CLASSES

Leading the graduating class of 1968 were the fearless foursome: Mrs. Violet Cook, Mr. John Stevenson, Mrs. Joyce Cropper, and Mr. Jack Blankenship. The senior class would like to sincerely express thanks to these four teachers who have helped us so much.

The hard-fighting class officers were Rhonda Curtiss, vice-president; Jo Ann Hibbits, treasurer; Mary Ann Jordan, secretary; and Janet Sylvia, president. Some of the activities that the officers of 1968 led us in were basketball programs, a style show, a dance, and the selling of candy bars.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1964 we entered East High School with the usual feelings of mixed emotions. The first class officer elections resulted with Wes Bussey as president, Janet Sylvia as vice-president, Patty Phillips as treasurer, and Diane Wilson as secretary. Representing us as majorettes were Barbara Gampp and Marsha Giles. Beth Torges received the freshman band award. Our homecoming attendant was Marsha Milliron, who was escorted by Wes Bussey, and Barbara Gampp and Larry Smith were our Tartan King and Queen candidates. Leading us in the '65-'66 school year were John Coriell, president; Janet Sylvia, vice-president; Rhonda Curtiss, secretary; and Kay McCardle, treasurer. Elected by the student body to be reserve cheerleaders were Rhonda Curtiss, Jo Ann Hibbitts, Mary Ann Jordan, Kay McCardle, and Marshal Milliron. Marsha Giles and Barbara Gampp continued in the majorette line. Serving as prom waitresses were Rhonda Curtiss, Barbara Gampp, Barbara Purdy, Janet Sylvia, Beth Torges, and Diane Wilson. Marsha Giles was the homecoming attendant and Beth Torges was the recipient of the sophomore band award. With visions of our prom, "Rendezvous to the Stars," Janet Sylvia, president; Bruce Martin, vice-president; Rhonda Curtiss, secretary; and Kay McCardle, treasurer set up projects as basketball ads, candy sales, and the concession stand to produce money. Our homecoming attendant was Kay McCardle and Rhonda Curtiss and John Coriell were second runners-up in the Tartan King and Queen Contest. Inducted into National Honor Society were Elizabeth Dodge, Jo Ann Hibbitts, Patty Ratliff, Janet Sylvia, and Beth Torges. Beth was also the recipient of the Delphic Society's Junior Cup. Chosen as varsity cheerleaders were Rhonda Curtiss, Kay McCardle, and Marsha Milliron.

Janet Sylvia was elected president to begin our senior year. Other officers were Rhonda Curtiss, vice-president; Jo Ann Hibbitts, treasurer; and Mary Ann Jordan, secretary. The main reason for money making was the yearbook. Barbara Gampp and Marsha Giles shared honors as head majorette. Winning candidates for the Tartan King and Queen contest were Becky Lewis and Bob Keller. Marsha Giles reigned as homecoming queen and Diane Wilson was our senior attendant. Bruce Martin was named Outstanding Teenager of the Year. He also shared the position of valedictorian with Beth Torges, and Patty Ratliff served as salutatorian. Inducted into the National Honor Society were Janie Cunningham, Karen Etterling, Tim Shuter, Karen Swavel, Debbie Hamilton, John Coriell, Sue Russell, Rhonda Curtiss, Diane Wilson, and Kay McCardle. Jim Nichols was taken into our chapter as a transfer from Joliet, Illinois. Brenda McClellan received the Betty Crocker Award. Janie Cunningham was the recipient of both the Sterling Silver Award and the Sandy Pence Award. State Board Certificates were awarded to Janet Sylvia, Beth Torges, Diane Wilson, Jo Ann Hibbitts, Bruce Martin, Karen Etterling, Karen Swavel, and Sue Russell. Jo Ann Hibbitts won the D.A.R. Award.

JUNIOR

The junior year of high school is filled with many activities. The big affair, of course, is the prom. In order to successfully carry out such a heavy load of responsibilities the class needs capable officers. This year's junior class was fortunate in having Joan Hartlage, president; Ede Ashworth, secretary; Diane Thompson, treasurer; and Scott Walker, vice-president.

