TO HIS EXCELLENCY
The Most Reverend James Joseph Hartley, D. D.
Bishop of Columbus

To you, Bishop Hartley, who have labored unceasingly to advance the desires of our late Holy Father, Pope Pius XI for universal Catholic education; and, for the inspiration and guidance you have given us and for the graces we have received through you, we Seniors humbly dedicate this annual in the 35th anniversary year of your consecration as Bishop and earnestly beseech the Holy Ghost to further enlighten you and guide to a successful conclusion your efforts for Catholic education.

HIS EXCELLENCY

THE MOST REVEREND JAMES JOSEPH HARTLEY, D. D.

BISHOP OF COLUMBUS

FOREWORD

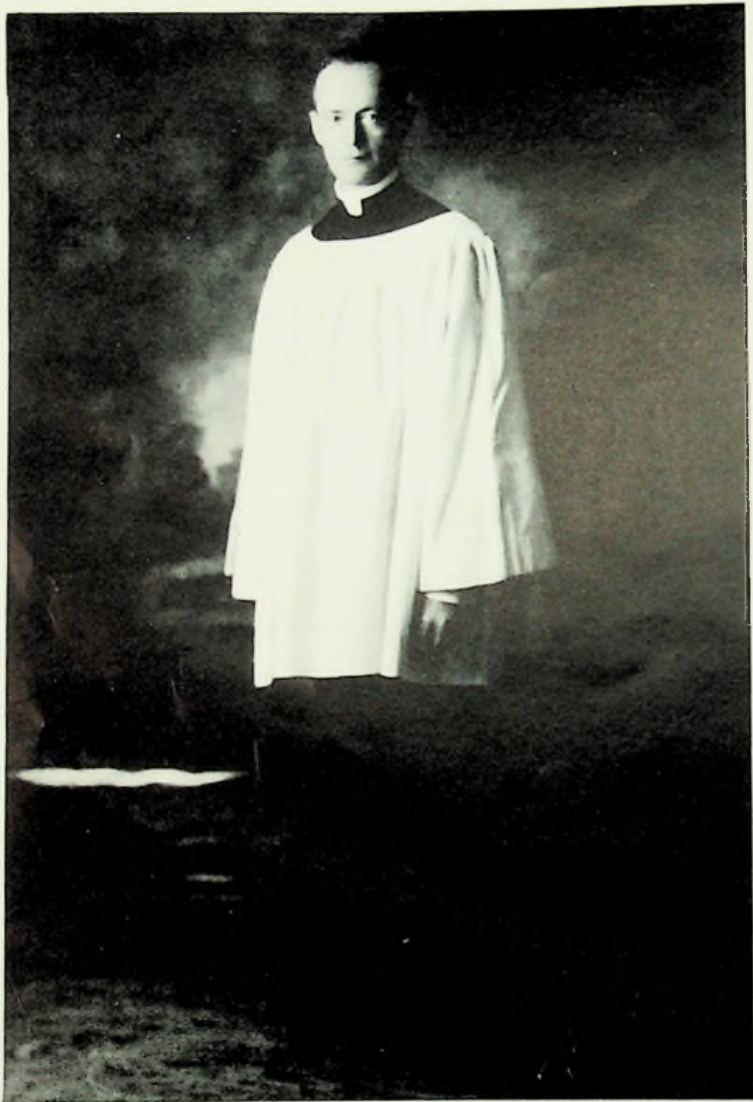

Our Annual is intended to represent the spirit that has prevailed and that should continue to prevail in our lives long after Commencement night.

We have been exceedingly fortunate in receiving our education from God's chosen ones and in accord with Catholic philosophy. It is difficult for us even to try to estimate results now, but we are confident that our Catholic training will give us a decided advantage in life. The world today speaks of liberty and of peace. Yet it knows not that true liberty and true peace can be given us only by the Holy Spirit, if we are of good will. Although we are certain that adverse and trying circumstances will arise in our lives, we know that we can bear them, strengthened by the Gifts of the Holy Ghost and so we earnestly entreat:

"O guide our minds with Thy blessed light,
With love our hearts inflame,
And with Thy strength that ne'er decays,
Confirm our mortal frame."

