- Rachel Jenkins

"Setting the ball up for a kill."
- Brooke Miller

"Working on a scholarship."
- Megan Shultz

"Bump, set, spike it. That's the way we like it!" - Mariah Gray

After scoring a point against the Wheelersburg Pirates, Haleigh Vastine celebrates with her team as they compete for an SOC title. Although the girls won third place in the SOC, the game was fierce and left the crowd on their toes.

Skyler Gambill practices digging before a game. The saying, "practice makes perfect" is one the volleyball team knows well, since they practice every weekday after school and before every game.

What is the most positive thing you have learned from volleyball?

"I learned that we all need to work together or nothing will go right."
- Abby Baer

Kicking the ball back into the game, Charli McClay prevents Wheelersburg from scoring a goal. Charli's defensive move granted the Mohawks possession of the ball and enabled a strike back at the Pirates. Later she continued to defend the goal with immense skill.

Kicking Back Opponents

Dylan Amburgey received the "Golden Boot" for being top scorer.

Brooke Goodson was nicknamed "Cannon Arm" for being able to throw the ball in the farthest.

Billy Murphy MVP

Nikki Peoples MVP

Curtis Williams was recognized as "Iron Man" for being the strongest player on the field.

Austin Speer deflects the ball from getting too close to the goal and stops Wheelersburg in their tracks sending them back the other direction. The players continued to battle until the end.

"My best Kung-fu kick."
-Austin Speer

What is the funniest thing to happen at a game this year?

"The funniest thing to happen at a game this year was when Curtis Williams almost got in a fight."
-Tyler Webb

"The funniest thing to happen at a game this year is when two other girls and I did a somersault for a ball."

-Mykinzie Ellis

"I'm just trying to grow and do my best."
-Haleigh Ross

Darbie Jenkins scores her thousandth point in a game against the Minford Falcons. Darbie worked tirelessly throughout her high school career to perfect her shooting skills. "I was really excited when the crowd started cheering," says Darbie. "I had no clue I was going for my thousandth point shot."

What is your free throw ritual?

"I dribble 2 or 3 times, line my foot up with the dot on the line, say a little prayer and hope it goes in."

-Abby Hall

Concentrating on the hoop, Ashley Riley prepares to shoot a foul shot in a game against the Minford Falcons.

"Laying it up." -Cainen Spencer

"I had a great senior basketball season." -Marcus Potter

"Hard work beats talent when talent doesn't work hard." -Nick Golland

"My stomach was going crazy with butterflies as I quickly rose up to shoot. When the ball went through the hoop, I was overcome with joy and happiness. I had just scored my 1,000th point!"

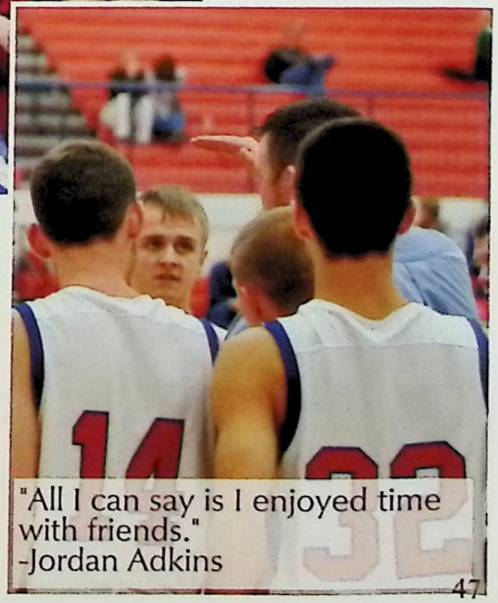

-Drew Scarberry

What is the most difficult drill you do at practice?

