2004 Miss River Days: Tara Skaggs

"It's a hard thing to admit, but I am a recovering turtle killer. As a child, it was not my intention to kill these little creatures; I was actually trying to save them. After witnessing my dad run over a turtle, I made it my quest to save turtles from the streets by keeping them in the protective refuge of my refrigerator. I was too young to realize that refrigeration equaled an inevitable death.

"One day my grandma asked about all the holes that were appearing in the yard. As I explained about my turtle graveyard, my grandma kindly informed me that I was the one that was harming the turtles. Saddened by the news, I learned never to refrigerate another turtle again.

"Now that my turtle killing days are over, the impact of the turtles' slow, pitiful deaths remains. When I look at other students in the halls and classrooms, I realize how similar they are to those turtles. Each individual walks around in his or her shell trying to dodge oncoming traffic that presents itself in the form of insults and slander. The moment someone insults or degrades another human being, the effects are similar to my turtle-refrigerating days. The cold begins to seep in and piece by piece, that individual begins to die inside. Let us all stop to think before speaking harmful words to another person. Don't let our schools' hallways and classrooms become a turtle graveyard."

2004 Fair Queen: Heather Farris

Heather Farris was crowned Scioto County Junior Fair Queen for 2004 at the Scioto County Fair in August. This pageant is to select a young lady who participates in both her school and community beyond that of which is expected of her. Overall, she should be a role model for those of all ages. Contestants must be a member or alumnus of one of the organizations represented by the Junior Fair Board. Heather is a member of the Silver Spurs 4-H Club and FCCLA. Heather is the daughter of Tammy and Terry Warner of Wheelerburg.

2004 Miss Flame: Amanda Jenkins

On October 2, Amanda Jenkins was crowned Miss Flame 2004 for Green High School. Amanda was picked by her peers at Green High School and represented them in the Fire Prevention Parade. The Parade started off a little soggy, but things cleared up just fine toward the end. Amanda is the daughter of Andy and Wendy Avery of Franklin Furnace. She was crowned by Miss Flame 2003, Kim Cherry.

Senior Wills

April Anderson: As I leave Green High School, I look back at all the good and bad times. So I leave some of my friends things. To Shannon Russell, the ability to try to be quiet. To Laura Chaffin, the ability to use other people's body spray. To the hearing and impaired kids, I leave you guys love and caring. You all have something special, never change. And to everyone else, have a great rest of your school years. Love you all!

I, Kayla Marie Blanton, leave Emily my "big red" shirt (Lord knows ya deserve it). I also leave you my cheer camp memories! Jess, as promised, I'm leavin ya some SPRAY GLITTER! Between me and Kell you should be stocked up! To both of ya...I have only one goal for ya! After one of those cold Friday nights, go behind the school and highlight your hair! Jaycoby, Vanna, and Court, you'll always be my freshmen! Jaycoby I leave you "Lemonade" and the coolest nickname and I hope you always lose at spoons! SPOO! Vanna, you gotta beat her! Be loud (deep voice), keep smiling, and one of these days me 'n' Kell will get you from the night of spoons! Court, I leave you my parking spot (like you wanted), I also leave you most of my love. Vanna and Jay have to fight for the rest! Julie, I leave you the ability to have the courage to miss the bus and go to the movies (I Love your Room!). Jenn, "Miss River Days 2005," I leave you the C-Walk and the ability to fight with someone at cheer camp to get your hand taped to theirs.

I, CJ Blevins, leave Dustin Williams the number 3 in football. To Brian Ramey, I leave my ability to take over a basketball game. To Chelsey Pierce, I leave you love to help it make it through one more year.

