Aimee is studying hard to keep her Most Studious Student Award!

Amber and Josh won The Best Couple award.

The entire '03 class agreed...Rebecca for Quietest Senior!

Even their shadows can't keep up with our Best Senior Athletes, BJ and Erica.

Gossip Queen Amber is at it again!

SUPERLATIVES

We know that Tom will be a success. He was voted Most Likely To Succeed.

Amber and B.J. are lookin' good! They were voted Best Dressed.

Best Hair goes to Miranda and Scott. (Looks like a "hairy" situation!)

Josh had the Class Clown vote in the can!

Amber and Brett share flirting techniques. They were voted Biggest Flirts.

2003 CLASS WILLS

I, Aimee Taylor, being of sound mind and body leave the entire class of 2004 my love and best wishes; to Latosha Gardner, I leave all the fond memories of art class; to Matt Marshall, I leave you my baseball skills; to Zach Messer, I leave you the ability to laugh at Mr. Chamberlin's stories and my one true love, Sponge Bob; to Marty Mohr, I want to give you some advice: keep smiling, laughter is one thing that will never let you down; to Andrea Sexton, I leave you the ability to manage everything, even if you think you can not handle it; to Brandon Hemming, I leave you a long trip to KFC and my entire four years of Quiz Bowl knowledge- you'll need it; to Dasha Buckley, I leave you the ability to handle boyfriends- one at a time; to Greg Mauk, I leave the ability to be nice to your mom and some markers; to Aaron Spriggs, I leave a big dent in the back of your car; to Alicia Howell, I leave the entire state of Ohio and chocolate; to Jamie reed, I leave you the ability to not gain weight no matter how much you eat. It's just too bad that I never had that ability in the first place. To the rest of the class of 2004, good luck next year.

I, Erica Adkins, being of absent mind and squishy body, do hereby bequeath a lifetime supply of cheeseburger shaped cakes to Andrea Sexton, so that she never has to make one again; to Zach Messer, I leave a good, hearty DARN and fifteen new Sponge Bob shirts; to Greg Mauk I leave a new pair of basketball shorts, since he tore up his old ones; to Matt Marshall, I leave the ability to "contain himself"; to Bob-Brandon Hemming, I leave all the fig newtons he can eat without having to tear down a closet door; and to the rest of the class of 2004, I leave the ability to enjoy school while it lasts. It goes by way too quickly.

I, Amber Raikie, being of blonde mind, boisterous sound and exquisite body, do hereby leave to Dasha Buckley a big winter coat to keep her warm in Mr. Howard's class; to Greg Mauk I leave my Eclipse and my wonderful driving ability; to Matt Marshall, a great big smile and a friendly hello; and to the rest of the class of 2004, I would just like to say I hope your senior year is as fun filled and exciting as mine. GOOD LUCK!

I, Kyle Tilley, being the model student that I am, pass the torch to Jacob Hickman, AKA "Hickie", for all those snow days at your house; I leave my vo-tech classmate Micah Perry a double quarter pounder; I leave my height to Scott Taylor, and to the upcoming senior class, you only have one more year! Good luck!

I, Dasha White, being of unique body and out spoken mind, hereby leave Micah Perry a caffeine free Diet Pepsi to wash down that double quarter pounder; to Jacob Hickman a late ride to school; to Jamie Reed my way of dealing with bad boyfriends; Natosha Collins a clean room; to Dasha Buckley a cool head in volleyball; to Matt Marshall I leave you a candy gram for all those you sent me; to Greg Mnuik my reckless and ticket free driving abilities, and to the rest of the upcoming senior class good luck and start saving your money now, your senior year is expensive!

I, Miranda Campbell, being of velumptious mind and sound body, wish to leave to Andrea Sexton all the Snackwell treats to last all school year in Mr. Chamberlin's class; to Zach Messer, I leave all Sponge Bob Squarepants items ever manufactured; to Alicia Howell, the ability to comprehend every joke you are confused by; to Matt Marshall and Aaron Spriggs, a life supply of fig bars to eat before lunch; to Latosha Gardner, I leave a bag of cough drops so you do not have to depend on others for any; to Greg Mauk, I leave a box of markers to draw your own tattoos with; to the rest of the juniors that I did not specifically mention, and those I did mention, I wish you the best of luck and hope you have as much fun as I did as a Senior!

