Wed. Dec 7 1897.

A nice day.

Froze a little last night. Thawed

& hauled corn

all day.

Ella helped pick up the corn

& helped a tagel

with us last night.

We had some

music this evening

on the organ.

Ella is sewing some buttons on for

me. We are to have a grand meal

at the night.

Thurs Dec. 2

A cloudy cool day. The boys got out trucking & hauled corn
all day.

Ella helped pick up several loads.

Just a week ago to day my wheels were about the same time in the day we were making

to day we were peaking up our supplies came

by train down
home and is here to night.

Fri Dec. 3

A hard rainy day ~~together~~

A north east rain but not hard.

I chared around
till noon.

Then Ella & I got ready and drove over home where we were a little after dark.

They were looking for us but were glad to be there.

They are all well. Had a train of it a few days before. Sick.

Sat. Dec. 4

Rained hard most all night and in a dark cloudy
damp wet day Rained a little
Some parties Came out for a
hunt. with the boys and all went out for a hunt
The killed a nice lot of rabbits & a lot of quails
He had rabbit and quail to eat full Ella & I drove up to the Purcell's to see about the grader & do it in

Sun. Dec. 5

A stormy day Snowed a little
It has snowed all day at the mill.
Ella & I went over and made Grandpa a visit of about two hours.
The boys went to Sunday school.
Miss Ella & I
called on us
in the afternoon

Wen. Dec. 6
A little snow
upon the ground but the weather is not cold.

Lida, Ella & I
drove down to
New Boston then took a rail car
to the city.

Ella & I had my pictures taken
the main object
of this photo
went also.

He had a nice
time.

Ella & I after having our supper
we drove out to our Pine Creek ~~to~~

Thurs. Dec. 7
A nice bright
day. I was at the head all
day. Bryant & Lake churches were Bussell came on and began to make his farm.
I took a load of manure which I made my milk
for a while.
I have cold
but I guess
it will be good for me.

Tues. Dec. 2

A fine snow
day. Some chickadees.
I hauled in Hydrocotyle of camp
found a ground
squirrel shook some Binton helped all day. Jack Harriet pack
and shuck

Thurs. Dec. 3

Another nice day
Binton & I shuck corn. I hauled a corn.
Haein came back
to haul.
I helped him get loaded.
He took a boat to the bank this afternoon.
The tide makes have made 1
day.

Tue, Dec. 10
A nice warm
day. - Some clouds Benton & I
picked a bird down in B.C. - I had
Harris hawk saw Ella & Walter
down over to Smith & Perry
at the
like rain

Sat. Dec. 11.
A light rain. Thin morning and a
damp, low day.
The chow ground Harris took a load of material to the
He made a barney and
and changed the page.
Chow a right
Charles
came down
payed him
at the Ruth
account.

Sun Dec 12

A nice day
Cool and cloudy
At home all day Ella & I took a
a stroll over the hills. The way to the rock house
The first time
she saw them
Up in the orchard
The rabbits have gnawed some of the apples
down.
We took a horse back ride in the evening.

Mon Dec 13

A cloudy day
A few of the mushrooms
We worked 2 hours
to day.
May & Binta
planted in corn stalks & dug
them down.
I took the extra gun down and got it fixed.
Ella mixed cast
eggs and then helped shell a quint of corn
I after the ducks
was washed.

Tues. Dec. 14

A damp rainy day
The first snow
arrived this morning Warren working as a sawdust
head.

I took a quart of wheat & corn
to mill at the mill.

Sent my clothes
for the Baadens
and farmer Ma & Ella put up the pumpkins
up to day.

Wed. Dec. 13

A nice day
Binton & Warren
hauled parties
all day.

I chosed around
untill noon
Baker stalked a half day.

Lillian went to the Hill with Binty's children to practice their puzzles for a week. The four peddles came in here after dark.

Thurs Dec. 16

A nice day
Took a little By road up to St. Bourton. To see a part has passing Harris & Britton
plowed till noon
He then plowed
out potatoes
The rest of the day. Got sold the abattoir built of a lot of Ella got her nephew last night
He being sick

Fri. Dec. 17

A cloudy day
Warm and soft Rained all the
afternoon.
He finished plowing the potatoes
out, and plowed
a little.
Harris & D. took the buck wheat
over to Mr. Chaffin and cleaned it
out, while it rained.

Wed Dec. 18

A cool day Bill butler and a Brinton & Blair
helped him
& took two sacks of wheat and a sack of buckwheat
to the mill and I went round John Call went with me.

Pa Crull came part with a head of cattle Ella & I got each and drove over home.

Did not get started till late

Sun Dec 18

A cold raw day Thawed a little
The stage class
all day
Ella & I went over to Grandpa Crull's
a little while
in the afternoon
The came home & started home by 3.30 P.M.

The arrived home
a little after dark in good shape and not cold to appear to say anything

Herb Peery was here and stayed
all night

Mon Dec. 20.
A big sleet on this morning and sleet falling
sleet melted
off and it still rained
most all day
except black
most all day
& turned around settled with soft snow
and I saw this a lot of spears
off the factory seen a part of another saw
of trees out of a log stack
at the Chopin Cabin

Tues Dec 27.
A damp day
clouds all day & wind around Harmon & cut wood and down
several stacks
of wood.
Gene came home
this evening.
Cate.

Wed. Dec. 22

A little snow
fell last night
A cold clear day
Ice a little I went up to visit Hannah's to bail her her but she gave up with and so I got over to
her. I gave but she is no hurry
we will let Jake Ruth
haul the bails
down to his place.

Maxie hauled wood & sent out
bails.

Thurs. Dec. 23

A cold wind
and a cold day
I went with Jake Ruth and
helped him
move the bails
down to his
place.

Gene & Maxie
went to town and had a nice time
Had not get home until late.

They had broke
the express wagon
and had a
time

Sun. Dec. 26

A nice day.
All well over
there.

Pa & I stayed at home ~~all day~~
with the old folks all day.

Mon. Dec. 27

A nice day.
Pa & I took our buckwheat up to the Harison
mill and got
part of it ground.
The man all day getting it
ground.

Had several heavy packs
and learned
the mill from the man what to do. He could make one I guess.
Dinner without not get back until dark.

Thurs. Dec. 28
A cold night
and cool all
day

Ellie & I went to town today
and had our pictures taken
over again.

We got several little notions and some small gifts
and came back home in the evening.

Pa Correll went up to the mill and got our
buckwheat flour.

Frid. Dec. 29
A stormy bad
day. Snowed a little and rained
some.

Pa Correll & I went up to Hagerman to McDeCarnes
and had to wait for a long time
We did not get back until after dinner
The all blacksmith
the rest of the
time.