I, Kelly Renea Cartwright, leave Savanna Akin a "real" cheerleading voice and the ability to beat Jaycoby @ spoons! Oh and me and Kayla will get you back from losing! Court, I leave you a pole! HA! And my prom dress for the next fashion show! Jaycoby, I leave you the ability to keep smiling cause that's what you're best at! And some "lemonade" you three will ALWAYS be my freshmen! Em, I leave you my "I Love Josh" socks! The rights to highlight, wash, and cut your hair! Shave 'em bald! I also leave you a bowl of chili and my Homecoming Queen Crown. Jess, you know what I'm leaving you....GLITTER! and the ability to be "pimped." Julie and Jenn, I leave you the ability to NOT fight during cheerleading or ever! Jenn, I wish you good luck at River Days (not that you'll need it); Julie, I don't know what to leave you but you know I love ya! Bowen, James, and Bester, I leave you a pic of me to stare at during lunch since I won't be here! Tomie, I leave you my senior shirt and tan lotion! Mark, I leave you the ability to bug Ms. Neal, some chili, a grilled cheese sandwich and our 3rd place trophy. Doug, I leave you black power, my bookbag, my mad skateboarding skills, and a trip to Bob Evans with me and Tara. Klyb, I leave you a new pair of shoes and the breathe, stretch, shake, let it go dance! And I wish the best for you and Jenn! Derek, I leave you all my paintbrushes and paint trays to wash next year. Racel, I leave you my only seat in detention. Max and Cory, I leave you guys all my love and kisses! Caleb, Trenton, Alex, and Brad, I leave you guys a hug! Stacey and Billy, I leave you guys the ability to NOT get wrote up! TO THE CLASS OF '05 I LEAVE YOU ALL MY LOVE AND LUCK IN THE FUTURE! I'LL MISS YOU ALL!

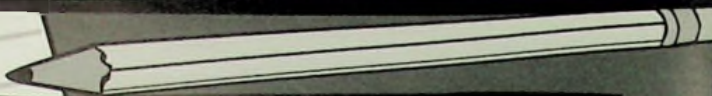

Senior Wills

I, Heather Farris, leave Allison Crace my good looks and ability to always accessorize with sparkle. To Michael Terry, I leave a BIG hug and my will to know you can succeed. To Tomie Neal, I leave the ability to always brush it off your shoulders! And to four upcoming freshman, Cory Dyer, Austin Pollard, Matthew Clarke, and Max Spradlin, I leave my dance moves and good taste for sharp cars!

First of all to my Spanish Class, I am really glad I took Spanish so late in my High School years. I'm thankful I got the chance to know each of you. So I leave to you the ability to continue your Spanish education's and to have fun without me. Thank You all for the great times we shared. I will always remember them. I Love You Guys! To my sister Lisa, I hope you make it through your Senior Year. It will be rough at first, but I know you can do it! So I leave you the ability to exceed in your schooling. Good Luck! Love ya Sis. To Amanda Hurst, I have had a few classes with you in the past few years, and in each you've always done your best. But I will always remember shop class 7th period. You were great. So I leave you the ability to have shop your senior year and just do awesome at it like you are now. Love Ya! To Shay Richendollar and Ashley Weeks, I hope you guys go all the way! You're gonna be sophomores now! So I leave you the ability to always run the library during Study Hall and to remember the fun times we had. I will miss you both! Love Ya! To Teran Keith, Josh Tyler, and Leslie Malone, I am thankful I got the chance to know each of you this year. I love all three of you. You guys still have a while before you graduate, so don't take advantage of it. Enjoy it while you still can! You still have a lot of choices to make so, I leave you (3) the ability to make all of the right decisions and to always do what is right. I Love you Guys! And last, but certainly not least, Zac Underhill, I was fortunate to get to know you this school year. We have become really good friends!! When I'm gone, I don't want you to ever forget me and our fun we had together, in the study hall, the library, and even shop class. So Zac, I leave you the ability to do what I have done. Get to know everyone, make as many friends as possible (like me) and remember all of the great times you share with them because you never know when you will get another opportunity like that again. I Love You lots Zac and I hope you succeed in everything you do. I know you can do it. Love ya Sweetie! To everyone else I love you all and will miss each and every single one of you!! Remember the laughs, the cries, the fun and the most important, eachother. Graduation creeps up fast, so enjoy the times while you still can. Love forever, Laura Chaffin Class of 2005.

I, Erin Hall, leave my sister Elista the ability to get to school on time. Wes Graff, my love and hate for others. Aaron Seeley, lots of sandpaper, and the ability to find someone new to boss around. Amanda Avery, the ability to find someone new to hand the ball to and pat on the back before every inning. To Doug, my Kroger Plus card.

I, Kayla Hayes, leave Thomas Hayes the ability to remember his lunch money. To Josh Reah, a new, older woman. Aaron Seeley, a blue bench dog. Chuckie Lewis, a pretty prom date. Doug Castro, my lunch seat and a brownie ball. Corey Riffe, my shake stop skills and a cinder block. Joey Dyer, someone to walk to 7th period with and another cinder block. Amanda Avery, my old t-shirts and all the notes I didn't write back. Nikki Mason, a pair of high heel shoes. Corey Dyer, Max Spradlin, and Matthew Clarke, free shake stop water and ice cream. And Ben Pierce, a recliner and a Pez dispenser.