"Probably the shell defense drill. It gets your legs going." -Kyle Leelle

"All I can say is I enjoyed time with friends." -Jordan Adkins

Swim Team

Row 1: Nick Penix, Grady Montovan, Mikayla McGuire, Haley Woodard
 Row 2: Chali McClay, Alicia Thomas, Katrina Carver, Polly Altman, Cheyenne Free, Sarah Howard
 Row 3: DJ Hemming, Coach Thompkins, Tori Vastine, Vincent Shirey, Cody Holsinger, Emily Bayes, Hannah Tackett, Josie Tackett, Alysa Robinson, Rhianna Pollard, Coach Tackett, Tyler Adams

Josie Tackett dashes through the water as she competes in the 100 butterfly race. Josie has been taking swimming lessons since she was five years old. All of her hard work paid off when she was the only swim team member to place first at regionals and go on to the district competition. She finished first in the 100 butterfly at regionals and ninth in the 500 freestyle at districts

-Rhianna Pollard

"Can't...Breathe..."
-Grady Montovan

"Think like a frog."
-Charli McClay

"Just keep swimming."
-Mikala McGuire

Although the sport is taken seriously, the swim team shows their fun side after dry land practice. "Dry land practices were hard, but we always made sure to lighten the mood by singing along to goofy songs and just having a good time with our teammates," says Cheyenne Free.

Emily Bays and Mikayla McGuire cheer on their teammates at the end of the pool. "Seeing my teammates cheer me on encourages me to swim faster," says Emily Bays.

Katrina Carver swims the 100 butterfly in the meet at SSU. "Swimming the fly takes a lot of effort and strength," says Katrina. "I enjoyed pushing myself in order to perfect the stroke."

1. Makala Hunt introduces herself as Miss Northwest to a crowd of 1800 people. Her short speech included a comical account regarding her phobia of frogs.

2. In the former Lute's Supply building, Makala starts piecing together the beginning of her float. After many months of drilling and painting, she finally puts the finishing touch on her float.

3. Showing off her muscles in the fitness event gave Makala an opportunity to express her confidence and peppy personality. Performing her original fitness routine was Makala's favorite portion of the pageant.

"Throughout my entire experience, I received a tremendous amount of help from my school, family, and community. I can not express how much appreciation I feel for everyone who pitched in to help along the way. A great amount of additional thanks goes to local businesses, Chris Enz, Travis Groves and my family." -Makala Hunt

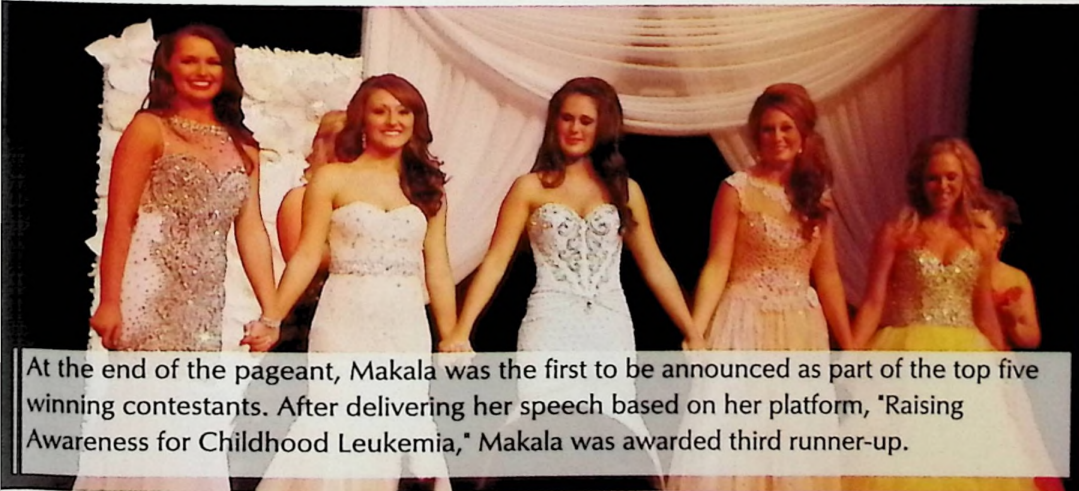

The Northwest Marching Mohawks tirelessly parade in the hot weather for approximately 2.5 miles to the song "Radioactive" by Imagine Dragons. Every year the audience eagerly awaits hearing the impressive performance of the 85 member organization.

