PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE

A black and white photograph of the New Boston Municipal Stadium building. The building is a large, rectangular structure with a prominent sign on its upper facade. The sign, set within a rectangular frame, reads "NEW BOSTON MUNICIPAL STADIUM" in bold, capital letters. Below the sign, there are three arched openings. The central one is a window with a dark frame and a small ledge. The two side openings are dark, possibly doorways. The building's exterior appears to be made of wood or concrete with a textured surface. A street lamp is visible on the left side of the building. The foreground shows a paved street and a concrete curb.

SCHOOL BOARD

THE SUPERINTENDENT SPEAKS

The schools are and should be in the heart of the community; the resources of the community should and must be drawn upon in the work of adding strength and power to the program of the schools for New Boston.

Public education has changed almost radically in the last twenty-five years, paralleling the great changes that have taken place in transportation, communication, medicine and other sciences. I am very enthusiastic about the progressive attitude of the members of the Board of Education, teaching personnel, and members of the community who are doing their utmost to give the youth of New Boston an opportunity that they may partake fully in the changes of today.

A WORD FROM MR. WARREN

It has been a distinct honor to serve as Principal of the Glenwood High School of New Boston, Ohio, and I wish to take this opportunity to express my deep gratitude to the Board of Education, Superintendent of Schools, High-school Faculty, the Glenwood-student Body, and to all parents and friends of our community.

Without the cooperation of the community, the church, and the school we could not be successful; therefore, I wish to thank each of you for your splendid cooperation and assistance.

I have tried to maintain the highest standards in our school as outlined by the Ohio Department of Education, North Central Association of Secondary Schools, and our local Board of Education.

Our School is open for public inspection; come and visit with us and see what a wonderful school we have.

