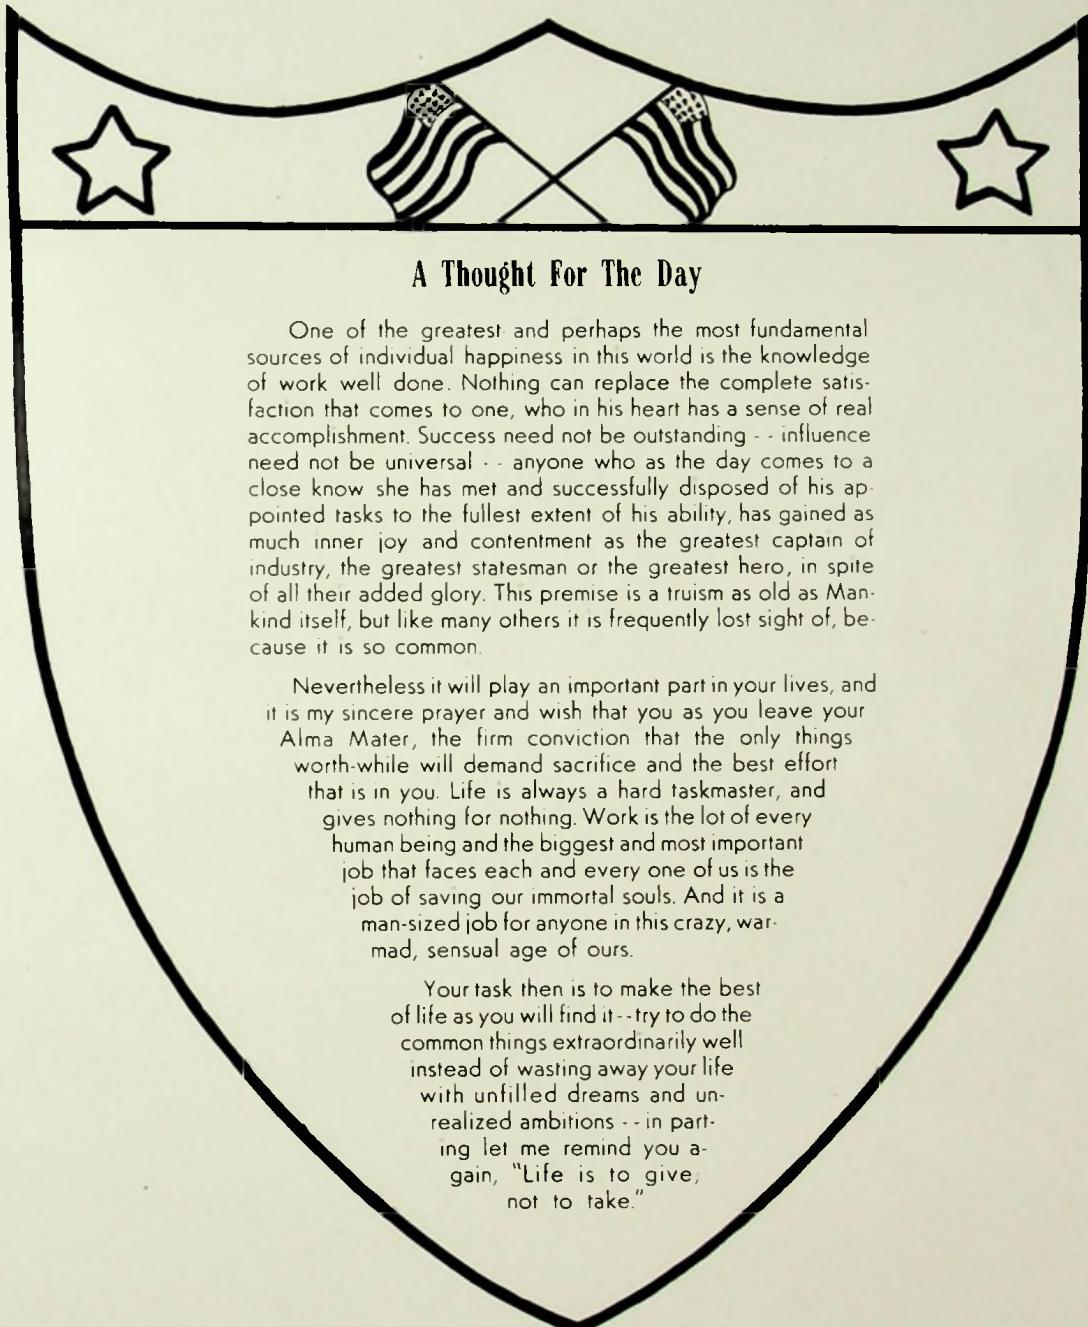

Accept privations of warfare and camplife with patience and resignation.

A Thought For The Day

One of the greatest and perhaps the most fundamental sources of individual happiness in this world is the knowledge of work well done. Nothing can replace the complete satisfaction that comes to one, who in his heart has a sense of real accomplishment. Success need not be outstanding -- influence need not be universal -- anyone who as the day comes to a close know she has met and successfully disposed of his appointed tasks to the fullest extent of his ability, has gained as much inner joy and contentment as the greatest captain of industry, the greatest statesman or the greatest hero, in spite of all their added glory. This premise is a truism as old as Mankind itself, but like many others it is frequently lost sight of, because it is so common.