Senior Wills

I, Kyle Hood, leave to my cuz Austin the best of luck in junior high and high school. To my cuz Alex, my smarts and the best of luck in school. To my cuz Andrea, my good looks and good luck in high school. To Dustin Williams, my strength and good luck to you, man. Keep it real! To Brian Ramey, keep it up, man. You will be a great leader next year. To Johnny 5, the ability to not get a concussion. To Jacob Dillon, I hand you down the ability to be the next class clown. To Deek, my bowling skills. Good luck next year, man. To Ryan Bloomfield, I hope to see you become the next Mark Prior (knock on wood). To Adam Sparks, the will to become the next president of the US. Good luck, man. (Just don't be like Bush.) To Mr. Royse, 100 sentences. To Ann, all my love. To the bowling team, good luck next year, guys; please kill them Tigers. To the teachers, everyone of you guys are awesome; it's been the best years having you guys around. To the class of "05," good luck to everyone in college. I love all you guys!

I, Amanda Michele Jenkins, leave James McIntyre my "trick"; maybe you can put it to some good use. To Chris Willard and Adam Alvis, my shiny lip gloss you two love so much. To Elisha Frazier, My love babe! To Cody Sloas I leave my DUH, maybe you can find someone else with the name Amanda and say to them what you always said to me! To Sarah Whitley I leave you the ability to make it to West Portsmouth without having to follow Peggy and the bus. To Tomie Neal I leave the little thing I do everyday (I love it it's so happy!!) To Jenn and Klyb, you guys have the most beautiful relationship; keep it strong, you guys are gonna be wonderful together. I love you two!! Jenn, kick butt in River Days, 'lil Missy, show them people that Green High School has a winner and that's you girl!! Klyb, I leave you my mom! Alisha Phipps I leave you all my "kisses". Dikki and Jennafer the fun and hello's we shared in the hall-way. Josh Moore I leave you the ability to grow more hair. SIS I LEAVE YOU JOHNNY 5 as a prom date next year, I love you!!! Schiesser my buddy, WHAT'S THAT SMELL!!! To Seeley, I leave you the HEY BUDDAY's we shared my junior year...I am glad we're cool!! Will, hehe I leave you the ability to one day tell me the answer to my poll question; I'll get it out of you sooner or later. Rob, I leave you the ability to think of more tricks to entertain the lunch room and the logs from May 7, 2005!! And finally to Jason Bester, I leave you the ability to keep on keeping on. Keep singing and one day we will go bowling and you will get a BUTTERGULL..I Love Ya Buddy!!! You're the best!! Bye everyone Have a good'n. Oh and Will and Jimmy...I leave you someone else to play the "Facial Expression" Game with!!! Love you two you guys are the best!

I, Katherine Mollett, leave my brother Jeremy Mollett the ability to show others that you can be anything you wanna be regardless of what others think! I Luv Ya! To my cuz, Carrie Shipley, I leave my ability to get up and go to school no matter how hard it is. To James Carver, I leave you the ability to get along with everyone and wish you lots of luck for your High School years! Good Luck! To all the students of GHS, I leave you with the "Best Of Luck."

Senior Wills

I, Ryan Adam Niemer, hereby leave all of my un-earthly possessions to Justin Gleim. Well, not all of my possessions, but I do leave a Fender heavy guitar pick in the top part of locker 126. You can get the combination from the office. I also leave Nathan Patten the ability to do whatever he wants, whenever he wants. I leave Johnny 5 the right to do whatever he wants to in Mrs. Crab's class.

I, Jessica Saunders, leave my conversation skills to Heather Pennington. You can do more than giggle. To Dustin Williams, I leave my memory of calling you Nick Lachey (because you look like him, don't deny it!) To B.P., I leave the famous nickname I gave you, you know what it is. Carry it with you always. To all my friends, I wish you well and happiness for your long journey ahead.

I, Anna Shane, leave Chelsey Pierce the ability to make the best out of your senior year. Don't let anyone mess it up! It's a time to spend with your friends and have all the fun you can before it's time to say Good-bye. To one of my best friends, Deidre Perkins, I leave the ability to make it through Accounting next year without Amanda and myself. Remember to bring a calculator to class. To the girls at the lunch table, my best friends, I just wanted to let you know how much you have meant to me. We have always been there for each other! I know we're graduating, but I hope we stay in touch. If we don't, then I want you to know that I believe in you and you will all go so far in life. And to my fellow graduates of 2005, I hope you succeed wherever life takes you.