MR. AND MISS JUNIOR

The doors will open wide anywhere to Cheryl Jordan and Tim Chamberlin, for they are in every respect outstanding. They have had many honors throughout high school and will have many more. Both Cheryl and Tim are respected and liked by their classmates for their personalities draw friends easily.

SOPHOMORE

Actually the sophomore class officers have already "learned the ropes" but need practice to keep in shape. Leading the sophs were Susan Jordan, secretary; Danny Baer, treasurer; and Kathy Mauk, president. Not pictured is the vice-president, Betty Bussler.

MR. AND MISS SOPHOMORE

Dave Hart and Connie Filkins exemplify the tops of the sophomore class. Both Dave and Connie participate in many extra-curricular activities and maintain above-average grades. Their poise and personality will make them stand out in any group.

FRESHMEN

This year's spirited class officers were, left to right, B. Jo Pogue, secretary; Vicki Swick, vice-president; Sharon Richey, president; and Pauline Holland, treasurer. They were certainly deserving of their offices and have carried responsibility — their treasury is the undeniable evidence. The freshmen raised almost $300.00 this year.

MR. AND MISS FRESHMAN

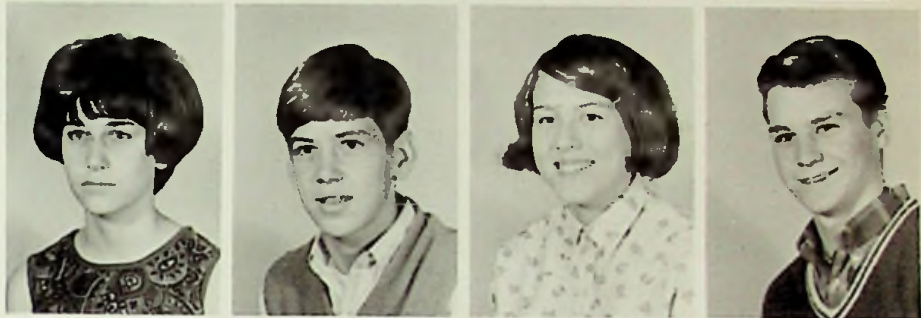

Even though the freshmen had little time to become acquainted with one another, they wisely chose Ronnie Peecher and Donna Cooper as the two all-around freshman class members. Donna served as homecoming attendant and Ronnie was her escort. Both students are certainly well liked by their fellow classmen.

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming Queen
Marsha Giles

Diane Wilson

Pam Nelson

Suzanne Arrowood

Donna Cooper

Seated on their royal thrones, Queen Marsha and her court—Diane, Suzanne, Pam and Donna—lead the traditional parade to Allard Park for the football game.

Our 1967-68 Homecoming Queen and her court pose before beginning the first dance. Members of this year's court are Donna & Ronnie, Pam & Dean, Diane & Tom, and Suzanne & Brett.

Come on, Marsha. Artie won't step on your bare feet!

Miss Madeira rocks out at the dance by accompanying the Shock Waves at the organ.

Hey, watch it Gail! B. Jo Pogue stands rigid while Gail Adams pins her corsage.

Danny Baer is just groovin' it with the jet set.

What's the matter, Terry? Won't anyone dance with you?

Cheer up, Bob! It's only a ping-pong game. Bob and many others enjoyed themselves at the New Year's Eve activities.

Tim Williams is seriously exhibiting his skill at the pool table.

Everyone looks interested except Tony. Wonder what's caught his eye?

The juniors' concessions produced a sum of money to add to their meager treasury. Working diligently at a basketball half-time are Susan Weber and Steve Cross.

Kay waves a pretty hello to onlookers and admirers as she rides on the Tartan Tug in the River Days Parade. Miss McCardle represented East very well by placing second runner-up in the River Days Queen competition. She will be succeeded in the 1968 festivities by Miss Cheryl Jordan. Cheryl's alternate is Miss Jeri Fankell.

WOW!

Just look at our dimpled darlings! Zodie, what shapely legs you have! and Precious, what a beautiful face. But Weslita has the prettiest hair and shiniest teeth!

East can boast of having the most beautiful and coordinated cheerleaders in the county. Look at that astounding performance!

Gaily dancing to the music of the musicians from Morehead University are Mrs. Mac Namara and Roger McGraw.