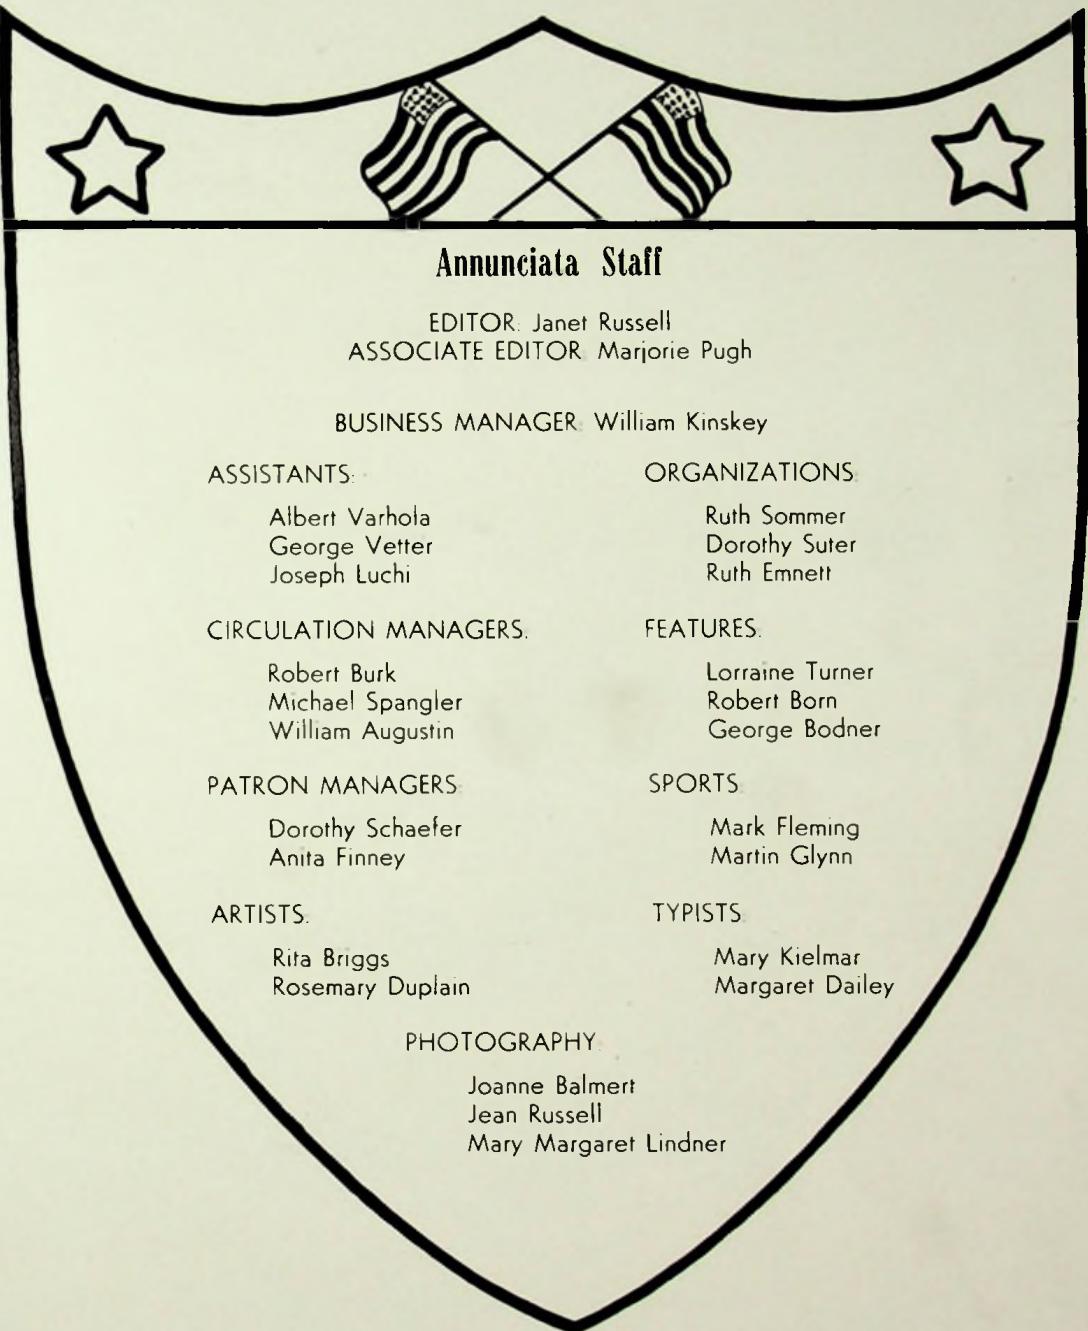

Nevertheless it will play an important part in your lives, and it is my sincere prayer and wish that you as you leave your Alma Mater, the firm conviction that the only things worth-while will demand sacrifice and the best effort that is in you. Life is always a hard taskmaster, and gives nothing for nothing. Work is the lot of every human being and the biggest and most important job that faces each and every one of us is the job of saving our immortal souls. And it is a man-sized job for anyone in this crazy, war-mad, sensual age of ours.

Your task then is to make the best of life as you will find it -- try to do the common things extraordinarily well instead of wasting away your life with unfulfilled dreams and unrealized ambitions -- in parting let me remind you again, "Life is to give, not to take."