HOLY REDEEMER SCHOOL

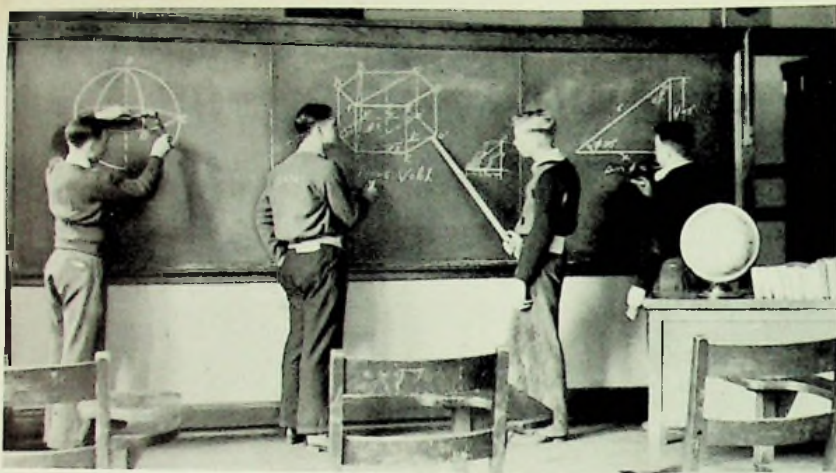

The Reverend William F. Connolly

IN APPRECIATION

We wish to express our deep appreciation and heartfelt gratitude to our beloved pastor, the Reverend William F. Connolly, for all the favors and benefits he has bestowed upon us during our many years of association with him. Father has ever had a sincere interest in our welfare and the welfare of our school. This is evidenced by the many improvements that have been made. The entire building was redecorated. A new sound system which has proven a constant source of entertainment and enjoyment was installed this year. During the course of the year, Father arranged artists' programs for our entertainment. We shall always remember his enthusiasm for athletics and his gracious consideration in permitting classes to be dismissed for afternoon games. For these and for other favors, especially for his keen sense of fairness, his patience and helpful spiritual guidance, we are most grateful.

SPOTLIGHTING THE SENIORS

The Curtains of Yesterday drop, the curtains of Tomorrow rise. For all of us the curtains of yesterday fall on four years of pleasant experiences and memories. In the future, whenever a group of the Class of '39 gets together there will be reminiscences of our happiest years when clubs, debating, opera, the school paper and athletics, either the thrill of participants or spectators filled our lives.

Remember the initiation and how humiliated we were when the whole school laughed at our discomfort? Then there were Halloween parties and Christmas programs and the Operetta to make the life of the Freshies a little happier. Do you recall "Rose on the Dial" and the costumes Helen Mantel and Martha Coll helped make? They were beautiful.

In our Sophomore year there was the Flood Vacation and for two months afterwards we went to school until four-thirty every afternoon. The "Backward Dance" was a great success that year. Maybe that was because the girls asked the boys.

Of our football team we are most proud, and to James Toomey our star punter, and to John Rudity, Joe Schoonover and Bob Toomey, who did their part we offer our congratulations. These boys gave us something to be proud of. John Huber was manager of the team one year. Remember? Buzz was a good baseball player. Remember the runs he made?

There was the Scroll Staff, too, and Martha Schmidt and Martha Servey proved capable reporters and writers.

Our class presidents, Charles Cassidy, Helen Sommer, Jack Toomey and Jack Wohler were wise choices and competent leaders.

How could we forget the Constitution Day parade when more than twelve thousand school children marched through town carrying flags? Then came the Junior Class Plays. They showed Margaret Maher and Jeanette Montavon to be fine actresses and Louis Dcnini quite surpassed himself as the "Mummy".

The big moment of our lives came on April 27, when our Prom took place in an auditorium bedecked with spring flowers. All the girls in their gowns helped beautify it. Will you ever forget it?

Three years had passed. Remember when Bernice entered Holy Redeemer? We were Seniors then.

Don't let us forget Jack Toomey who spoke so effectively the night of the Oratorical Contest, or Jack Wohler, John Nickel and Harry Gallenstein who made all our hearts swell with pride when they passed the examinations for Annapolis and West Point.

Do you remember Herbe and Bob Gemperline's parts in "Your Mother, Hurry"?

May Crowning was another lovely thing to look forward to every year. It was beautiful and inspiring to see the children dressed in white marching and singing in honor of "Our Blessed Lady". The Seniors wore their Caps and Gowns for the first time on that occasion.