The serving of the food was done by the waitresses and butlers. The waitresses were Sharon Mustard, Linda Gampp, Betty Bussler, and Kathy Mauk. The butlers were Monty Thompson, Terry Shuter, Dave Hart, and Dave Schwamburger.

FANTASY IN . . .

Smiling for the photographer are juniors Bill Davis and Cheryl Jordan.

Four seniors enjoying their last high school dance are Beth Torges, Mike Gilliland, Janet Sylvia, and John Coriell.

Junior Bane Sylvia is trying to get an A dancing with Miss Madeira.

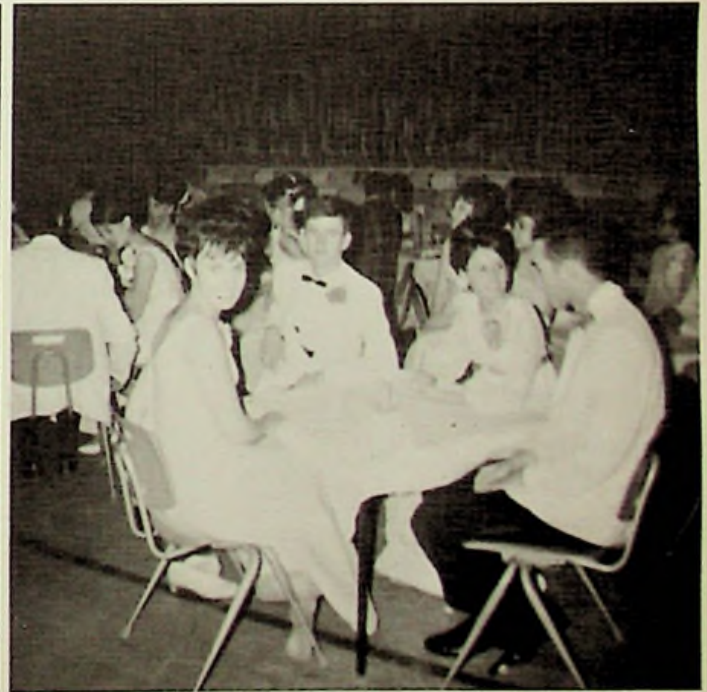

Watching the new dances of the younger generation are Mr. and Mrs. Welton, Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook, and Mr. and Mrs. Fankell.

FANTASIA

Scott Walker, with his date Becky Covey, seems to be enjoying the prom.

Taking a breather are Kathy Buchanan, Joe Hawes, Jeri Fankell, and Bane Sylvia.

SENIOR

Best All-Around

Anytime and anyplace Rhonda Curtiss and Bob Coriell are "tops." They have all the characteristics which naturally draw them many friends. Anywhere you see them, they are always smiling and happy.

Best Personality

Friends, joy, and happiness surround Sandy Armbrister and Randy Chamberlin wherever they go. Their affable and really outstanding personalities will always keep everyone smiling and eager to be around them.

Best Dressed

Although Marsha Giles is straightening John Miller's collar, these two are the "tuffest" dressers that walk these hallowed halls of East. They always look superlative!

SUPERLATIVES

Most Poised

Even climbing precariously up a ladder, Mary Ann Jordan and John Welch keep that ever-present poise. They are always erect, serene, and capable of keeping their "cool."

Most Studious

Book, books, and more books surround Elizabeth Dodge and Bruce Martin. Whether they look at the pictures or study is something only they will know, but their high grade averages certainly attest to the fact that they do something besides day-dream.

Best Mannered

The familiar little courtesies such as "Excuse me" or "I'm sorry" are the trademarks of Diane Wilson and Larry Smith. They are always polite and well-mannered to their teachers and classmates.

CLASS FLOWER

WHITE ROSE

Class Clowns

Hey, watch where you're pointing that thing! Pam Gampp and Jim Cremeans certainly keep East hopping with their wild antics and live-wire personalities. Go to it, Pam!

Most Inquisitive

Test this definition for inquisitive: The art of finding out something you are not supposed to know. Sue Russell and Jim Hebner are certainly capable of doing this. If there isn't a question to be asked, you can be sure they will still think of something.

Class Chatterbox

Here is our definition for class chatterbox: The ability of letting your tongue run loose for a period of forty-five minutes and ending up with it still in your mouth. Kenny Flinders and Sandi Weaver really "take the tape."