JUANITA ALLEN

"Johnnie" so gay and excitable is sure to go far in life for she has a pleasing personality and cooperative spirit which makes her well liked by her class-mates. In the Junior Class play "Boarding School" "Johnnie" carried the role of "Euphrates" the colored mammy. Don't ever go to Johnnie for free gum for you'll forever hear the old refrain "I haven't anymore, my daddy gave me this." In spite of the fact that the constant "click clack", occasioned by her permanent job of advertising Wrigley's occupies seemingly all of her time, she has other favorite pastimes, such as driving and playing tennis. She was a member of the C.S.M.C., Troubadours, and she can also rock and hum a tune (out of choir.) Though outwardly care-free and easy going, she is Johnnie-on-the-spot when it is a question of helping a friend.

WILLIAM AUGUSTIN

"Augie" is the rowdy of the Senior Class. His cheerful laugh and voice are heard wherever there is a crowd. He is noted for his activity in football but still more for his detachable tooth which he has owned since 1940 and displays whenever possible. While in the grades he was a member of the deSolenne choisters but lost his voice somewhere along the way and has not found it again. Throughout his high school years he was a member of the C.S.M.C., and Holy Name Society. He was circulation manager of the Annuciata in his Senior year and also a Troubadour of Il Poverello. His pet saying is "You ain't a jivin'."

William

The Annuciata

JOANNE BALMERT

Joanne can best be described as a peppy, gay, vivacious individual noted for her charming manners and lady-like poise. She has a natural knack for drawing and is one of the few seniors who can play the piano. She has many interesting hobbies - soap-carving, swimming, cycling and tennis. She has served on both the Marion and Annuciata staffs and has been a member of the Vigilantes Mariae for four semesters. In her junior year she played the lead in the class play "Boarding School" and in her senior year she carried a part in "Student Queen." In scholarship she ranks high and her name can always be seen on the honor roll. Among the clubs she belongs to are: C.S.M.C., Troubadours of Il Poverello, Choir, French Club and English Club. We're expecting big things from you, Joanne; don't let us down.

LUELLEN BOOCOOK

Luellen Bocook, better known to her friends as "Louie" is one of the quieter girls of the Senior Class. Studious, cheerful, trustworthy, loyal, are a few words which best describe Louie. She is well-liked by everyone and will be remembered for her willingness to help and her warm-hearted smile. Louie spends her leisure dancing but has no special hobby. Her pet saying "For crying out loud" will always be heard when she's in a crowd. Louie's name has appeared on the Honor Roll frequently and she has been active in the French Club, C.S.M.C., and Troubadours of Il Poverello. A good sport, Louie will always be found to be a true and understanding friend.

The Annuciata

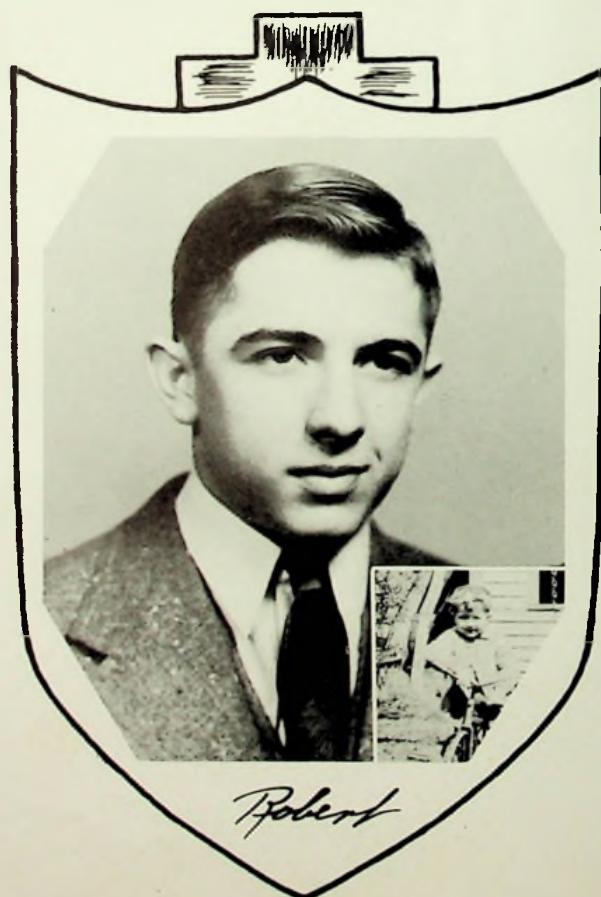

GEORGE BODNER

Bode, a popular boy, will never be forgotten by his classmates. His stature might be his excuse for doing big things. Bode's one great problem was Latin, but with his disposition he murdered it. That he is a great lover of sports was proved by his outstanding play on the gridiron. He was a letter winner in '40 and '41. He is a happy-go-lucky fellow who took more than an active part in the Saint Mary Male Choir for four years. For one night he was "King." That was when he took part in the Senior Class Play, "Student Queen." He is of the type that seems forward externally, but in his heart there can be found a sense of shyness which makes itself evident in the presence of the young ladies. Now that he is an official announcer over WPAY, we know that he will be heard from even after he leaves the portals of Saint Mary's.

ROBERT BORN

Bob, as he is known by all, will long be remembered by his classmates who have nicknamed him "finger." He has been very active in his school career, being elected treasurer in his Sophomore year and having carried an important part in the Junior Class play. As an athlete Bob played both football and basketball. He has two years of varsity football and basketball to his credit. During his last year at St. Mary's he was also a member of the "Vigilantes Mariae Honor Society" and of the Annuciata Staff. Bob is always willing to lend a hand especially when someone is needed to do a printing job. He is very talkative, and at times very noisy. Just mention New Boston and you can count on Bob to up and speak his piece about it. Of course, we all know he lives there, and has lived there all his life.