CLASS WILL

- The Senior Class of 1953, of Glenwood High School, city of New Boston, State of Ohio, do declare this to be our last will and testament, on this 29 day of May, 1953, in the witness of John Hanson and Joan Belveal. Signed by Jack Clevenger, Senior-class President.
- I, ERMA ADAMS, leave my ability to become Homecoming Queen to some lucky junior girl.
 - I, ELLA JANE ALDRIDGE, leave my nickname, "Janie", to Faye Bear.
 - I, FRED ADKINS, leave my love for the Roller Rink and my good looks to Pat Turner.
 - I, DON BARNETT, leave my beautiful gray Pontiac to Ronald Armstrong. Only one arm is used for guiding though, Ron.
 - I, JOAN BELVEAL, leave Charlie Schwable, but I'll be around, Charlie.
 - I, WAYNE BOWLING, leave my height to Donald Aeh. Make good use of it Don. I also leave my ability to become a member of the Honor Society to Don Burton. All you need is a good friend like Rankins, Don.
 - I, DON BRIGGS, leave my physique to Emma Mills. Emma, you must work out every other night in the basement of the pool room.
 - I, JACK CLEVENGER, leave my record of never uttering a cuss word in my whole life, and never smoking, to Ronald Hale.
 - I, ROSEMARY COCKRELL, leave my talkative disposition to Earlene Pennington, and my ability to keep a Portsmouth boy friend to Wandalee Smith.
 - I, SHIRLEY COOPER, leave my ability to teach Mr. Jenkins how to cut the corners and how to miss telephone poles, to Barbara Jenkins. Only three pedestrians daily, Barbara.
 - I, DWIGHT COTTON, leave my ability to become a member of the Honor Society to Bill Sexton.
 - I, TERRY CRISP, leave my curly black locks to Callie Jones. Use Grandma's Lye Soap to get the shine. I also leave "Jezebel" to Paul Penix and I don't mean a girl, Paul.
 - I, VIRGINIA CRISP, leave my quiet disposition to Janice Hall. You need it, Janice.
 - I, HAROLD DANIELS, leave my nickname to Arley Dutiel. No starchy foods, Arley.
 - I, BILL DUNCAN, leave my football record and my ability to grow a mustache to Harold Fraley.
 - I, CHARLES DUNN, leave my South-shore girl friends and my mustache to Charlie Patton.
 - I, MARY FINNEY, leave my height to Dean Staten. Maybe you can get those passes off now, Dean.
 - I, RICHARD FOX, leave my ability to get caught chewing gum in Miss Wheeler's class to Warren, Jr.
 - I, DON FOIT, leave my ability to not get caught sleeping in Mr. Rickey's class to Tom Mills.
 - I, ROGER GODDARD, leave my record in football to Richard Elkins. Get an early start, Richard, and maybe you'll do better than I did.
 - I, DORIS GREEN, leave my Dayton boy friends to Pat Smith. All but one, that is, Pat.
 - I, DON GULLEY, leave my many girl friends to Larry Jennings. You must buy them candy every day, Larry.
 - I, JOHN HANSON, leave my red hair to Joan Wright, and my brilliance to Dody Wintersole.
 - I, JUNIOR JENKINS, leave my looks to Bob Yarnell. You must get a "Prom" every six weeks to maintain the wave in the hair, Bob
 - I, SHIRLEY JONES, leave my quiet disposition to Marvin LeMaster, and my technique for getting along with Mrs. Campbell to Phyllis Gulley.
 - I, REGENA KEGLEY, leave my ability to draw to Dretia Holsinger, and my height to Nadine Aldridge.
 - I, JOAN LANDS, leave to become Phyllis Porter's sister-in-law. Is that enough, Phyllis? I also leave my ability to keep a car on the road to Carolyn Giles. You must sit on three cushions, Carolyn.
 - I, MARY ELLEN LESTER, leave my figure to Jeanette Hanson. Remember, Jeanette, once around the football field everyday carrying a bass drum. I also leave my Latin book to Lena Rae LeCompte and my ability to keep a sailor to Margaret Estep.
 - I, BILL LUTZ, leave Joy Rowles in the care of Dale Lyles. You don't need to give her your class ring, Dale; she will have mine.
 - I, FREDA MARTIN, leave Jack Fremont in the care of Roberta Tomlin. Take good care of him, Roberta. I also leave my ability to become obese while being a cheerleader to Joleen Ticatch.
 - I, JOYCE MAY, leave my beautiful "bleached streak" to Mary Staten. See me later for the secret formula, Mary. I also leave my "hot-rod" driving to Phyllis Gulley.
 - I, BEULAH MINGUS, leave my engagement ring to Pat Monk and my position on the annual staff to Judy Dyer.
 - I, BOB MONTGOMERY, leave my quiet disposition to Mary Alice Jennings, who should make good use of it, and my knowledge of radio to Bill Seth.
 - I, SUANN MCARRIS, leave my ability to become a mock bride on the football field to Sally Lewis. I also leave my out-of-town boy friends to Coleen Tomlin. It works better that way, Coleen.
 - I, PAT NOBLE, leave to become Mrs. Glay Cameron. I also leave my ability not to get straight A's in English to Billie Johnson, and my ability not to get to school on time to Janet Magee. You must live on Glenwood Avenue to do it though, Janet.
 - I, NORMAN PENCE, leave my curly hair to Sonny Davis. A "Tony" every two weeks helps, Sonny.
 - I, RALPH RAMEY, leave Roy Imes my ability to become engaged. I know you don't need this ability, though Roy. I also leave my membership on the annual staff to Verna Martin. It takes a lot of hard work, Verna.
 - I, DON RANKINS, leave Jeanette Hanson in the care of the very capable Jon Wickline. Your duties will be to walk Jeanette to class, home from school, and to sit with her in study hall, but not too close, Jon.
 - I, TOM SANFORD, leave my Ashland, Ky. girls to Carlos Haney. I know you'll take good care of them, Carlos. I also leave my ability to escape getting caught sleeping in physics to Jerry Stephenson.
 - I, JUNE SKIDMORE, leave my ability to get shorthanded to Jackie Semones. Not that Jackie needs it, though.
 - I, PAUL THOMAS, leave my upper plate to Georgia Walton. With Herbie around, Georgie, you may need it.
 - I, JIM WOLFE, leave my "noisy" disposition to Don Maple. I also leave Don my beautiful black hair. It takes two shampoos a week in an egg nog, Don. I leave Sixth Street to Don Plummer. Get it?
 - I, RALPH POWELL, leave my "zoot" suits to Alvin Johnson. Remember Alvin, a different one every night.

