IMAGINATION.... Life Is Your Creation

Functioning as a country in Mr. Green's class, Hailey Meadows, Kari Craig and Courtney Bradford build a tower using marshmallows and spaghetti. Overtaking another country provided more resources and allowed for the construction of a stronger and larger tower demonstrating the advantages of imperialism.

Ms. Weaver's CP Lit/Comp class listens intently to Kayla Bays while she gives her presentation of The Scarlet Letter as Hester Prynne. Kayla later revealed she had bought the dress and had sewn a red "A" on it to give it an authentic appearance.

Learning Is In Your Hands

Acting as chemists, Seth Watkins, Paige Simon, and Brooke Tipton cautiously analyze the scientific theory of a chemical reaction using aluminum foil decomposition. The group explained that this experiment was the most entertaining and educational one yet.

Engulfed in their work, Chris Cooper and Devan Osborn cautiously drip a Benedict solution into each individual test tube containing organic compounds. They learned that organic compounds can be in various states such as gas, liquid, or solid.

Row 1: Eric Harr, Josh Bro, Hunter Biggs, Kyle Redoutey, Ronnie Emmons, Preston Hall, and Blain Honaker.
Row 2: Keldon Bowling, Brooklyn Jones, Miranda Miller, Kendra Neville, and Mariah Ross. The Select Chorus participated in the Marshall University Choir Festival along with other choirs from around the tri-state area.

As soon as the second semester commences, the band begins the enormous job of preparing musical selections for the spring concert. The concert was held during the annual, Evening with the Arts. Band director, Miss Huff reflected, "The best part was getting to see everyone's hard work develop into a final product. You can see every student giving their all to turn notes into beautiful music."

CHECK OUT OUR ENRICHMENTS

Upon finishing their blankets, Allie Lacy and Sierra Woodard ask Miss Reynolds for her expert feedback on their sewing. The handmade blankets provide love, a sense of security, warmth, and comfort to children who are seriously ill or traumatized. Allie Lacy and the other student volunteers like to call themselves "blanketeers."

Adding a little entertainment to Bible Club, Mr. Day and Carly Harness enlighten the students with Bible verses, catchy songs, and amusing games. Carly made Bible Club her number one choice every enrichment because she looked forward to the fellowship and the singing.

Charli McClay shows her horse Riley in the Paso Fino Nationals in Shelbyville, Kentucky. Charli was invited by her trainer Sherry Lute to participate in the show, and she placed second and third in equitation.

The energetic cheerleaders enthusiastically represent their school at the AmeriCheer summer competition. The girls attained first, second, and third places in a sideline dance, a school dance, and a cheer routine.

Band members Miranda Miller, DJ Sargent, Kyle Redouty, and Katie Fuller discover a piece of their childhood while curiously touring Disney World in Florida. Katie explained, "It was Miranda's birthday and we were chilling with Pooh and Tigger."

Senior Eric Harr stands proudly with his fellow Buckeye Boys in Bowling Green, Ohio. Eric was sponsored by Post 23 in Portsmouth and admitted, "It was the wisest decision involving summer opportunities that I ever made."

Shawnacy McGulre energizes the crowd with enthusiastic cheers before the start of the pageant. Shawnacy took pride in being one of the chosen cheerleaders to participate in such an exhilarating event.

Mackenzie offers one final wave to her dedicated fans before making her departure. She nostalgically explained that her reign as a Riverdays candidate was delightful and overall rewarding.

Football Homecoming

D.J. Hemming and Brandon Riggs gawk at each other's costumes in utter disbelief. These two costumes brought "Would You Still Be My Friend If I Wore..." Day to a whole new level as people actually questioned if they still wanted to be friends with Brandon and D.J.

Prior to the ceremony, Jessie Myers nervously focuses as she places the sparkly crown onto Katie Moore's head. Jessie was the only one brave enough to crown her because nobody wanted to mess up her hair.

Basketball Homecoming

During the senior vs. faculty basketball game, Charl McClay competes in the dizzy bat. Students must run down the court, place their head on the end of a bat, spln ten times, and run bewildered back down the court to tag in a teammate.

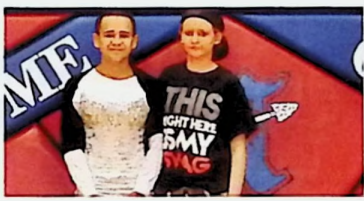

Kyle Redoutey blows the pitch pipe in order to produce the perfect pitch for The Star-Spangled Banner. According to soprano Mariah Ross, the most important thing to remember is to, "Make sure you have a good tone and try not to make weird faces."