I, Brett Yuenger, being of cool mind and large body, leave to Zach Messer the ability to grow a beard unlike any other; to Matt Marshall, I leave behind my jumping distance, to add on to what he already had; to Aaron Spriggs, I leave a pair of gym shorts; Greg Mauk can have my dribbling skills to navigate through opposing players even more easily; but nobody can have my Dodge!

I, Jessica Brown, being of outspoken mind and body leave to the whole junior class the best of luck; to Andrea Sexton I leave my math skills and to her and Alicia Howell I leave a bowl of Jell-O with cherries; to Dasha Buckley I leave my ability to deal with stress; to Jason Moore I leave my seat at the lunch table and whatever food is left over, and to the rest of you, have a great senior year.

I, Scott Crabtree, being of good will and normalcy do hereby leave "Bob" Brandon Hemming a log for him to sit on; I leave Matt Marshall a strong deep Boise that does not crack and to Greg Mauk I pass the cane.

I, Jon Phillips, leave to Matt Marshall my rugged, manly and well pitched voice to replace that squeaky thing he has now; I leave to Jamie Reed the invitation to come see me any time she wants to. Finally, to the current junior class and to all future graduating classes I leave this important advise, never let your senior class officers pick out senior T-shirts.

I, Tosha Meenach, being of intellectual mind and stretched out body do hereby leave to Micah Perry my mermaid blanket for all those late cold nights; to Jacob Hickman I leave my spirit to be the life of the party; to Natosha Collins my chair in dental for all the days you just feel like sleeping; to Andrea Sexton I leave my seat on the bench of all those long volleyball games...keep it warm!. To Dasha Buckley my ability to be a middle hitter (knock'em out!); to the rest of the senior class good luck and best wishes throughout your senior year have fun because it goes by fast!

I, Jacob Moore, being of unique fashion and great sense of words, the role model that I am, I hereby leave Jacob Hickman "Hickie" the ability to hit the crossbar in soccer; I leave Micah Perry the ability to pull off Student of the Month as well as I did; to Greg Mauk the ability to carry on the would-you-rather game; to Zach Messer, I leave you a pick; to Marty Mohr the ability to run a straight line; and to the rest of the senior class keep your mind on your money and your money on your mind.

2003 CLASS PROPHECY

Here we are, twenty years after leaving the doors of Glenwood High School. As I walk into the gym, I am amazed to see who is actually at our reunion. So many of my classmates have become famous, but all are successful in one way or another.

I look around and the first people I see are John Feeman, Tim Conkel and Danny Everman. Tim and Danny work together. Tim is a Professional Monster Truck Driver and Danny is his head mechanic. They make a great team. John has made his mark in society, literally, because he designs and builds monuments.

Then I see Brett Yuenger. He makes a difference to thousands everyday since he serves as lead door greeter at the largest Wal-Mart in America, which just happens to be right here in New Boston.

Another person who impacts the lives of people is Amber Raika. Amber is a marriage counselor, no doubt. She saved some of the most impossible marriages.

Huddled together in a corner, Jacob Moore, Josh Stapleton and Kyle Tilley stand talking about old times. All of these guys have made names for themselves. Jacob is now, ironically, the New Boston Computer Technician and is now known as "Jacob Keyboard". Josh has become a "jack of all trades" as a model/actor/singer/comedian. Kyle may be the most successful of the guys, he is a stay at home Dad; the soccer Dad that everyone has dreamed of.

Miranda Campbell walked in dressed somewhat differently than how I remembered. She is now a Coyote. Oh yes, she is a bartender at the "Coyote Ugly".

Tim Owens and BJ Darling enter the party in uniform. Tim was just sworn in as New Boston's Police Chief. BJ is now known as Master Chief William Darling, United States Navy.

At the refreshment table I see Eddie Swords, Tosha Meenach and Dasha White. Eddie is discussing his television show. He hosted his own fishing show, but the Outdoor Network unfortunately canceled it because he couldn't catch anything. Tosha stays very busy with her own day care service called "Tosha's Tots", where four children are her own. Dasha, though, is not stranger to large crowds; she is used to being the center of attention since she is the "weather girl" on WSAZ news.

Jon Phillips walks in next. He has taken over the new "Dr. Phil". He has written many self-help books and now is on the New York Times Best Seller List.

Jessi Brown, on the other hand, is a REAL doctor. She is a pediatrician at SOMC, founder of the Portsmouth Women and Children's Clinic, and has built a playground with safe swings.

John Kelly strides into the room. He is now known as the epitome of style and music. He started out in a garage band, but now that band is bigger than the Rolling Stones. His band's name is JELLY.