Remember the elections and the rings, and what a time we had deciding on them? Do you recall how everyone put off having his pictures taken? Didn't we have fun in the Class Play? Remember how Frank Thoroman was the romantic lover in "The Garden of the Moon"? He really made the audience feel his grief over the loss of Betty Lou.

Then came the Last days---the Baccalaureate Sermon, the last reception of Holy Communion as a class, the caps, gowns and diplomas. We had written "Finis" to our high school days. The Curtains of Yesterday had dropped and we were men and women.

We could sit for hours hidden away in our dreams; remember this, remember when, remember! remember! Of course we do. We shall never forget.

Marjorie Walters

PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1939

June 14, 1950. In a few days the Annual Alumni Banquet of Holy Redeemer will be held. How many of the Class of '39 will be back? These letters should tell how scattered the members are!

Listen to this:

Richard Bess is radio operator for the Ellsworth Expedition. By his heroic action the party was saved from a treacherous death.

Charles Cassidy has a fascinating outdoor life as a member of the Canadian Royal Mounted Police.

Martha Coll is a widely traveled young woman, the wife of a marine officer who is constantly on call for distant ports.

Herbert Deskins is busy going about the country giving exhibitions. He's billiard champion, you know.

Louis Donini's life ambition has been realized; he is editor-in-chief of the Cincinnati Enquirer, now an International newspaper.

Bernice Fisher is chief librarian at the Library of Congress in Washington, D. C.

Harry Gallenstein is the successful General Manager of the A & P chain of groceries.

Robert Gemperline is chairman of the Democratic Party with offices in the Empire State Building, New York.

John Huber is owner of a fleet of Bakery trucks and is doing a thriving business.

Miss Peggy Maher is a current star of Broadway.

Helen Mantel is the very efficient private secretary of Robert Gemperline.

Jeanette Montavon has entered a unique field for women. She has a printing establishment of her own.

John Robert Nickel was recently elected mayor of New York City.

John Ruidy has his days quite filled up as athletic director of New York's 16,000 man police force.

Martha Schmidt, while on an operatic tour of England, met Lord Brownlow and consequently she became Lady Catherine.

Joe Schoonover is Sales Manager of the National Cash Register Company.

Martha Servey is the diminutive vocalist appearing nightly at the Netherland Plaza with Benny Goodman's swing orchestra.

Helen Sommer is the widely photographed John Powers model.

Frank Thoroman is a successful lawyer in New York City.

Bob Toomey is now a designer with Lucien Lelong of Paris and New York.

Jack Toomey is the no hit, no run, pitching sensation of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Jim Toomey now holds the winning trophy for the Indianapolis Speed Classics.

Eugene Uhl is professor of Law at Harvard.

Marjorie Walters was chosen first in the list of the ten best dressed women of the world. She has been chosen to represent us in Congress.

Francis Wamsley spends his days as big game hunter in Africa.

Jack Wohler is now an admiral in the United States Navy.

AS THE SENIORS KNOW THE JUNIORS

The Juniors may not know we have been watching them during the year, but we have and here is what we think of them. Dubious Juniors today, experienced Seniors tomorrow, ready to carry on the work and keep up the activities of those gone before. Quite outstanding in all they have undertaken - dramatics, parties and the Prom, they give promise of becoming most active Seniors.

The honorable members are: James Gerken, class president, who is exceptionally tricky; Franklin Brown, the Vice President, better known as "Old Reliable"; John Bustetter, the carrier of the purse, who is as courteous as Sir Walter Raleigh himself; Robert Mantel, a worthy scribe and indispensable athlete; Lorraine Brennan, a dainty little lady who knows her French; Frances Born, who is talkative but interesting; DeSales Schmidt, always friendly; Nellie Giannetti, Mary Jo Yuenger, Joan Johnley, Mary Jane Toomey, Anna Kathryn Emmett, and Mary Louise Weber, who constitute a "brain trust"; Lynn Gemperline, droll but energetic; Gino Franchi, most entertaining and Charles France, so mischievous; Russell Haley, who is our little gentleman; Francis Ford, who is so quiet and industrious; Ruth Chiappa, our songbird and Ruth Distel, so sweet and charming; Mary Louise Tose, who is vitality plus; Janet Gerken vivacious and popular; Patricia Hooley, the sophisticate, but who still enjoys a laugh; Frances Lanier, likable; Dave Russell, who carries on the family tradition in sports; Ralph Sommer, debonair but a wonderful printer; Isabelle Smith, so reserved, and Rosemary Kale, our artist; Betty Von Lührte, who is often seen but seldom heard; John Hartlage, cooperative; Mary Louise Nardi, who knows how to be patient outside of typing as well as in; Tommy Flannigan, agility plus, and Paul Kleffner, meek.

