Very

I thought all the horses &
mules out
and got crabs

and after 8
I drove down
to the flat
by Baptesse Hattie took the package
up to the blacks of J.

I came up
home and

Very
A nice day
The friends
out again
James & Osh
finished play in the hall

After dinner
we played at Grand orchard to keep the fire and up the evening
I went to bed
then saw me brought the orchard
John Call saw
the life and came over

April 4

When Call gets in to work &
roughly
He began to saw oak & tid.
for the first
We have now and drilled a lot of oak.

Apr. 5.
Wed.

A fine day
Despite their being I built the pier at 5. This morn
I sawed and drilled oak, first at the pier
and then poles from <sup>wood</sup> the Call
Tracy Bank of the
was here.

Apr. 6.

Thurs.

A fine day
I sowed peas
and also them helped John fine fence till
noon.

We then took the peach tree
for paper
Came back with another
man Mr. Stur
and all being the paper and back. Got for both with them.

John & I plan
potatoes & plow
the garden
In the evening the fire was extinguished so after supper
we had to fight fire till midnight.
Backfired from the Bohn field hole
to Cal + ...

Apr 8.
Sat.

A dry windy
night.

The fire burn
all night.

The people are back here from the plantation in the hollow back of the house and went on to the creek and then up

the creek to the
the road a hard

line keeping the piece out
of the woods
back of the house.

Nettie & Benjamin
came over here

after a pair of goggles for each of them. I took them to my egg and

went with them
to the bumper down

and they over to the Chapel
at church.

I came home
and had a good time

Apr. 24

Mon.

A heavy frost. A little of the frost
in the garden
over fruit
seems to be killed. Planned for eggs
and for potato tubers. Have
and a cauliflower
manure and cut potato tubers. A heavy and shower
warmer.

Apr. 25.

Tue.

A damp bad
day. The boys
I had found
about all day started and manured
potatoes,
shifted eggs
and a few more.
The children dug
the same thing. I went with a horse about
noon.

April 26.

Wed.

A nice morning
but a low
afternoon.
Removal of the ground of the time
John & Lewis
followed till
noon.
The two men
and a dog something brought his
a calf camp.
We had to about the horns of a light and had a piece
of a day at home.

Apr. 27

Thurs.

day.
Very wet morning but dried off very fast. The ground was fairly hard manner. All went to Gemini
at 10:00
and by a
age 22
off the
at length
the cold and went to
to take.

April 28
Sun.

A nice warm

A small frost
The boys had on the hill for some time

They packed
the peach trees
and some