It seemed empty at the party, and then I realized who wasn't there. Destiny Hickman wasn't there because she has been traveling the world in search of the perfect hamburger and promoting the Hickie's franchise.

Derrick Dunaway decided not to show because he is a half a world away. He has recently become the United States Ambassador to Japan.

Becky Holbrook couldn't make it because she is a missionary to India with her sister. She has already won the Nobel Peace Prize as well as the hearts of thousands of children.

Erica Adkins is a special investigator for the FBI and takes great pleasure in her current investigation of the President, who is none other than our very own Tom Toft. It seems that the President has a past record of Copyright law violations and his speeches have a striking resemblance to those of Richard Nixon. He has been quoted as saying "I am NOT a crook!"

Scott Crabtree, who couldn't be separated from Tom in high school, can't be separated from him now. He is the Vice President, but had a former life as a Brownie Scout Troop Leader.

As the party dies down, I notice that I haven't said anything about myself. I am the world's premiere Broadway star. I've been in over 40 shows and have won 17 Tony Awards. It seems like everyone wants me to be in their show, but there just aren't enough hours in the day.

Who would have ever known that the Class of 2003 would have turned out so successful? We were the class that filled every teacher with fear and always drove them crazy, and now we have some of the most powerful people in America. I'm sure that we all cherish the good memories of Old Glenwood on the hill.

Dare To Be A Senior!

The 2003 Senior Class of Glenwood High all agreed that the year went by all too quickly! Time will go by, but true friendships and memories will last forever! The "creative" seniors show their school spirit by forming a giant "G" for Glenwood. Starting at the top of the "G", senior class members include: Brett Yuenger, Josh Stapleton, Kyle Tilley, Tosha Meenach, Amber Raiké, Dasha White, Eddie Swords, Tom Toft, Tim Owens, Rebecca Holbrook, Derrick Dunaway, BJ Darling, Jon Phillips, Miranda Campbell, Erica Adkins and Aimee Taylor.

Class of 2003...Thanks for the memories!

Daring, Fun, Energetic Seniors of 2003!

You've Come A Long Way, Baby!

Dear Erica,
You have proven yourself to be honest, dedicated and honorable. I am very proud of you and respect you. You have earned it!
Love, Mom
"Go Buckeyes"

Dear Aimee,
We are proud of you. We love you very much!
Mom & Kensey

Amber Dawn,
From precious little girl to beautiful young lady. Congratulations in everything you have accomplished so far. Good luck with your future accomplishments. Remember life is what you make it so keep smiling! We are very proud of you! You will always be "Daddy's little girl!"
Love Always, Mom & Dad

Dear Thomas,
We are so proud of you!
Love,
Mom, Paul, Kelsey,
Courtney & Ainsley

Dear Jessica Brown,
I am so proud of the person you have become. You always amaze me with your kind and caring heart. Remember to be true to yourself, laugh a lot, cry when you need and keep your sense of humor. If today is bad, tomorrow will be better. All my love and always in my heart. Love, Mom & Bill

Dear Miranda,
We are proud of you. We love you!
Dad, Kendra, Bub, Mom,
Cheranda and Christopher

Dear Son,
I'm so proud of you. You have become a wonderful young man. No matter where you go or how old you get, I will always be there for you. I love you more than you will ever know. My son; my friend. Love, Mom
John Michael Kelley
"Chuck"

Dear Derrick,
I am so proud of you. I just wish you could have stayed a baby forever, but you'll always be mine.
Love, Mom and Kayla

We Took The Dare...
The Class of 2003 has Succeeded!

Mr. Thomas Edward Toft II earned the highest academic title of Valedictorian. He provided wise wisdom from the words of Dr.
Seuss.

Miss Aimee Nicole Taylor earned the next highest academic title of Salutatorian. She instructed her classmates to always strive to do their best and work towards the future.

Mayor James Warren
spoke to the Senior Class about
"Ascending the Ladder of Success".

Dare To Be A Junior

What Does A Junior Do?

Let's re-phrase...What DOESN'T a Junior do?!?!?!?

Basically, Juniors can't wait to be Seniors! But as with all Juniors, they seem to find plenty of activities to keep them busy! Hmm, sometimes they look a little bit TOO happy!!

Greg and Brandon seem to really enjoy their computer classes while Aaron and Jamie eagerly await a Glenwood High play production. Latasha could always be found roaming the halls while passing out announcements. The competition pep rally is always fun for the Juniors...they can't wait to take their spot as "Senior Champs" next year! Can't quite make it out...is it Brandon and Zach or Jekyll and Hyde? Anyway you look at it,

JUNIORS ARE GREAT!