THE SOUND SYSTEM

The sound system installed in our school last summer marks another step in the advancement of elementary and secondary education. This system is the latest development in interroom communication. Each of the twelve rooms may communicate with one another and with the principal's office. By means of the radio attachment interesting and varied programs, both foreign and domestic, were heard. Many of the pupils enjoyed preparing and broadcasting programs for special occasions.

SEA SCOUTS

The Sea Scout Ship La Salle #5040 BSA was organized in April 1938 under the auspices of Holy Redeemer Church. In the short space of one year much has been accomplished. Since last April fifteen recruits were taken in, which raises the enrollment of the ship to twenty-two boys, all uniformed. They have built a land ship and have participated in a number of holiday regattas. All this has been done under the thoughtful supervision of the Sea Scout Committee composed of Reverend W. F. Connolly, Mr. John T. Walter, Chairman, and Committee men Henry E. Burling, Joseph T. Gerken, P. G. Petry and F. L. Kinskey, Skipper Fred Gerken and Mate Paul Melcher. The Church looks with pride on the fine character moulding and advancement in leadership which this ship has accomplished.

THE SEASON'S REVIEW

Cheasepeake--September 16, 1938

The Titans romped over Cheasepeake 12-0 for the first game of the season. Jim Toomey and Harold Duplain starred. John Rudity, our alert guard, recovered a fumble on the 20 yard line. This was the first game in the new uniforms.

Oak Hill--September 24, 1938

On the Oak Hill gridiron, Central showed their superiority by defeating them 32-0. Wohler intercepted a pass and ran 40 yards for a touchdown for the most spectacular play of the game.

Waverly--October 1, 1938

Central trimmed their second Big Six opponent with a score of 14-0. Duplain scored both touchdowns, one after an 85 yard sustained drive and the other after a 60 yard run behind perfect interference.

Sacred Heart, Charleston--October 10, 1938

On Charleston territory, the Central Titans made a poor showing and let the Sacred Heart team tie them 6-6. Jim Toomey's excellent punting was in favor of the Titans until he was taken out of the game because of a leg injury.

New Boston--October 14, 1938

With the Big Six title at stake the Titans dropped their first game 12-7. It was a thriller to the very last and heartbreaking when in the last three minutes to play New Boston completed a pass for a touchdown. The Titans were handicapped by the loss of two backfield men, Toomey and Wohler.

Hamden--October 21, 1938

In an uninteresting game the Titans downed Hamden 51-0. The Hamden team was completely overpowered. The third string Titans had their first experience in a scheduled game.

Wheelersburg--November 2, 1938

In another hard fought battle Central Catholic stopped the Pirates with a score of 13-0. Duplain starred. Schoonover caught a pass on the 5 yard line and it was carried over for a touchdown.

Ashland Holy Family--November 7, 1938

The Titans take the lead in the Tri-State League by defeating the Holy Family team 27-0. It was a good game where good sportsmanship reigned supreme.

Vanceburg--November 11, 1938

This team proved a tough foe for Central but the boys came through with their usual spirit and won 12-7.

Ironton St. Joseph--November 14, 1938

On a muddy Ironton field the Central Titans played a 0-0 draw with St. Joe. The game made a tie for the Tri-State League championship.

HOLY REDEEMER TITANS

Louis Donini 5 ft. 10 in. 143 lbs. right guard

He was a one year man but he knew the game thoroughly and he made an alert player. He was always a hard worker and deserved the letter he obtained. Though he did not start many games, he was always ready and willing to relieve a tired team mate.

Harry Gallenstein 5 ft. 7 in. 170 lbs. right tackle

He was another level headed, indispensable lineman who gave the team confidence when he was there to get every man that came his way. He earned his name of "Powerhouse" by being just that on defense.

John Nickel 5 ft. 9 in. 145 lbs. right guard

He made a steady lineman and a hard man to bluff. He always knew just what to do and did it. John's ability to diagnose plays and help keep the center of the line plugged up was his forte. He was always dependable.