Overwhelmed with joy, McKenzii Dunn excitedly runs and hugs her favorite Disney Princess, "Jasmine". The Princess Tea Party was held to raise the necessary funds to create the Northwest float.

At the end of the pageant, Makala was the first to be announced as part of the top five winning contestants. After delivering her speech based on her platform, "Raising Awareness for Childhood Leukemia," Makala was awarded third runner-up.

IT'S A SUMMER Thing

1. "Church camp is somewhere I love spending every summer, and I create so many memories each year."

-Nikki Peoples

2. "Playing soccer with Uganda friends was such a great experience: I feel so lucky I was able to be part of such a wonderful event."

-Brooke Goodson

3. Josee Osburn and her boyfriend Michael Griffin enjoy the sun while also being entertained at a Tyler Farr concert.

4. With her adrenaline pumping from fear, Skyler Gambill nervously waits alone for the Top Thrill Dragster to begin.

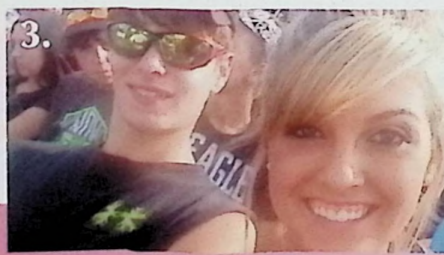

Jumping in front of the Eiffel Tower in Paris; Rodney Hatfield, Haleigh Vastine, and Brooke Miller, along with graduates from Northwest, explain that this was a once in a lifetime experience.

CHERISH THE MOMENT

1. Courtney Hayward was overjoyed that her best friend had been named the 2014 Football Homecoming Queen.

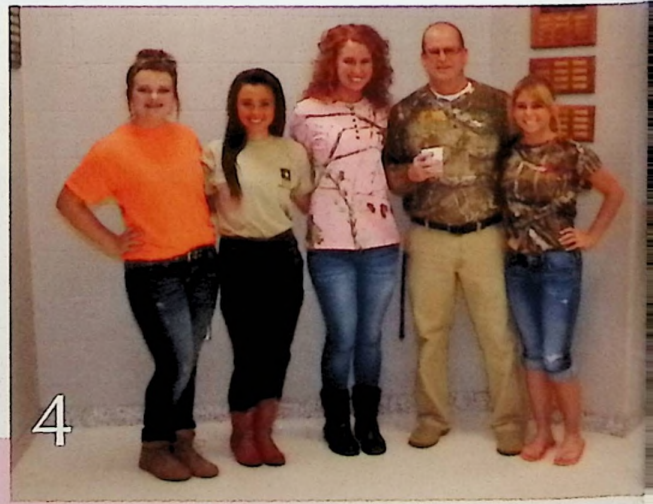

2. "This moment was so perfect, and I felt so grateful that my friends came to support me during homecoming." -Sarah Lambert

3. "My mom was driving me insane, and of course with my sassiness, I had to throw my hands up." -Whitney Crabtree

4. Dressed in their camo, the 2014 homecoming attendants pose for a quick picture. "We are the hottest girls around!" says Morgan Crank.

Queen Darbie Jenkins shows off her trophy and signed football from the team while her friends gather to congratulate her. "I was so happy for Darbie," says Billy Murphy. "She was a stunning and beautiful homecoming queen. What makes it all better is that I can call her my queen. I love you Darbie."