CLASS COLORS

BLUE AND WHITE

Peppiest

"Activity and fun" are Jo Ann Hibbitts and Roger McGraw's motto. They are always having a ball no matter where they are. At a game, dance, or party, they keep everyone hopping.

Most Likely To Succeed

It may not look so here, but Beth Torges and John Coriell are headed for a bright future. They have achieved many of their past goals, and we are sure they will make successful lives for themselves.

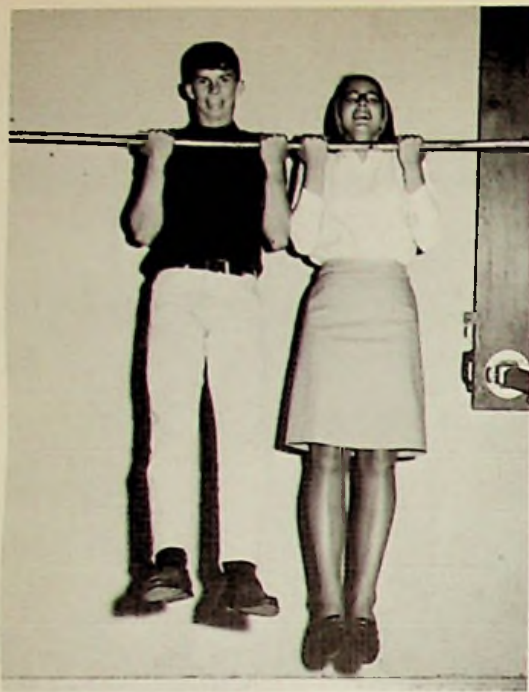

Best Dancers

These two really put their best feet forward. At any dance Nancy Holbrock and Artie Marshall stand out as expert "stompers" who always know the latest and greatest dance steps.

CLASS MOTTO

YOU'VE GOT TO GIVE A LITTLE. . .
TO GET A LITTLE

Best Athletes

Grunt! Gasp! Don't let Mike Gilliland and Janet Sylvia fool you. Their athletic abilities are ably demonstrated in every sport.

Shyest

Tim Shuter and Debbie Mershon aren't playing peek-a-boo. You might think these two are shy, but we know better. Tim and Debbie are always well supplied with friends.

TOURNAMENT

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

Keith and Bob, standing with Coach Pogue, represent our portion of the S. O. C. All-Star Team. These two outstanding junior members of the team will return for the 1968-69 season.

Ty Marsh and Jim Kennedy valiantly served Mr. Carson and the Freshman Basketball Team during the 1967-68 season.

Assisting Coach Pogue this season were Sim Martin, Jim Montavon, and Terry Shuter.

Row 1: T. Marsh, manager; T. Swavel; J. R. Douglas; R. Sturgill; and J. Kennedy, manager. Row 2: T. Sherman; R. Peecher; D. Harrison; J. Dunn; T. Liles, and D. Martin.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS

TRACK TEAM RALLIES

Row 1: L. Turner, manager; P. Elliott, G. Lawwill, W. Bussey, R. Peecher, B. Sylvia, R. Chamberlin, D. Hamilton, and D. Harrison. Row 2: E. Brown, B. Brewer, W. Monroe, C. White, T. Castle, R. Sneddon, M. Williams, D. Martin, M. Ramsey, A. Marshall, and G. Kuhner. Row 3: H. Bise, D. Morrison, D. Baer, R. Jones, M. Thompson, T. Williams, G. Mayhew, T. Sherman, D. Hart, K. Edwards, and Mr. Smith, coach.

The senior track stars are off and running. First out of the starting gate is Keith Edwards and a close second is Artie Marshall. On down the outside, the remaining athletes are Randy Chamberlin, Wes Bussey, and Greg Lawwill.

Jim Bussey, busy as a bee, was ever present with his jar of honey.

The pacesetters who broke new school records for the 1968 track season are R. Chamberlin, W. Bussey, D. Hamilton, G. Lawwill, B. Sylvia, C. White, R. Peecher, M. Thompson, H. Bise, G. Mayhew, and T. Williams.

Don't look so discouraged, Terry! You're doing O.K.

Greg, Tom, and Ron were caught off guard while making last-minute preparations for the meet.