CLASS PROPHECY — 1953

Here it is, the year 1963, and after making our fortunes in the advertising business, we, Mary Finney and Doris Green, returned to New Boston, the Atomic City, to visit our old school chums, of the class of 1953.

As we were cruising along in our Cadillac near the city limits, a chartreuse and shocking-pink sign caught our eyes, which read, "See the Dare-devils in Their Death-defying Feats Starring "Rod Joyce May". We stopped to see Joyce, and who should call to us but Tom Sanford. He is now Joyce's publicity manager. We asked him about the rest of the class, and he told us that for complete information we should see Bob Smith and Bob Montgomery.

We then visited the New Boston Times-Star, where Bob Smith is editor-in-chief (He got his newspaper ability while on the Silhouette staff). He told us that Ella Jane Aldridge is teaching Home Economics at Glenwood.

Then we went to see Bob Montgomery, who operates the radio and T. V. stations WGHS and WGHS-TV. Bob informed us that Don Foit was public relation director at the A-Plant. He also told us that three more of our former classmates are employed at Glenwood; Mary Ellen Lester is history teacher; Don Rankins is head basketball coach; and Suann Morris is head football coach (Her interest in coaching was aroused when she walked out on the football field as a mock bride in a band program, way back in 1953).

We walked down the street, recalling many pleasant memories, and came to the site of "Joe's", which is no longer "Joe's", but "Bill's". It is now enlarged; after Bill Lutz made his fortune running the "Tiger Den" he bought the whole block, expanded "Joe's", and called it "Bill's".

We ambled into "Bill's" and found Rosemary Cockrell the cashier. Wayne Bowling was painting the ceiling (He didn't need a ladder; he had grown to a mere seven feet in height). Wayne told us that there would be a big fight at the New Boston Circle Garden that night -- Don "Slugger" Briggs vs Dwight "Lefty" Cotton. He said it was going to be televised, so we went to visit our old friend, Mrs. Joan Lands Porter, to see it on her T.V. set.

While we were there Mrs. Pat Noble Cameron came in. She was crying because little Glay had fallen and scratched his knee; she asked us to drive him to her family doctor, William Duncan. We did, and his nurse, Shirley Cooper, soon had the situation well in hand.

After Dr. Duncan had treated little Glay, we all sat down in his waiting-room for a talk. Shirley told us that John Hanson was running the Atomic Energy Plant with Harold Daniels as his private secretary and trusted adviser.

We decided to see the latest movie version of "Macbeth" at the Pan where Charles Dunn was manager. Starving in this picture are two more of our school mates, Junior Jenkins as Macbeth and Shirley Jones as Lady Macbeth.

In the show we met the former Virginia Crisp, who had married her boss. It seems he had been fascinated by her shorthand speed. She told us that Don Barnett was manager of the Glockner Chevrolet Company, and his secretary was Mrs. Freda Martin Fremont. It seems Freda works to pass the time while her famous husband, Jack, tours Europe with a Broadway Theatrical Company.

After the brilliant performance of Macbeth, we hopped into our "Cad" and went to the other end of town. We passed the New Boston Skating Rink, and in front a sign read "Special Feature Tonight: Miss Erma Adams Will Teach You To Skate". We stopped to see her but the proprietor, Jim Wolfe, told us she had just gone out to dinner with her partner, Roger Goddard. This reminded us that we were hungry. Jim directed us to a wonderful little French Cafe owned by Joan Belveal. We went there and found Terry Crisp the head waiter. He led us to a table which gave us a view of everything. The orchestra, directed by Fred Adkins, was playing soft dinner music. The cafe was very beautiful with murals done by that famous artist, Regena Kegley. We saw Mrs. Beulah Mingus McAllister dining at a near-by table. We walked over and spoke to her; she told us that two of our school mates had gone a little farther away for employment. Ralph Powell was in Baltimore designing ships and June Skidmore had been a typist at Wright Field in Dayton until the officials discovered her talent as a test pilot. They then sent her west to test their new Atomic planes.