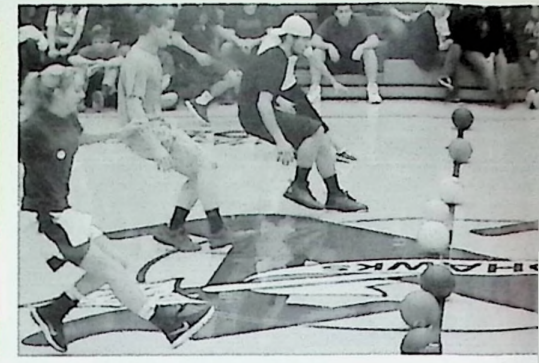

"Even though the weather was not perfect, I had a wonderful time representing Northwest as the 2014 Football Homecoming Queen. I will truly cherish that moment forever." -Darbie Jenkins

1. Feeling like a princess, Mykinzie Ellis poses next to her boyfriend Mason White while also showing off her country side with her Justin Boots.

2. Kaela Shirey, the senior SCCTC homecoming attendant, is presented with flowers by her best friend, Tori Hatfield.

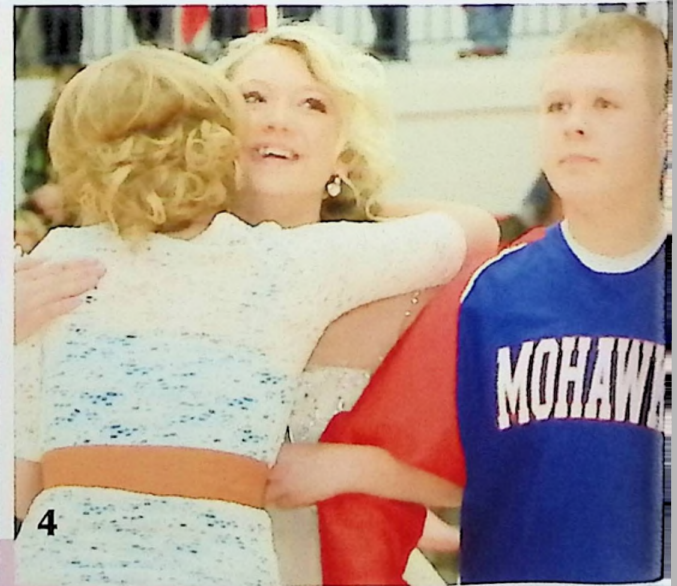

3. Junior attendant, Adi Marshall is overwhelmed with excitement as she is escorted by junior basketball player, Billy Murphy.

4. Mollie Ferrar, freshman attendant, receives her flowers from Haleigh Ross during the ceremony. She was escorted by Hunter Berry.

DON'T LET ANYONE DULL YOUR SHINE

Dreaming about this since she was a young girl, Queen Destiny Emery explains this was her most amazing and memorable moment in high school. "The best part was all the support from my school and family." -Destiny Emery

Overcome with emotions, Destiny happily accepts her scepter from boyfriend Matt Penix. "Watching Matt walk out of the crowd made me really excited and almost brought me to tears. I never expected it at all." -Destiny Emery

Row 1- Nikki Peoples, Adi Marshall, Kaela Shirey, Carter Essman, Destiny Emery, Chelsi Jones, Makala Hunt, Mykinzie Ellis, Molly Ferrar Row 2- Zach Rowe, Billy Murphy, Jordan Adkins, Tylor Slack, Drew Scarberry, Marcus Potter, Dustin Taylor, Hunter Berry.