NEW INDUCTEES AND OLD MEMBERS

Row 1: J. Sylvia, J. Hibbitts, E. Dodge, P. Ratiff, B. Torges, R. Curtiss, and D. Wilson. Row 2: J. Cunningham, D. Hamilton, S. Russell, K. McCardle, S. Weber, and E. Ashworth. Row 3: J. Nichols, J. Coriell, S. Walker, T. Shuter, K. Buchanan, K. Etterling, S. Ming, and K. Swavel.

Scott seems to be pausing for prayer before Jo An Hibbitts taps him into our chapter.

"I made it! I made it!" is the expression portrayed on John Coriell's happy face.

Attorney Robert Dever, a former graduate of East, delivered an inspiring speech to the faculty and student body.

Happiness floods the face of Karen Swavel as Patty Ratliff leads Karen from the auditorium.

Senior members enjoy a snack after the induction ceremony. Happy eating, kids.

Pictured here is Miss Pauline Walden, for whom our chapter is named. She served at East High as an English teacher for many years.

Row 1: D. Stevens, P. Turner, J. Hibbitts, S. Russell, E. Ashworth, E. Dodge, B. Arn, P. Holland, L. Coburn, K. McCardle, M. Elliott, and D. Hart. Row 2: T. Bailey, S. Richey, B. Pogue, G. Adams, V. The day of report cards, a few of the district and state winners of the scholarship tests were photographed. Pictured here are D. Martin, K. McCann, K. Swavel, K. Buchanan, J. Hibbitts, E. Ashworth, and S. Weber.

Kay McCardle resolved to be the only member of the graduating class with four years of perfect attendance.

SANDY PENCE AWARD

The Sandy Pence Memorial Award is presented each year on Senior Day to one senior who has proven himself to be outstanding in fields other than scholarship. This year Janie Cunningham was chosen by the teachers to receive the coveted award.

JUNIOR CUP

Each year the Delphic Society's Junior Cup is presented to a junior who has many desirable and outstanding qualities. Susan Weber, this year's recipient, has shown herself to be worthy of the coveted cup by participation in many extra-curricular activities.

Hard study and attentiveness produce honorable results.

Each year the Daughters of the American Revolution present the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award to a senior girl who scores highest on a test. This year's participants were Elizabeth Dodge and Jo Ann Hibbitts. The highest scorer was Jo Ann Hibbitts.

BETTY CROCKER AWARD

Brenda McClellan was the recipient of the Betty Crocker Award. This award is presented to the senior girl who scores the highest on a homemaking test which is sponsored by General Mills.

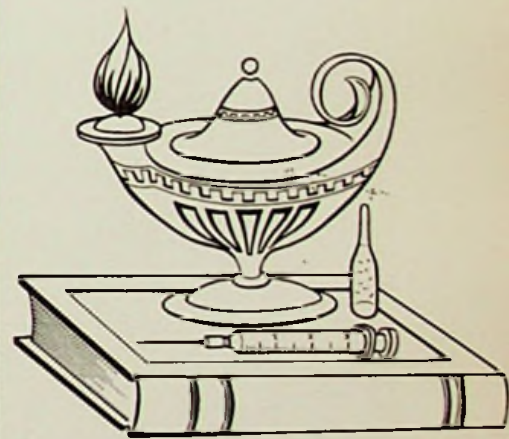

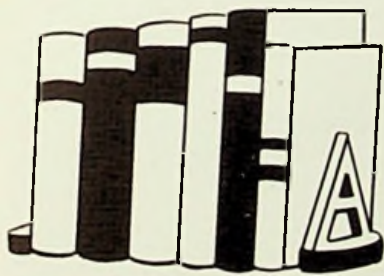

STERLING SILVER

Janie Cunningham was selected by the teachers as tops in home-economics.

These eight students earned State Board Certificates by taking three years of advanced math, science, and foreign language, along with the other required subjects. Row 1: K. Etterling, D. Wilson, J. Hibbitts, and S. Russell. Row 2: B. Martin, K. Swavel, B. Torges, and J. Sylvia.

This year's top ranking students, scholastically, were Patty Ratliff, salutatorian, and Bruce Martin and Beth Torges, co-valedictorians.