Robert

The Annuciata

RITA BRIGGS

Rita, one of the quieter students of the Senior Class is generous, capable, studious and efficient with an artistic ability that has found expression and brought credit to both the Marian and Annuciata. She served as secretary of the Junior Class and took part in the Class Play "Boarding School." She holds the distinction of having been elected to the Vigilantes Mariae for eight consecutive semesters. Her name occurred regularly on the scholastic honor roll and she held membership in the C. S. M. C., Troubadours of Il Poverello and French Club. Though small in stature Rita has accomplished big things for her class and school.

ROBERT BURK

Ranking high scholastically, Burkie has won the esteem of both the faculty and student body. He is a regular fellow, peppy, friendly, loyal and courteous, with a keen sense of humor which adds happiness to every occasion. Burkie has participated in practically every activity the school offers. As a talented singer he has helped to make the St. Mary Male Choir and other important musical events a success. He has lead the prayers during Mass daily for two years and was a faithful and conscientious "white collar" server, Burkie insists on wearing a Roman collar when he serves. He also held membership in the C.S.M.C., Holy Name Society, Troubadours, Vigilantes Mariae and Explorer Scouts. Notable among the many achievements he has to his credit is that of being able to listen entranced and wild-eyed to the famous "Hairless-Hector" story without having chills play peek-a-boo about the region of his spine. If you wonder how the story will end, look at Burkie; he knows. We'd like to spell that last word another way but we daren't! Anyway, Burkie knows! With a record such as Burkie has booked up for himself we have every reason to feel confident that his future will be crowned with success.

The Annuciata

MARGARET DAILY

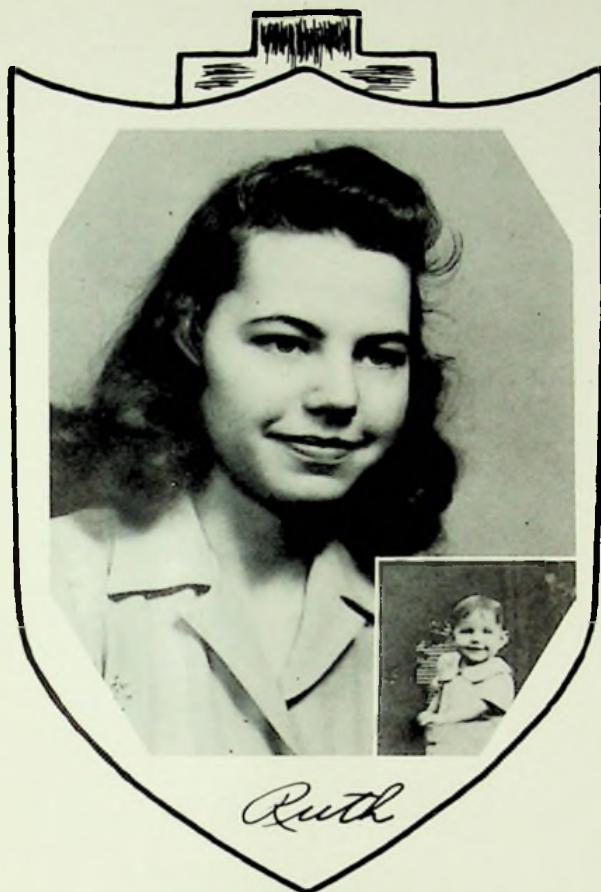

Margaret, one of the student librarians, is known to all her classmates as "Marg." She has a helpful way about her that manifests itself in a charming manner. No matter what you ask her to do you will always find her willing to do it. Marg was a member of the C.S.M.C., and appeared in three mission plays. She was typist on the Marian and Annuciata staffs. Marg, a lover of music, was a member of the Girls Choir in her Freshman, Sophomore and Junior years. She is one of our finest typists, and can usually be found in the commercial room peck-peck-pecking away.

ROSEMARY DUPLAINE

"Dupe" was unanimously elected Home-coming Queen in her Senior year. Her artistic ability finds expression in the Annuciata. Although she has served as a member of the C.S.M.C., French Club, Troubadours of Il Poverello, she has also taken part in other activities. Rosemary an amiable, creative young girl is one of the most popular girls in her class. If you wish to seek information concerning a subject, don't ask Dupe because the familiar little refrain "I don't know" will be the answer. She attends every ball game possible in a spirit of gaiety to cheer our boys on to victory. She possesses a distinctive, cheerful laugh which has won her many friends.

The Annuciata

RUTH EMNETT

"Ruthie" is short, sweet and cheerful, and has a disposition which has won her many friends. She is hard to convince but is admired for her firmness once she has made up her mind. She is a lover of sports and all social activities. Her popularity won her the honor of being home coming queen's attendant in '41. She has been a member of the Junior Scientists of America, Troubadours of Il Poverello, C.S.M.C., and the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary. She has taken an active part in mission plays and other mission functions. With her popularity and personality she is bound to go places and make a success in whatever she chooses to undertake.