After a delicious meal, prepared by that expert chef, Ralph Ramey, we continued our search for our remaining five classmates. We were walking along wondering where they were and what they were doing when we came to a grocery store. The sign read "Clevenger's", so we went in to see if Jack was around. We found that the owner of this super-market was Don Gulley, who told us that Jack Clevenger had retired after selling his chain of super-markets. Don had bought this store from Jack, but kept the name "Clevenger's" for sentiment's sake. We told Don we were trying to find out where all our old classmates were, and he told us that Richard Fox was now a financial wizard on Wall Street. Don finished off the list of classmates by telling us that the last he had heard of Paul Dick Thomas and Norman Pence, they were running a training camp in the East for prize fighters and had a long waiting list.

Having found out about all our old classmates of 1953, we happily went our respective ways to California and Bermuda; but before we left, we promised to meet at the end of another decade, 1973, to check upon our classmates again.

GAMES PLAYED

WAVERLY: On September 12, the 1952 edition of the Glenwood Tigers opened their season under new coaches. They were head coach Mr. Ralph Darling and his assistant Mr. Homer Pellegrinon. In the first game they proved to be real coaches by tying a strong team from Waverly. It was a very exciting game which was saved by a T.D. pass from Staten to Burton late in the third quarter. Imes kicked the extra point and the game ended in a 7-7 tie.

WHEELERSBURG: On September 19, the Tigers overpowered a weak team from Wheelersburg. The Tigers were sparked by the brilliant playing of Paul Dick Thomas. Roy Imes added two extra points. The final score was New Boston 26, Wheelersburg 6.

GREENFIELD: On September 26, the Tigers traveled to Greenfield for one of the most exciting games of the season. The Tigers proved that they were a top team by beating Greenfield 14-13. Roy Imes (now called "The Toe") kicked the two extra points which won the game.

EAST: On October 3, the Tigers played at Portsmouth East, our ancient rivals. This proved to be a typical game of rivalry. It was a hard fought, thrilling battle from beginning to end. "Toe Imes" kicked the extra points that proved to be the deciding factor of the game. In this game it was Fraley, Thomas, and Penix who were the big guns for the Tiger offense. The final score was New Boston 20, East 19.

HAMILTON FAIRFIELD: On October 10, the Tigers played Hamilton Fairfield in a very important game, our homecoming. The Tigers played their hearts out but were just outclassed as Fairfield won 15-0. Captain Paul Thomas crowned Erma Adams queen of 1952. Her court was senior Joan Belveal, junior Coleen Tomlin, sophomore Patty Schwable and freshman Joan Worley.

IRONTON: October 17, the Tigers played host to what was thought to be a strong team from Ironton, but the mighty Tigers showed their fighting spirit by downing them 33-0. Roger Goddard scored three times, on long runs, to spark the great Tiger offense.

WASHINGTON: On October 25, the Tigers played Washington before a record crowd of 1400. The Tigers played one of their poorer games of the season. When the game ended New Boston was on the short end of the score 6-12. The Tigers only touchdown was scored by Thomas.

CHESAPEAKE: The Tigers' next victim was Chesapeake. On November 1, the Tigers traveled up-river to Chesapeake where the Tigers played one of the weaker teams on their schedule. The final score was New Boston 34, Chesapeake 0.

CAMBRIDGE: On November 7, the Tigers played host to Cambridge, one of the ranking class A teams of the state. It seemed as though the Tigers just couldn't get started as Cambridge overpowered us 34-0.

CENTRAL: On November 14, the Tigers closed a very victorious season by downing Central. The Tigers ended their first season under their new coach, Mr. Darling. They fought very hard to win their last game and came out on top by a 39-0 score. Thomas, Goddard, Patrick, and Fraley, were the stand-outs in this game. The season ended with 6 won, 3 lost, and 1 tied.