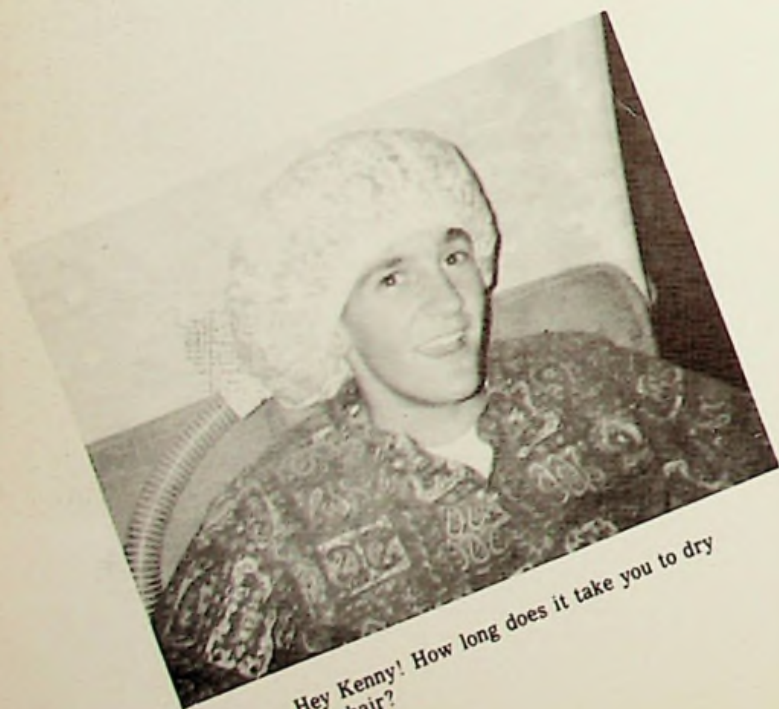

Selected from his American History class, Scott Walker attended Boys State at Ohio University for one week this summer. His alternate was Jim Ramey.

At Capitol University was Ede Ashworth, who represented East at Girls State. Her alternate was Susan Weber.

FLASH

Hey Kenny! How long does it take you to dry your hair?

Under the supervision of Mrs. Hossman: Artie Marshall, Rhonda Curtiss, Janie Cunningham, Marsha Giles, and Patty Ratliff kept the office running smoothly.

OPPS...

These pictures were accidentally omitted from the Activities and Organizations Sections.

Keeping watch over the money during the lunch hours were Elizabeth Dodge and Karen Etterling.

Girls' League officers Becky Lewis, Jane Knight, Janet Sylvia, and Beth Torges, helped get the freshmen into the swing of things by organizing the Bib and Little Sisters as well as the Christmas Party.

Even though Christmas vacation was near, decorations were not completely forgotten. This Nativity scene caused each student who passed by it to remember the true meaning of the Christmas celebration.

ADMINISTRATION

Heading the choral music, is Helen Basham, a former graduate of East. She attended the University of Delaware, O.U., Marshall, and Olivet.

Mr. Jack Blankenship is the only teacher at East who can boast about having a record collection of 6,000 records. He received his bachelor's degree from Morehead University and is now working on his master's there.

Finishing her 15 years at East, Elsie Bradshaw is presently teaching chemistry, introductory physical science, and Algebra II.

"Don't waste your time" is the motto that Irene Brown passes on to the students at East. Her education was obtained from East and O.U.

Keeping our boys in shape and teaching civics and psychology is baseball coach Lou Carson. He is also a graduate of East and then received his B.A. degree from Marshall University.

A native of Williamson, West Virginia, Violet Cook leads the home economics department. She graduated from Marshall University and has now taught at East for eleven years. Her philosophy of life is to "enjoy life—apply the golden rule when possible."

Joyce Cropper completed her third year as an English teacher here at East. During one semester she was aided by a student teacher, Miss Weisenberger.

John Danner came to East after graduation from Wheelersburg and O.U. His advice is "Honestly evaluate yourself and set your life goals according to your self-evaluation."

Virgil Donley has now completed nineteen years of teaching service at East. He has taught electricity, mechanical drawing, industrial arts, and blue printing. He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees at Ohio University.

Mr. Garner assumed duties as the new band director this year. The marching band stayed on its toes during the football season and the concert band produced two musicals.

