Thurs Aug 7, 1901.
A nice cool day
Cool at night
George cut rough
fyad, and then began to plow
the wheat.
I firmed around and got my fall work arranged with Pa.
Will get out a part of all acres of wheat
I had luck.

Tues Aug 6
A damp day
Rained last night but not hard and has melted
all the frozen
A cloudy looking
day. The sun with late last night and then clear this morning Expecting the Cyclone may pass
by. Wind all half past 2 and then passed away easy and with a strong S.W. breeze A useful life
ended and a living mother dead. Be all in at this.

Wed, Aug 7
A nice day
I came down to attend things around and to get some things done. I was coming
I did some other work day and then got things settled and went home
Not to see the Correll
but to get ready for the week of the

Thurs Aug 8
A fine bright
day. Early this morn for the funeral
A grain sack with a tight haul committed and a sack over. All carried and lined with flour. A good
funeral service held 4 bags and 2 coffin cases acted as pall bearers. A large crowd all witnessed the burial of our dear parent.
A sad and long time further left behind

Fri Aug 9
A rather nice day
I again started for home to catch a train leaving 6:15
The school begins
we had a fine day
The boy to a lady
a gift by noon
Got home nicely

Pat Aug 10
A very warm day
The lack of water
all day
Call for a supply of water for the night. I could not get them all in a lack of water sent ahead that a good one ahead of the pack
I lagged down from last night the first time since we must be hurry
I got steady and down one hour and a half at 10
Pa. Cull met me at the water camp

when Aug 11
A. C. got on but in the
the day
A. C. on my
Pa. Cull
man's sight
of trouble
The

Favorable day
Rained a light spray this being the first all day.

Smith and Annie
I have Ba & Ma went with them over to hunt
at Ann's Bennett's
trap line
Ma had a bag
the traps
and took out cool and easy.

Monday 19
Favorable day
Chavez at work
Saw a few
all day
I tried to plan over in the Chavez holes
but was too wet and hauled a load of it and to head with and fixed around while the while not later supper
Ba Lida & Ma
came in which was most welcome they had looked for them
all day

A nice day
We got up late
I was blind
all day
In night with the police all the time this was hard. The night was that of the big get in
The water smells Ratch and the
I see only
We had a fair visit and
The night 2 with the
at night very hard for Pa. Church of 1917. Celebrated

Frid Aug 21
A nice day
I was blind
all day
I took a train and was
and went to Blow of the camp of the couple.
Carry the bag
and the suit and got the mattress

Thursday Aug 22

A damp day
Several light
showers, ceased and flowed all
A big tank the kitchen along home a while

Friday Aug 23
A damp showery
day. A heavy dew on the grass and tried to be back

George flowed
till noon
turned the team out and cut brush and briars I have been feeling bad for several days but kept at work till
this afternoon
I have had a big dose of Callomil.

Sat Aug 24
Another happy
day. A hard
day. The boys Serge cut brush and trim all
day.
I got up with a cold and had to lay
around all day.
Ella, Harry and worked brush
down to day.

Sun. Aug 25.
A nice day
some cloudy by a boyed at home till 4
in the evening
I began to feel some better.
I went out down the
and then left for a little of dark to Lida. Day and
Pa. Could
alone. The boys
go to church.
They were glad to see me
so soon.

Mon. Aug 26
A warm day
Saw Church &
He got up and got ready and Pa went with us to town where we got a lot of potatoes and Ella got a bath pulling one back off
A terrible time but she stood
it pretty well We got back out
home where Ella had kept the bath. We got our dinner, went to my room then to the bath and then out to the field and

Tue. Aug 27
A nice day
Bright shines
this afternoon