ANITA FINNEY

Anita, one of the smaller girls of the Senior Class is friendly, cheerful and popular. She played her part "Loretta" well in the Junior Class Play "Boarding School." The student body elected her to be the attendant to the queen at the Homecoming Football Game in 1941. During her high school years she was a member of the C.S.M.C., French Club, Troubadours of Il Poverello and the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary. All in all Anita can be found amidst the crowd in all activities for she is an all around sports girl and is always on hand when her help is needed.

The Annuciata

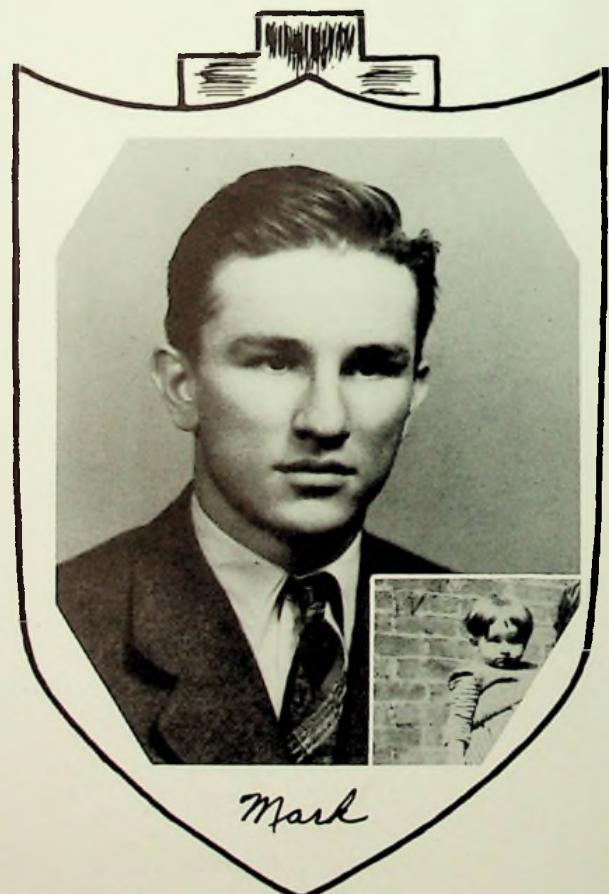

VIRGINIA FINNEY

Winsome ways and a sparkling smile, aptly describe "Ginny". For four years she has played upon the hearts of all her class-mates and as a result will be greatly missed. She has taken part in several school activities, especially the C. S. M. C., the Troubadours of Il Poverello and the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Ginny possesses a cheerful laugh and a self conscious way that has won for her many friends. She never say's "I don't know" unless she means it, as she always makes an attempt to answer when anything is asked. A familiar characteristic is her habit of singing and humming to herself. Go to it Ginny, everyone wishes you luck.

MARK FLEMING

Mark has always been an outstanding member of the class. He is best known for his athletic accomplishments. For two years he has performed on both varsity football and basketball teams. In his Junior year "Flem" was presented with the "Dan Brushart most improved player award". Mark was president of the class in his Sophomore year, and took part in the Junior Class play. He served as an Acolyte, and was a member of the C.S.M.C., and the Troubadours. He was sports editor of the Marian and Annuciata and Ticket manager of "Student Queen", the Senior class play. "Flem" can be seen sneaking in every morning trying to beat the tardy bell. But in all you'll never find a better friend than Mark.

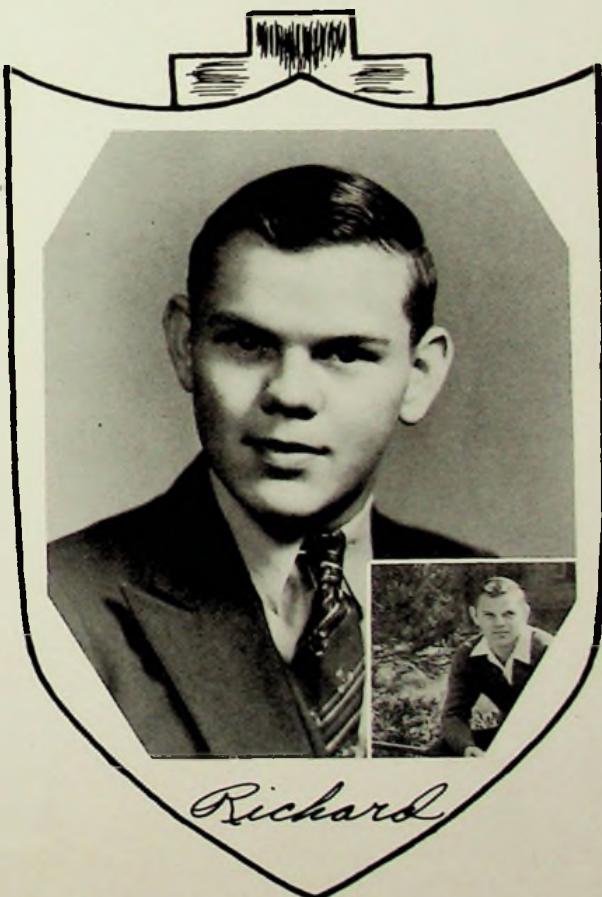

Mark

The Annunciata

MARTIN GLYNN

Mart is a small, talkative, noisy senior, whose only outlook on life is a happy one. With an outlook such as this, Mart is bound to succeed. He has no definite plans, but wherever he goes, people will like him just as we do. Mart served as Junior Class President and took an active part in sports by playing two years of football. Being manager of the basketball team, he gave it new life and vigor. Mart starred as "Bob" in a leading role in the senior class play, "Student Queen," and served on the Annual Staff. Mart is one of the most popular boys in the entire high school and he adjusts himself accordingly. When he is with a group of boys he is the noisiest in the entire crowd, but when he is out in polite society he gives a good account of himself.