I Amanda Shaner, leave a great senior year to Zak. To Dee, I leave a good season in volleyball and an eraser for accounting without Anna and me. I leave Dee, Chelsey, Andi and Amanda my volleyball abilities and the ability to have fun, no matter what goes on! Finally, I leave Jessica Shaner a fun, successful high school career.

I, Adam Sparks, leave Stephanie my ability to aggravate and annoy Jordan White.

I Brittany Tackett, leave my sister my good grades and the ability to make it through High School. I leave Shay Richendollar the name "Brittany Tackett's Step-Sister" and her ability to someday play defense like Britt does!

I, Leigh Ann Williams, leave Jessica Dyer, Traci Elrod, and Britnee Fuller the strength and patience to be great leaders on the basketball team. I leave Shay Richendollar a sprint for every day of basketball practice and Heidi Tackett "tylenol." I leave Deidre Perkins an extra pair of volleyball knee pads because I know she is going to need them. I leave Dustin Williams my support in being the only Williams in the high school. I leave Andi Kelly a great big hug and all my volleyball abilities. And to all of the underclassmen I have worked with in volleyball, basketball, and track: Good luck the rest of high school! You helped make my senior year unforgettable.

Graduation Day

Graduation Day for Green High School's Class of 2005 was Friday, May 27th. Everyone was excited to be moving on, but sad to be leaving friends behind.

The Valedictorians were Amanda Shaner, Heather Farris and Leigh Ann Williams. The Salutatorian was Brittany Tackett.

Graduation Day

Completion Ceremony

The 2005 Scioto County Joint Vocational School Completion Ceremony was held outside on the school grounds. Seven students from Green High School completed vocational programs this year. Congratulations!

Hearing Impaired Class

The Hearing-Impaired Class is taught by Teresa Schweinsberg. She is aided by Brenda Conn and Mandy Ratliff. Other students may sign up for a class in Sign Language.

Miss Teen Ohio: Heidi Burton

Heidi Burton competed for the title of Miss Ohio Teen USA the weekend of Nov. 11-13, 2004.

Representing Scioto County, she competed against more than 80 other contestants. The competition was held at the Vern Riffe Center for the Arts on the campus of Shawnee State University in Portsmouth.

Heidi thanks all those who sponsored her in the competition. She is the daughter of Randy and Joni Burton of Franklin Furnace.

In Memoriam

Megan Ilene Sly 1990 - 2005

*"Who Needs To Hear?"
by Megan Sly*

*Who needs to hear,
when words aren't spoken;
who needs to hear,
movements of the lips,
or the vibration of one's vocal cords,
who needs to hear,
when your eyes are your ears,
who needs to hear,
to have friends so clear,
so tell me, do you need to hear?*

*Written for Mrs. Schweinsberg's deaf students, 12/06/04.
Presented during American Sign Language Class.*

These little things that happen in life are made to strengthen us and help us in our walk in life. These tragedies that hit our life can bring us to our knees.

Friends are exactly what we need, someone to lean on, a shoulder to cry on.

But the best we can do is kneel and pray.

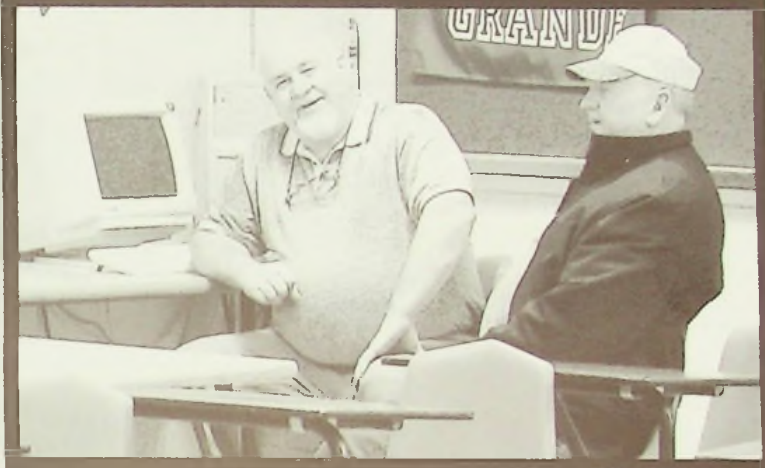

I hope you take what was written into your heart.

by Larry Miller, in memory of Megan Sly

Megan, you will be missed.