1. Brooke Miller and her date Rodney Spriggs pose with random bikers who wanted in on their pictures before grand march.

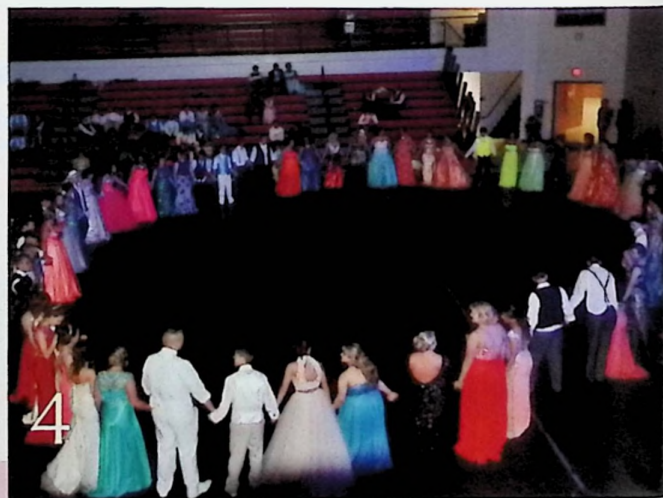

2. Jordan Adkins and Alyssa Pollard gaze into each other's eyes while dancing to the first slow song. Alyssa felt that the night was perfect.

3. Joining in for the Cupid Shuffle, Hailey Tolliver, Alysa Robinson, Autumn Plew and Myhalie Newman, show off their dance moves.

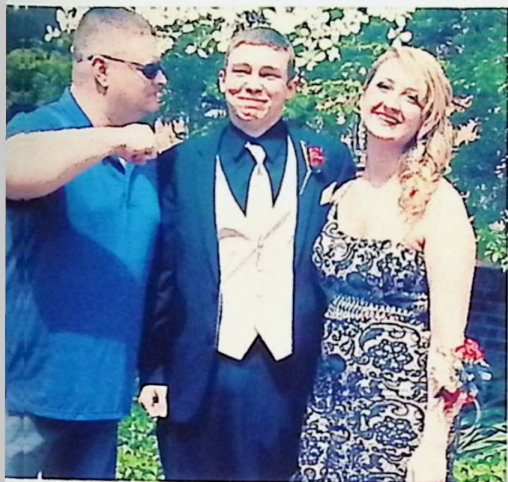

4. Seniors of Northwest High School danced one last time to their goodbye song. They finished it off by meeting in the center for a gigantic hug.

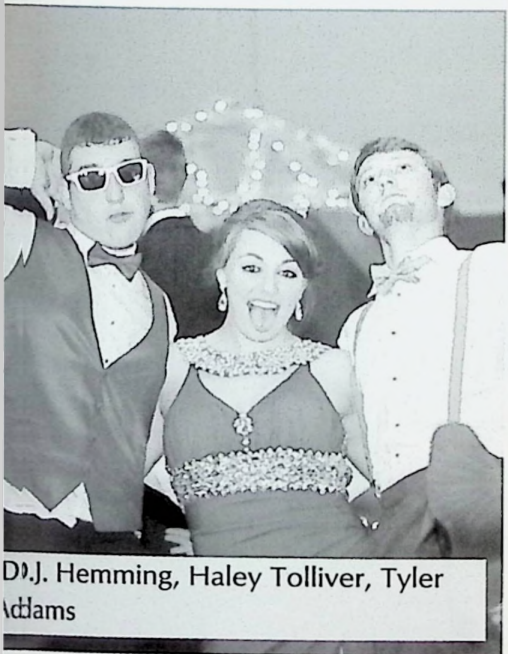

Katrina Carver and Tyler Shope were named the 2015 Prom King and Queen. With tears of joy, Katrina accepts her crown from the Prom King. They did not expect to receive this title, but each of them was overjoyed with the honor.

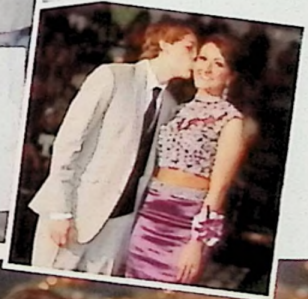

Steve Sparks, the father of Alyssa Sparks, jokingly shows her prom date Hunter Arnett his fist for "fear".

Throwing their fists in the air, Hayleigh Barnhart, Gabe Pertuset and their classmates huddle together for a rave. "Prom night was unforgettable." -Hayleigh Barnhart