RICHARD GOINGS

"Dick" is a capable and dependable young man. Although quiet at times Dick has been very active in his school career. He had an important part in the Junior Class Play. In football Dick was outstanding, being a three year letter man and winning the most valuable player's trophy from St. Mary's in '42. Dick was on the varsity basketball team for three years. He is very studious and you will never find him wasting a study period. Although he does cut-up at times, he knows there is a time and place for everything. Dick came close to "heaven's pearly gates" several times during his football career. He suffered a brain concussion in the Springfield game and almost died from the effects of gas fumes in the last game of the season. Dick was a member of the Troubadours, Holy Name Society, English Club, and the C.S.M.C.

Richard

The Annuciata

MARY KIELMAR

Mary Kielmar can best be described as friendly, loyal, determined and a lover of all sports. There is much to say about Mary but it is hard to find the right words. She has no pet saying, no nickname, no hobby. She spends her free time dancing, going to bingo games and movies. She loves to be in a crowd and keeps the party going. She is energetic and has taken part in numerous school activities, but one must know Mary to really appreciate her. She took part in both the junior and senior class plays, was typist for the Marian and Annuciata, and her name has, at times, appeared on the Honor Roll. She has also worn the honor pin of the Vigilantes Mariae.

WILLIAM KINSKY

Bill, known as "Will" or "Cobb" is our class president. To prove his popularity among his classmates, he served as vice-president in his Junior year and did such a good job that he was elected president in his Senior year. He was a member and essential player of our football team for two years. Bill is business manager of the Annuciata. Acting is one of Bill's many accomplishments. He took part in the Junior Class Play, "Boarding School" and in the Senior Class Play "Student Queen." Bill can always be called upon to run errands especially when it means getting out of class. Bill can be sized up as a good-natured, talkative lad who prefers to sit back and take life easy.

The Annuciata

Marjorie

MAJORIE LAMB

Marjorie Anne Lamb, answers to the name "Lambie." Her constant chatter can be heard whether she is in the Study Hall, Commercial Room, or any other place. Her outlook on school life may be summed up thus "Never a care, never a worry, time to spare and never in a hurry, late to school, late to class, if I cram, I'll surely pass." Although she has missed a great deal of school due to illness, her ability to learn rapidly and fast has enabled her to get along with her work. All her friends can tell you that she is a generous, amiable girl who is always eager to do her share of work in any undertaking or to help a friend in trouble. She has been a member of the C.S.M.C., French Club, Science Club, and Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

MARY MARGARET LINDNER

Cheerleader "Lindner", and a good one at that, possesses a great deal of good old school spirit. She has a ready cheerful smile for everybody, and a winning personality. She is ever ready and able to cooperate when her services are needed. She is a lover of all outdoor sports and activities. Her favorite pastimes are dancing, hiking, and cycling. "Lindner" wouldn't be herself if she wasn't saying something all the time. She is the life of the study periods and her old familiar "Ah shoot" punctuates monotonous moments. She took part in the Senior Class play "Student Queen" and was photographer for the Annuciata. She has been a member of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary, French Club, English Club, C.S.M.C., and Troubadours.

Mary Margaret

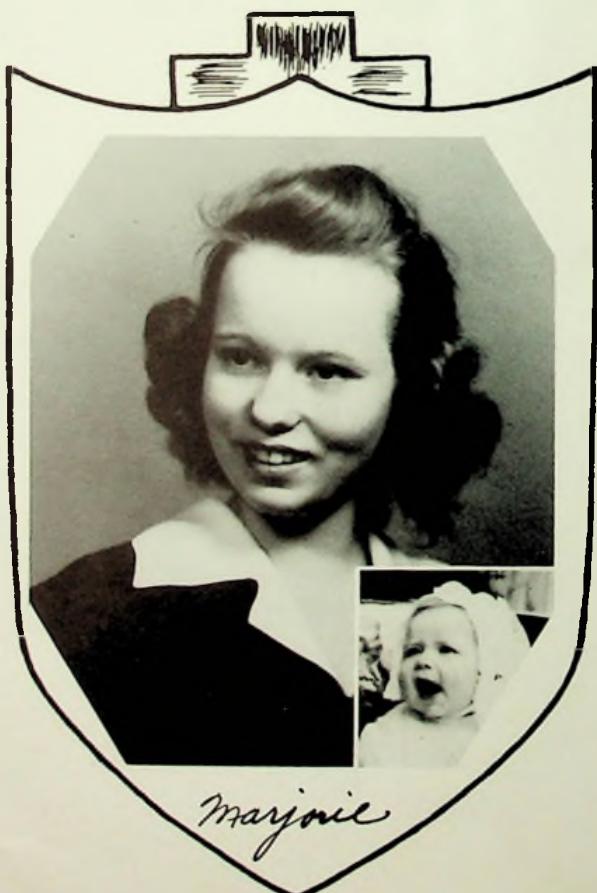

JOSEPH LUCHI

Joe, one of the greatest athletes in the history of the school, climaxed his four years of basketball playing by winning, in his last year, the award of captain on the all-tournament team at Columbus and all-conference in the Ohio Valley League. During his senior year his placement on the football team shows also his singular football ability.

