June 7, 1891.

A warm nice day.
He hove potatoes
and corn.

He loaded the wagon with hay
to take to town.
I helped them
catch some chickens
but they were not enough to take to town.

June 2

A cloudy morning
I helped Pa & Jennie start for town. Then I got ready and started
with Robin down
to Mr. Farhux.
where I arrived
at dinner time
helping William
refill corn.
He packed some chickens and then went fishing
but a storm
scared us out
so we came back

June 3

A nice day
Very warm
I plowed at noon a little
afternoon.
Helped on the corn till the rain drove
us out.
Then finished
up the rest
of the time

June 4,

A very warm day. Rained all morning and hard last night. I came away from home in the rain.

Arrived at Mr. Laird at noon. Poké & I went down in the woods to get some slippery-ellum to bind on Robin's foot for the scratches.

June 5.

A nice day. After transacting a considerable amount of business this morning I started from Mr. Laird and arrived at Mrs. Barrett's after they had had their dinner. After dinner I picked cherries for Mrs. Barrett. Vernon & I spent a pleasant evening at Mr. Correll's.

June 6

Very warm between showers I struck out this morning. Went down to the lower end of the narrow
and had to come back on the account of the creek.

Took a very hard
rain. Eat my dinner at Mr. Baker's.

Stopped at Mr. John Lennon and then at the Hill to the primary. Talked a little to long with Idda

hard rain
came it was

June 7

Rained a little this morning, but turned out to be a very warm day.

Aunt Rhin &
Lem came down
to be there. went down to singing in the afternoon.

A lot of us went to Mathews after singing. We went a piece with John Eddie, came back and talked to Mr. Hanner about going over to Virginia and then went to church.
Came back with Idda & James

June 8.

A nice warm day. Pa & Emie hauled hay, I plowed corn the most of the forenoon. And then working in the nursery the rest of the day. Helped Pa & Emie load their afternoon loads of hay up. A tree was up in the peach orchard.

June 9.

A merry warm day, I went down on the river with Robin. At 11 I arrived in the Burg. I ran across John who had just come from town. He went up to the hay house together. They had several other visitors. John seemed to enjoy it well. He came by the French grand home had a splendid ride, stopping at Bluffs, and getting home about 10 o'clock.

June 10.

A very warm day
I rode Robin up on the creek to day.

our work ourselves
this harvest.
Mary & Emma Hollman came here while we were eating our
dinner.

June 30

A nice day, and a still new rain
in the evening.

We would have got through harvesting the
wheat had it
not been for the rain.

We got a load
of hay ready
to take to town on the morning.