Trevor Anderson Enz

July 23, 1995 - July 17, 2012

He was right next door and was always there when I needed him, no matter what.
-Devan Osborn

He was fun, he listened when I needed him. He talked a lot haha. But he was one of my best friends. He knew how to enjoy life. - Michael Hobbs

When I was sad he always knew how to brighten my day!
- Courtney Dowdy

He was original. He always did his own thing, no worries, just himself, nobody else!
- Travis Sifford

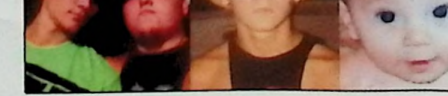

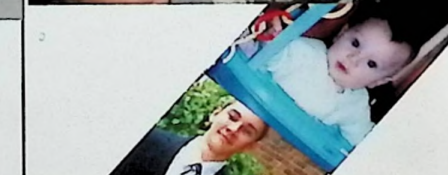

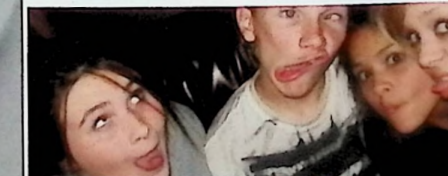

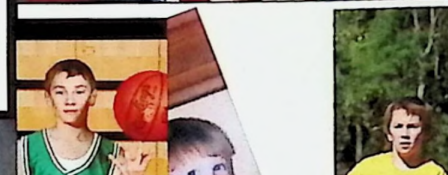

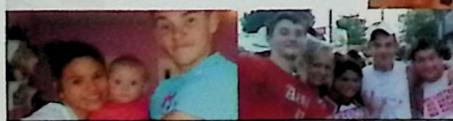

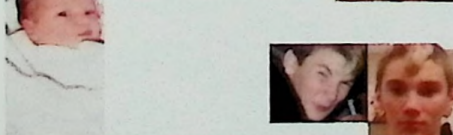

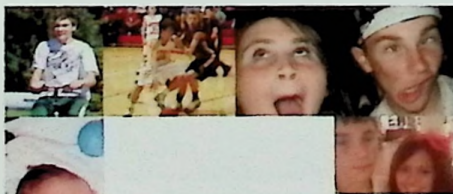

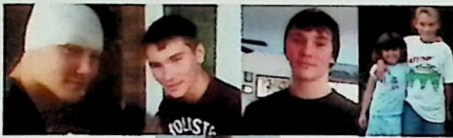

On behalf of my family, I would like to thank the Northwest community for their support through the loss of our beloved Trevor. He will be sorely missed by all who knew him. This page is a testament to the positive impact that Trevor had on so many people, as well as a reminder of how short and precious life can be. - Chris Enz

Painting by Chris Enz

"Time slips by, and life goes on.
But from our hearts you're never gone."

We think about you always,
We talk about you too,
We have so many memories,
but we wish we still had you...."

ANITA HAMILTON- 20 years of being our Secretary - " I will miss Anita because she always gives such great advice, no matter what the problem may be. She will be greatly missed by all." - Marianne Emmons

1998 - Anita and Bonnie Emmons were the school secretaries.

12/11/12 - Anita and her fellow secretary and great friend, Marianne Emmons.

4/11/13 - Anita is busy as always, taking numerous phone calls.

JUDY BAYES - 28 years of teaching Health & P.E - "I will always remember when Mrs. Bayes and I shared a room at a P.R.I.D.E conference, and I was snoring so loud that she tried to sleep in the bathtub. Believe me, she made me suffer the next day!" - Mrs. Bloomer

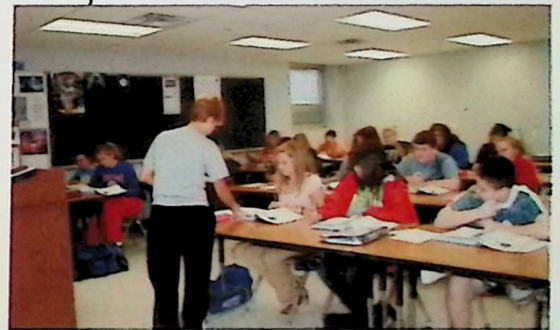

1992 - Coach Bayes laughs off another victory with her team.

10/11/12 - Coach Bayes huddles with her team as she explains how to acquire a victory.

3/4/13 - Mrs. Bayes pauses to clarify the Health assignment for one of her students.

MARK SPEARS - 10 years of teaching at NHS - "Everyday with Spears is a crazy, fun, and weird day." - Mrs. South 1980 - While preparing for his degree in education, Mr. Spears and future wife Debbie attend Marshall University's homecoming. Both retired from teaching during the 2012-2013 school year.

12/06/12 - Coach Spears provides his Lady Mohawks with some strategies to use against the Minford Falcons.

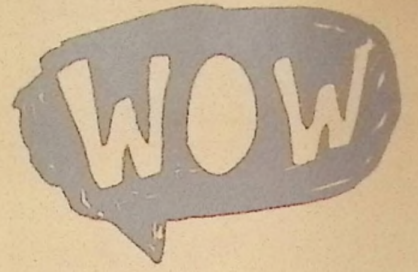

4/19/13 - Mr. Spears demonstrates the proper technique for rolling the kickball into play.

Keeping the Dream Alive

Colophon

The 2012-2013 yearbook was published by Balfour Publishing of Dallas, Texas. Our Balfour Representative is Lindsey Swank. The theme, Scrolling the 2013 Network was developed by the entire yearbook staff and Ms. Weaver. The cover was created by editors Mariah Spriggs and Jessie Myers with the help of cover artist Stephan Williams. Pictures were taken by Brenda Moore, Webmasters, Impressive Studios, and Ruth Boll. All head shots were taken by Kevin Hoops from Impressive Studios. A final thanks to Advisor Rebecca Weaver and Representative Lindsey Swank for making this book possible.