"Luke's" dramatic career began in his senior year of school with participation in "Student Queen". Luke is known to be quite a "griper" but he means nothing by it for even when he is holding forth in one of his ferocious "spouts" he eventually ends up by breaking into one of those broad abashed grins which is so characteristic of him. His activities range from Acolyte in his freshman year to member of the C.S.M.C., '39, '40, '41, '42; Vigilantes Mariae '39; Troubadours '42; Glee Club '39, '40.

MARJORIE PUGH

Studious, ambitious, reserved, serious ... that's "Margie", a girl who will be well remembered because of her scholastic ability and participation in all school activities. Marjorie's odd habit, that of grunting, is heard most often when she is concentrating and does not wish to be disturbed. Arouse her from solitude and she'll always say "Oh, hush". Being a member of the Vigilantes Mariae for two semesters, serving as secretary of the Freshmen class, and capably playing roles in the Freshmen, Junior and Senior class plays, are only a few achievements booked to Margie's credit. Journalism is one of her outstanding accomplishments and she held the position of Assistant Editor of both The Marian and The Annuciat. We predict that Margie will go far in big things because she has a will to achieve.

Marjorie

The Annuciata

JANET RUSSELL

This is the Janet half of that combination known as "the Russell Twins". During her school years Janet has proved herself ready and willing in both scholastic and extra-curricular activities. She was president of the Freshman class, editor of "The Marian" and "The Annuciata", and was winner of the American Legion Essay Contest in her junior year. Janet held membership in the Vigilantes Mariae for four semesters and played prominent roles in both the Junior and Senior Class plays. If a stranger should happen to hear Janet drawl her favorite saying, "I don't rightly know", he might think she'd recently arrived from the Tennessee Mountains, but Janet is really Portsmouth born, Portsmouth schooled and Portsmouth bred and all her acquaintance place high value upon her friendship,

JEAN RUSSELL

Stephen Foster must have had in mind our "twinnie" when he wrote "Jeanne With the Light Brown Hair" because it fits her to a "T". She is cute, talkative and intelligent, Jean has worn a Vigilantes Mariae pin for three semesters. By a four year membership in the Girls' Glee Club and Orchestra, Twinnie has demonstrated her musical ability. She carried her roles in both the Class Plays, Junior and Senior, like a professional. You can't tell Jean from her twin, but even should you make a mistake and call her Janet, she will still do anything for you. Gentler, perhaps by nature and the more carefree of the two, she nevertheless now and then issues a Declaration of Independence, more threat than reality, for e'er long she once again meekly submits to the plans and decisions of the Janet-half. For a true and lasting friend, you won't have to dream of "Jeannie" because we have her.

Jean

DOROTHY SCHAEFER

Dot is the girl with the E personality . . . earnest, energetic, efficient and excitable. She gave an effective portrayal of a saleswoman in "Student Queen" and a jovial, chubby school girl in the Junior Class play "Boarding School". She attended Holy Redeemer High School her Freshman year, however, she has been active in school activities since her enrollment here. Dot was librarian during her Junior and Senior years. She was a member of the Girl Scouts, Troubadours, Girl Choir, C.S.M.C., and the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Dot also held positions on the Marian and Annuciata staffs.

RUTH SOMMER

To know "Sommer" is to know a lovable, care-free, happy-go-lucky girl. However, should you suddenly see a worried face followed by a Dagwood "swish" you can be sure that Sommer has just caught up with "something", but her purse, glasses or what-not, were not able to keep up with her. Happy hunt, Sommer! Her ready wit and dry humor enabled her to portray, skillfully, the part of "Katie" in the Junior Class play "Boarding School" and that of Evangeline in the Senior Class play "Student Queen". "Sommer" has participated in all school activities, and has had a place on the Honor roll, the Vigilantes Mariae, the Marian and Annuciata staffs. She was a member of the C.S.M.C., the Troubadours of Il Poverello and the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary. She has the determination and perseverance for success and we all feel that she will use it somehow, someday, someplace, somewhere.

The Annunciata

MICHAEL SPANGLER

Fun-loving and enthusiastic probably describes "Mike" better than anything else. "Mike" is always ready to join in with the crowd for a good time. He is really a friendly fellow and there isn't anything he won't do for a pal. In the classroom "Mike" does better than "hold his own", as is attested by the fact that he has been frequently on the honor roll and is a member of the "Vigilantes Mariae." Debates and class discussions seem to have an attraction for "Mike" because he likes to air his views by taking an active part. This year, he was in the cast of the Senior class play "Student Queen," ably taking the part of an elderly farmer. He has also been an active member of the Latin Club, the Chemistry Club, the C.S.M.C., and the Troubadours. Michael has a deep interest in chemistry and mathematics and we think he is destined for great things in the world of science.

Dorothy

DOROTHY SUTER

Dot, "I'm-a-tellin'-you," Suter can aptly be described as being trustworthy, gracious, and likeable. She will be remembered among her classmates for her pleasant and cheerful manner. Always active in school functions, she is a member of the C.S.M.C., Troubadours of Il Poverello, Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and has been a member of the Vigilantes Mariae for two semesters. Dot captured the honor of being secretary of her class in '39 and '42, thus proving her popularity among her classmates. She took the part of Vicky in the Junior Class play, "Boarding School" and of Marlene in the Senior Class play, "Student Queen". Sympathetic and loyal, her friendship is worth cultivating, and once cultivated, its value will never be questioned.