Dare To Be A Student Council Member

Student Council Advisors Mrs. Wessel and Mr. Mayberry supervised a variety of social and service activities throughout the year. One of the highlights is the annual Halloween Dance and Costume Contest. Glenwood High School is famous for, shall we say, "creative participants"! Other activities include Blood Drives, Christmas Fruit Baskets to the elderly, school newsletter delivery and Homecoming.

2002-2003 Student Council members include (front to back; L-R) Kelsey Toft, Ginger Horsley, Justin Bowling, Ashley Turner, Cory Bussler, Tasha Buckley, Sara Estep, Kris Lawson, Tanya Salyers, Kara McCreary, Stephanie Rose, Brittany Bloomfield, Aimee Taylor, Abby Marshall, Kellie Thiesse, Heather Waugh, Betty Adams, Amber Raike, Jamie Reed, Aaron Spriggs, Greg Mauk, Tom Toft, and Scott Crabtree. Co-Sponsors: Mrs. Wessel and Mr. Mayberry

GHS Student Government Leaders

Halloween Costume Winners: Felica, Josh, Sarah, Scott, Aimee, John and Tom.

Ashley Turner is a very "catty" student council treasurer!

Advisors Mrs. Wessel and Mr. Mayberry really get into their work!

Kris Lawson isn't shy about promoting the American Red Cross Blood Drive!

Dare To Be A Band Member

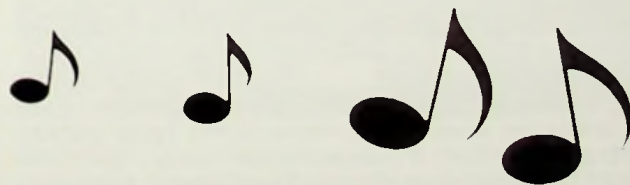

The Tiger Marching Band, under the direction of Mr. Pierce, is the pride of Glenwood High. What they lack in size, they add in talent! They represented our school and placed 1st in their division at Cedar Point. Way to go band members! Members include: Front row: Jamie Miller, Sara Estep, Ginger Horsley, Katie Williams, Labree Johnson and Terry Lacey. Second Row: Tanya Salyers, Shane Adkins, Tyler Horsley, Michael Mohr and Director Mr. Pierce. The Tiger Band is always ready to contribute to school spirit and play at ball games and perform in area parades. Thank you, band, for sharing your talents!

The Music Makers!

Top: Solo and Ensemble participants included Shane, Tanya, Erica, Katie and Michael.
Below Left: Honors Chorus and Band members Miranda, Shane, Aimee and Tyler.
Below Right: In memory of 9-11, Michael Mohr played taps after a moment of silence.
Bottom Left: Erica, Tanya, Michael and Tyler performed in the Marshall University Honors Band.

Dare To Be A Chorus Member

1st Row: Tiffany Hosey, Kim Harding, Jessica Waugh, Kara McCreary, Stephanie Rose, Brittany Bloomfield, Virginia Adams, Kris Lawson, Sara Tolbert, Tony Musick and Greg Mauk Row 2: Stephen Rose, Sabrina Taylor, Amber Raike, Aimee Taylor, Miranda Campbell, Abbey Marshall, Rocky Dunkin, Derrick Dunaway, Shane Adkins and Rodney Mustain. Directed by Ms. Clever

The Chorus was always ready to provide us with seasonal and production music pieces. Above, Aimee Taylor and Kim Harding help perform a musical number that is "out of this world"! The crowd swooned when Elvis Stapleton entered the building! School House Rock: LIVE, was a great success!

Upper Left: The Chorus helped to put the "Merry" into our Winter Assembly.

Upper right: BJ seems to be reading something besides music!

Left: Miranda brought the pioneer spirit out in all of us during School House Rock: LIVE!

Lower Right: The Grand Finale! Take a bow, chorus, for a job well done!

Dare To Be A JOGS Member

Row 1: Virginia Adams, Nick Lewis, Mark Salisbury, Tiffany Hosey, Amber Raike, Kim Harding, Kellie Thiesse, Alicia Howell
Row 2: Megan Lancaster, Josh Stapleton, Justin Bradley, Kevin Darby, Staci Darby, Jamie Reed
Row 3: Jamie Miller, Sara Tolbert, Rocky Dunkin, JD Jones, Adam Phillips, Felicia Collins
Row 4: Mrs. Hardin, BJ Darling, Derrick Dunaway, Scott Crabtree, Aaron Spriggs, Jon Phillips
Row 5: Sara Wolfe, Kaya Hill, Michael Day, Zachary Messer, TJ Moore, David Evans
The JOGS class enjoyed tutoring students at Oak and Stanton. They also enjoyed creating holiday projects and activities to distribute to local hospitals.