Members of the '68 graduating class were taught freshman English by Christine Heer before she became the full time librarian. An alumna of P.H.S., Miss Heer continued her education at Boston University, O.U., and Western University.

Since she joined the teaching staff seven years ago, Ramona Horton has taught physical education and biology. She received her teaching degree from the University of Kentucky. Among her likes are people, food, and sports. Mrs. Horton dislikes phonies and rats in asparagus.

An avid reader and swimmer, Mr. Darrell Lanthorn teaches typing, shorthand, and general business. He received a B.S. degree from Morehead University and previously taught at West High School before coming here.

Literature and the opposite sex are reported to be the favorite subjects of Miss Phyliss Madeira. A graduate of Marshall, her advice is "Enjoy yourself and don't worry about tomorrow."

Cornelia Mault completed her second year at East. Mrs. Mault controlled the equipment and classes in the reading lab.

Coin Collecting is a favorite hobby of Mrs. Mary McNamara, who teaches both speech and English at East. A graduate of Notre Dame High School and O.U., Mrs. McNamara is qualified to teach French also.

Our basketball coach for the 1967-68 season was Mr. Edward Pogue. He attended Hanover University and Marshall University where he obtained his master's degree. Mr. Pogue instructs the students in the subjects of world history and civics.

Teacher of physics, general science, and earth-science, Mr. James Smith joined the teaching staff in the latter part of '67. During the 1967-68 school year, Mr. Smith coached both football and track. His favorite motto is "accept each day as it comes, and learn from your successes and mistakes."

A graduate of Denison, Ohio University, and University of Mexico, Mr. John Stevenson teaches Latin, Spanish, and English as well as sponsoring the newspaper, yearbook, and managing the finances of the senior class. Mr. Stevenson is an instructor at O.U.P.C. and enjoys reading and traveling for hobbies.

A native of Texas, Mr. Mike Welton teaches business math and geometry. His favorite subject is algebra.

Anne Hossman
School Secretary

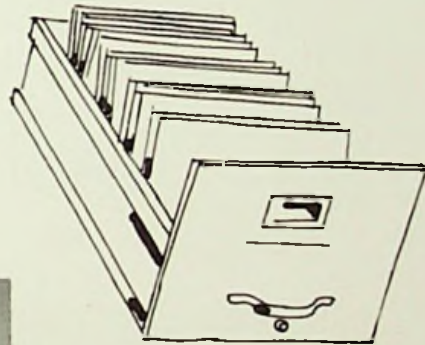

Janitor-Mr. Cabiness

Cooks-Pauline Horr, Ethel Brown, Helen Cole, and Mildred Musser.

Janitor-Mr. Woodrum

Our principal, Mr. James M. Roney, assumed his duties at East in the same year that the '68 graduates entered East as freshmen. He attended Holbrook College, Marshall University, and did post-graduate work at Ohio University.

Serving as full time guidance counselor here at East is Mr. Herman Schomburg. Mr. Schomburg also attended Holbrook College, Marshall University, and later studied vocational guidance at Ohio University.

*Progress
Is A
"Two-Way Street"*

THE GROWTH of any company depends, to a large degree, upon the community in which it is located and upon the attitude of the citizens of that community. For it is from that community and from those citizens that a company must gain strength, build its work force and develop its future. Thus, the more understanding the community is toward its industry and its problems, the more cooperative and loyal the citizens who comprise its work force, the better the company's chances for continued growth and expansion.

ON THE OTHER HAND, the growth of any community and the development of a bright future for its citizens depend equally as much upon the day-in-day-out successful, profitable operation of its industry. For from that industry stem jobs and paychecks today, employment opportunities for tomorrow, local purchases, community service contributions and vitally essential tax dollars.

OBVIOUSLY, THEN, the growth of a community and the growth of industries within that community are inseparably bound together, one dependent upon the other. And progress becomes a "two-way street".

LOOKING BACK, Detroit Steel is proud of the contributions it has made to the betterment of the Greater Portsmouth community and to the benefit of the citizens as it has pursued an unbroken 15-year course of growth and expansion . . . over $150,000,000 invested to provide one of the most modern, competitive steel mills in the U. S. . . and an annual employee payroll that is currently running around $24,000,000.