John Rudity 5 ft. 7 in. 145 lbs. left guard

One of our finest players he is now the proud possessor of the award of the Legion of Honor. He was noted for his sportsmanship. John, the leader of the line rallied our defense time and time again. He was invaluable backing up the line.

Joseph Schoonover 6 ft. 160 lbs. right end

One of our best ends and our best sportsman, Joe is well liked and well known for his football ability. For three years he helped to do his part to make Central's teams feared by opponents. He reached his peak in 1938 by his steady brilliant play.

Robert Toomey 6 ft. 1 in. 160 lbs. end

The big, well built end knew how to take care of his side of the line and in his two years on the team rose to a top-ranking player. He was a good pass receiver and excelled on end around end plays.

James Toomey 5 ft. 11 in. 145 lbs. right halfback

Invaluable in the backfield, Jim also made a name for himself as a punter and passer. Many a score was raised because of his swiftness, accuracy in passing and by his hard blocking. He saved many a score by his long spiraling punts and hard tackling. Jim was always there when the going got tough.

Jack Wohler 5 ft. 10½ in. 155 lbs. fullback and center

Another infallible member of the backfield, he had the spirit that kept the team going, and a knowledge of the rules that made him sure of every action. Jack was called on time and time again to fill in the line because of injury. He played a stellar game at any position.

CENTRAL TITANS AS THEY LINED UP FOR TITLE DRIVE

OUR 1938-39 BASKETBALL SEASON

The Titans started out the season in their flashy new uniforms against Chillicothe St. Mary's, coming through to win 28 to 19. The first home game was played next with Otway. It was Central all the way, 25 to 9. After Otway the Titans took Latonia Holy Cross in tow to the tune of 22 to 6. The first game of the new year was with Charleston Sacred Heart on January 4. The Centralites went on a scoring spree and won 47 to 26. The next game the Titans traveled to Vanceburg, Ky. and were defeated in a rough and tumble game 26 to 27. The following Wednesday they met Huntington St. Joseph on their own floor. St. Joe was defeated for the first time in 16 games 22 to 18. The next game was Sciotoville. After our boys got off to a good start they got in a slump in the second half and were defeated 38-26. The next game was played against the scrappy Maysville St. Patrick team. The Titans came through and won 37 to 24. They traveled to New Boston for the game with their traditional foes on January 20 and were defeated in a fast game 20 to 36. The next game was at home with Wheelersburg and the Titans lost 22 to 32. On January 28 they tripped to Charleston Sacred Heart and after getting off to a slow start came in on the long end of a 45 to 25 score. We played Ashland Holy Family in Ashland on the first of February and were defeated 25 to 17. The next game was an afternoon game which they lost to Wheelersburgh's scrappy five 18 to 36. The following Saturday they traveled to Latonia Kentucky to play Holy Cross. After trailing at the half 8 to 3, the Central five came back and won 21 to 18. After Latonia was another game away with Maysville St. Patrick which the Titans won 22 to 14. The next game was with New Boston at home and a moral victory. It was by far the most exciting game of the season. The Central five lead for three quarters much to the surprise of the New Boston players but somehow in the closing minutes New Boston came through and the game ended 30 to 25 in favor of New Boston. Next they played Otway there and won 23 to 10. The next was a thrilling game with Ashland Holy Family on their home court. It was "nip and tuck" every minute of the way but the Titan five came through to victory 34 to 21. On the 23rd of February they went to Sciotoville and won over the highly flaunted Tartans 32 to 30. The game after that was with Huntington St. Joe there. Central was entirely outclassed on their small floor and lost 37 to 19. By way of retaliation the Titans came back the next night at home and defeated Chillicothe St. Marys 42 to 13. The Titans went to Columbus for the Diocesan Tournament on March 9, 1939. They won the first game with Somerset Holy Trinity 24 to 18. Then they played a game that night with Columbus St. Mary's, whom they defeated 28 to 15. This put the Titans in line for the Semi-finals with Columbus Holy Family. After a fast, hard game the Titans were defeated 31 to 15. This was hard to take but they went back that night for the consolation game with Mount Vernon St. Vincent. This was a heart breaker and after leading all through the game they lost in the last minute 26 to 27. Thus ends our basketball season for this year.