JD, Rocky and Justin prepare for the future with the latest technology.

Mark Salisbury gained valuable teaching/tutoring skills while working the elementary grades.

Mrs. Hardin really looks up to her accomplished students!

Staci Darby's tutoring experience benefited her students as well as helped her with future goals.

OFFICE STAFF

Latasha Gardner, Erica Adkins, Amber Raike and Sara Wolfe all work together with Kathy to help keep the office running smoothly.

LIBRARY STAFF

Tom Toft, Betty Adams, Ashley Turner and Aimee Taylor work with Mrs. McCain to provide an organized library for student use.

BLOOD DONORS

Scott Crabtree, Dasha Buckley, Jon Phillips, Erica Adkins and Tom Toft

Our 5 brave blood donors accepted the task of giving to help others, as well as the American Red Cross.

Dare To Be In Drama Club

The Drama Club presented two great plays during the 2002-2003 school year. "Murder Well Rehearsed" and "A Rose for Emily" provided the audience with lots of suspense, drama and comedy. Drama Club members include:

Row 1: Mr. Tevis-Advisor

Row 2: Jon Phillips, Brandon Hemming, Scott Crabtree, Tom Toft, Eddie Swords

Row 3: Aimee Taylor, Andrea Sexton, Josh Stapleton, Erica Adkins and Miranda Campbell

Drama, Suspense, Comedy...Glenwood Has It All!

Dare To Be A Yearbook Staff Member

The 2002-2003 Yearbook Staff Members really put their heads together to create a super yearbook for Glenwood High School!

Staff Members include: Clockwise from top-Tanya Salyers, Erica Adkins and Kellie Thiesse

Tanya-Photographer

Tanya explains to John the importance of keeping all of the class photos in order. Tanya did a great job sticking all of the photos and assigning them to layouts. Pay attention, John!

Kellie and Erica

Kellie organizes her photo layouts while Erica puts everything into the computer. Technology makes the yearbook process go a lot smoother.

Kellie-Photographer

Preplanning all of your pictures before you take them will save you a lot of time and money. Our motto: Write it down, check it, write it down and check it again. The students' favorite saying, "Not again, Mrs. Stevens"!

Erica- Yearbook Editor

As yearbook editor, Erica took the lead in preparing layouts and ads. Her leadership skills set a great example for the other students. Erica spent many after school hours helping to prepare this yearbook

Dare To Be Active!

Miss Dasha White - River Days Candidate 2022

Dasha represented Glenwood High School in the Miss River Days Pageant 2002. Dasha chose a beautiful yellow chiffon and taffeta gown featuring a white bodice and empire waistline. As part of the nights entertainment, Dasha and other high school contestants performed a snazzy jazz routine. Dasha modeled a one piece nautical bathing suit with white shorts for the sportswear competition. Her float scored a perfect "10" on the parade route! Thanks, Dasha, for all of your hard work...you did a super job!

COMPETITION PEP RALLY

Betty's hoping for 'nothing but net'!

"We've got spirit yes we do, we've got spirit how 'bout you?!" Senior Pride is a mile wide!

Watch out pep rally...the 8th graders are ready to rumble!

Haley has had one Hickie Burger too many, but Cory is ready for at least 5 more!

"Where's the fire?!" Wherever it is, the 7th graders will get there FAST!

Sara, Nathan and Michael are trying to help their class secure a victory!

It takes a tough baby not to gag on those bottles!

"Come on, girls! You can't be full...you're only half done!"

"Where's the nearest trash can?"

After six years of practice, the seniors have this race perfected!

The Freshmen have the holiday pep rally spirit!

Competition Pep Rally 2002

Is this REALLY required before I graduate?!?!

"A" my name is Alfred, I come from Alabama...good thing we all learned our jump rope rhymes in grade school!

Mrs. Coriell "encourages" the competitors on to victory!

Mr. Porter and Miss Burnside seem to be pondering an unbelievable event.

The "crab-walk"...a form of student torture!
Some students prefer to cheer their class on to victory from the stands. Competitor or fan, a great time is had by all.