The Annuciata

LORRAINE TURNER

Pleasing, friendly, talkative, popular and amusing are but a few of the adjectives which aptly describe Lorraine, who is better known as "Turner." Her participation in school activities and her leading positions of honor in various organizations will keep Lorraine forever in the admiring eyes of her classmates. Her tinkling laugh, which rambles up and down the scales, is much the same as are her fingers when she is pounding the "ivories." She was vice-president of the class in '40, president of the C.S.M.C. in '41, and a member of the Vigilantes Mariae in '42. Last, but not least, we cannot forget her fine performance in the Junior class play "Boarding School," and her excellent portrayal of Elizabeth, in the Senior class play, "Student Queen." Although she fell just before the curtain was to go up, for Student Queen, she kept in mind that "the show must go on", and went on the stage. In spite of a large bump above her eye, she carried her part triumphantly until the final curtain rang down. This display of courage and perservance shows that Lorraine possesses "it", and she'll carry this "it" into her future career.

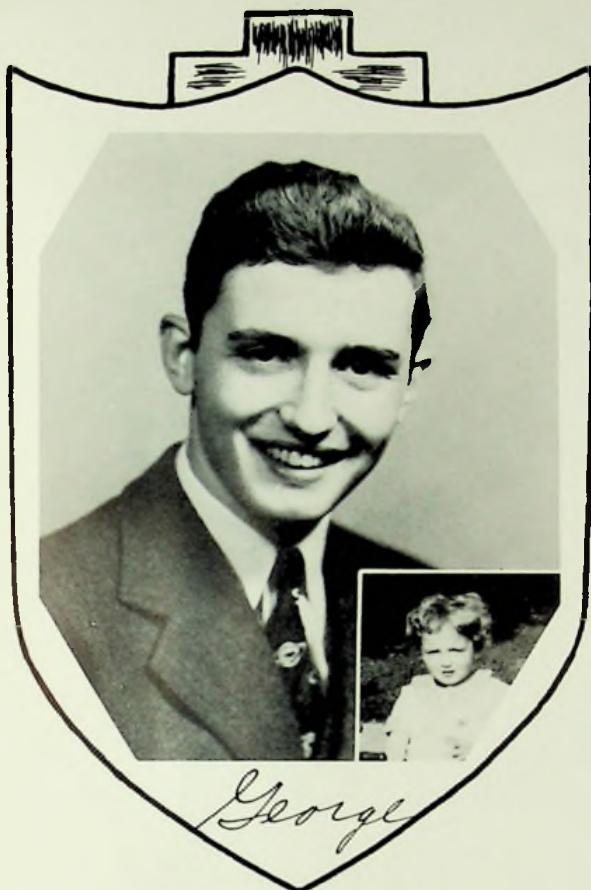

ALBERT VARHOLA

"Al" is clever and quick and knows all the "tricks". He will be well remembered by the students of St. Mary's for his froggy voice. He has shown singular ability in the field of athletics, playing a year of varsity football and two years of varsity basketball, after not trying out for these sports until his Junior year. Whenever there is any noise, you can safely bet your last dollar "Al" is in the vicinity. He would rather sleep than eat. Because of his knack to "take over" he was made class treasurer in both his junior and senior years and was given the job of assistant business manager of the "Annuciata" in '42. He has a very pleasing personality and is well liked as he goes his way joking with everyone. He held membership in the C.S.M.C., all four years of high school and was a member of the Troubadours of Il Poverello in his senior year. With his clever remarks and his droll way of expressing himself, he contributed greatly to the wonderful success of the Senior Class play, "Student Queen."

GEORGE VETTER

George, an A-1 scholar, has been a member of the St. Mary Male Choir for four years, and has worn the Honor Pin of the Vigilantes Mariae several semesters. That he has dramatic ability needs little proof, for he has been the gallant lover who can court his lady love with equal chivalry and charm, whether he is posing as an electrician tinkering around light-fixtures in a girl's boarding school, rushing to her on a charger that has thrown a shoe, or playing fairy god-mother and changing her from a shy "kitchen slavey" into a glamorous queen. Sounds like a busy man, but George can manage now and then to find time for a bit of fun with the gang. He held membership in the C.S.M.C., Troubadours and was also a server and Explorer Scout. His untriring energy is to be envied by all, though you can depend upon it . . . just that task which has been set aside as his share of work is always news to George.

MERCEDES WALTER

A quiet, studious, dependable, and cheerful girl is Mercedes, known to her classmates as "Mercie." Though she appears rather quiet, once you know her you find her a talkative and likeable girl. Her friendship is one truly to be valued. She has proved herself a credit to the Senior Class and through her fidelity and loyalty has gained the confidence and trust of many friends throughout her High School years. Mercedes has been a member of the C.S.M.C., the Troubadours of Il Poverello the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary and for one semester a member of the Vigilantes Mariae. Her name is also always among those to appear on the Honor Roll. Whenever you see a sunny smile and hear "Oh, My Gosh," you know that "Mercie" is not far away.

MILK JOINS THE ARMY

Just like any soldier . . . milk takes it's place in the ranks. Protecting the health of soldier and civilian alike. Our armed forces served thousands of gallons of milk because it is a vitality and health builder par excellence. You need it too . . . Make sure you get an ample supply