A Moment Like This...

Ashley Turner escorts honorary attendants Elijah Ruark and Ashley Adkins.

Queen Amber Dawn Raiké

2002 Queen Kalyn Sudakaran escorts crown bearer Travis Carter and flower girl Lexie Ruark.

"A Moment Like This..." a truly unforgettable evening for lovely Queen Amber and her escorts B.J. Darling and Derrick Dunaway.

Senior Attendant Erica Adkins graced the evening with her escort John Kelly.

Junior Attendant Andrea Sexton glowed on the arm of her escort Zack Messer.

Sara Wolfe charmed the audience. She and Michael Day represented the Sophomore Class.

The radiant Freshman Attendant, Stephanie Rose, was escorted by Rocky Dunkin.

This is a moment that we will never forget.

Take My Breath Away...

Prom 2003 really did take our breath away. The Juniors did an excellent job honoring the Senior class by providing a beautiful night underneath the stars. The Prom Advisor was Miss Angie Henson. The Prom Committee included: Andrea Sexton, Alicia Howell, Greg Mauk, Zach Messer and Aaron Spriggs.

Junior-Senior Prom 2003

The Prom Buffet Menu included stuffed chicken breast, roast beef, specialty vegetables and an abundance of delicious desserts! The tables were decorated with a photo album, a prom theme goblet, a prom memory book and, of course, shining moons and sparkling stars.

Sectional Champions!

Left: Senior Aimee Taylor is focused on the next return.
Below: Ashley and Dasha wait to return a serve.

Above: Dasha White is prepared for anything.

Mrs. Coriell became our new varsity volleyball coach. With her guidance and team spirit, we became Sectional Champs and competed in Districts. We had a great team that included four seniors: Tosha Meenach, Amber Raike, Aimee Taylor, and Dasha White. We'll miss you, seniors! Thanks for a great season!

We are already thinking about next year!

Soccer

Good passes are key to any "hairy" situation!

Sectional Champs!

Finishing the season at 8-8-2, the Tigers went on to become Sectional Champs. They were led by their four seniors: B.J. Darling, Derrick Dunaway, Jacob Moore and Josh Stapleton. We look forward to another "Super Soccer Season"!

Kaya Hill goes for the steal!

Goalie Micah Perry saves the day!

J.V. Basketball

Not Pictured: Kris Lawson and Matt Howell

The guys love to show off their moves, especially in front of a large crowd.

Pat is not only a great player, but apparently a good cheerleader too.

2002-2003

Energy is one of this team's strongest assets.

Stephen Rose, Kris Lawson, Justin Bradley, Tony Musick and John Moore are dressed for success in their pre-game attire. They always look their best, both on and off the court.

Michael Day may be a first year player, but he has a lot of respect for his new coach, Mr. Dutiel.

Row 2: Brittany Bloomfield, Jessica Waugh
Row 3: Aaron Spriggs, Abbey Marshall, Jon Phillips
Not Pictured: Sabrina Taylor and Scott Taylor

Tennis Anyone?

Tom Toft has been a member of the tennis team for 4 years. He received MVP, Most Doubles, and 2nd All SOC.

Jessica Waugh is a first year player with a lot of potential for the coming seasons. We look forward to seeing great tennis from Jessica in the future.

Scott Taylor showed great improvement this year. His dedication to the game will make him a great contender in the future.

Jon Phillips was great fun to watch on the court! His sense of humor kept the team's spirit high. Jon has been playing tennis for 3 years.

Greg Mauk received the Most Singles Award. He was a major asset to the team. Greg will be a great leader on and off the court next season.

Sabrina Taylor received Most Improved. A great honor for a 1st year player. Brittany Bloomfield proved to be a great leader on the court and Abbey Marshall received the Tiger Pride Award.

Tiger Track

The track team doubled in size this year. Heather Waugh and Rodney Mustain showed the county that it is not quantity but quality that counts! Heather had an overall good season and had her personal best time of 13:58 in the 3200 meter run. She was also 2nd place in the SOC Division I. Rodney proved to be a very dedicated, hard worker. He competed in the long jump and set his personal best record of 14'4". He also competed in the 800 meter and mile run.

Cross Country

Heather is one of the most dedicated athletes in the area. Not only does she succeed in her sport, but she has the drive and dedication to keep running, running and running! She is the only member of the Cross Country Team. We are very proud to call her a Tiger! In Cross Country, Heather must endure long runs through fields, over hills, down hills and straight of ways. She never gives up!
