Mr. Dale Gillette

Board Of Education

G. Porter, President; D. Dautel, V. Pres; D. Hunter; R. Belcher; J. Bailey

The special election January 21 of this year saw the passing of the approved bond levy. This appropriated more money for our school's needs, such as NEW BAND UNIFORMS. The band will really look sharp representing our school in their uniforms.

I met you there on friendship road,
We walked for many a mile;
You often lightened my weary load
With the sunshine of your smile.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nibert have again showed their knowledge and patience by directing the Junior and Senior classes in their annual class productions, "Fair Exchange" and "Quiet Summer". Our thanks again for your help and guidance.

Mr. Bennett, Harvey, and Mr. Ruby all worked keeping our school running. This kept them quite busy!

Mrs. Shoemaker, Mrs. Ashmore, Mrs. Locher, Mrs. Tipton NOT PICTURED Supervisor Mrs. Moritz and Head Cook Mrs. Nibert.

Mr. Coriell, Mrs. Sturgill, Mr. Burchett, Mr. Fry, Mr. Coldiron, Mr. Ruby.

1975 Senior Class History

Well seniors we finally made it! There are memories of our last four years of Clay High School that we can never forget.

Our Freshmen year was a big step. We finally felt that we belonged to our school when we could participate in all activities. We really liked the Sadie Hawkins and the big turn out we had at the Freshmen-Sophomore dance! We were really excited to play in High School sports too. Our freshmen spirit brought victory to the first year on the floor. Bonnie Herles was our Homecoming attendant. Our class officers were Rick Martin, Kim Boggs, Gerry Gilliland and Sharon Shaw.

Our Sophomore year we elected Ruthie Van Bibber as our Homecoming attendant Patty Rockwell was our banner bearer. Remember marching at the Notre Dame football games and receiving an excellent rating at district band competition and going to State! Our class officers were Teresa Gulley, Rick Martin, Mike Lawless, and Claudia Duckworth.

Our Junior year was also a big step for us WOW!! The Varsity teams! Remember those band trips and the Junior-Senior prom. Our Homecoming attendant was Kim Boggs. Our class officers were Walter Sword, Debbie Whitt, Tony Rockwell, and Suzie Frazier. Dreama Clark was our Drum Majorette this year. We junior girls from Home Ec. club will always remember Camden Park. And everyone will remember our junior class play "The Cambells are Coming."

Those are all special memories, but we will never forget our Senior year. Diane Chandler reigned as our Homecoming Queen. Suzie Frazier was chosen as Senior attendant. Patty Rockwell was our Riverdays contestant. Terri Burton, Kim Boggs, and Cindy Thurman were our Varsity Cheerleaders. The Varsity basketball boys were Phil Day, Gerry Gilliland, Tim Erwin, Gib Spradlin, and Rick Martin. We all took pride in our school spirit. Marilyn McCoy, Tim Erwin, Dreama Clark, and Cheryl Payne were our class officers. We'll always remember our senior class play "Quiet Summer". This was the first year for the Girls Ensemble which included, Joyce Fannin, Cheryl Payne, Marilyn McCoy, and Sharon Shaw. And most of all who can forget GRADUATION!!! We'll never forget our Senior year and all the close friends we made.

The end is nearing

Remembering

I wander alone.
The hollow halls are filled with an Intense silence,
And unlike the everyday struggle,
A desolate quiet prevails. I am
Depressed.

My mind whirls with memories,
And flashes back to faces blurred
By yesterday.
This place as I see it now
Remains an empty stage,
And the actors have gone home to
Rehearse their lines.

Buried deep within the darkness are
Fading footprints,
Which we traced during the starkness
Of the day.
Now footprints are all that remain,
Blending with a soundless laughter,
Already forgotten.

Dim lights illuminate shadowy halls,
Almost like a night-light of a
Little child.
They partially erase my fear of Blackness,
But my anticipation of the future
Grows,
As I walk through pieces of my past.

I've picked my dreams from Scattered fragments
Of my distorted ideals,
And I try to look forward to a life
That I'm not sure of.

I can't look back to what will never
Be the same,
So I gather my memories.
They are the only reality left for me,
And I shall always remember.

How about another dance?

Feeding their faces, as usual.

Taking a rest.

The girls look pretty tonight, don't they guys?

Now let me show you how it's done.

Hold me tight, my darling.

Well what are you waiting for? Let's dance!

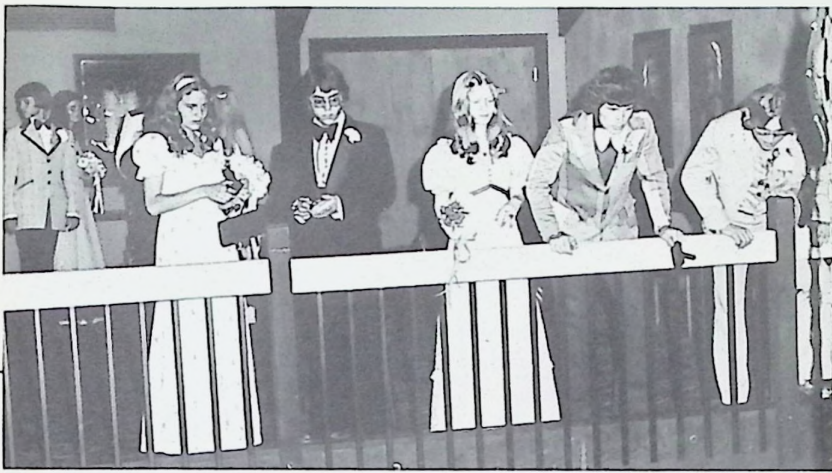

Prom

Mmmm!! Nice!

John sure looks tired.

Hey! What's going on down there!!

I just can't decide.

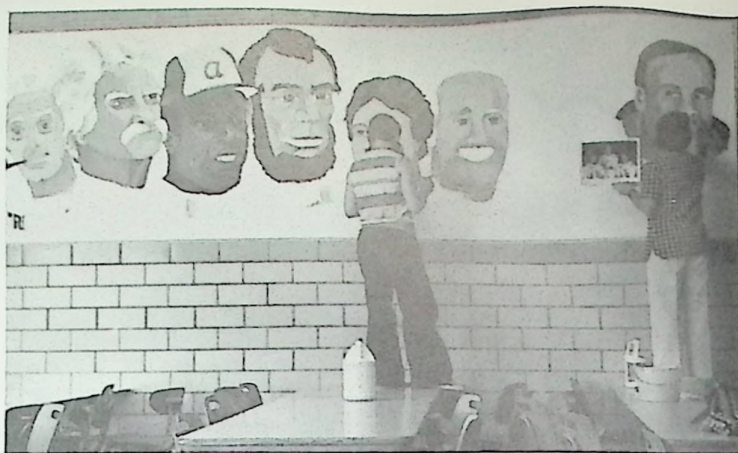

Girl talk.

Danny, I'm tired.

Mrs. Beaumont looks happy.

The cafeteria doesn't look so blah now.

One for you and two for me.

Wonder what Julie's thinking?

Robots?

SUPER SENIORS!

Who, me??

Are these new kids?

Hey, turn around.

Look out Canada!

How do I look?

I don't believe you.

I'm so mad!!!!

Act like I'm hid.

Kim & Cheryl passed around the menus and absentee lists this year.

Homecoming 1975

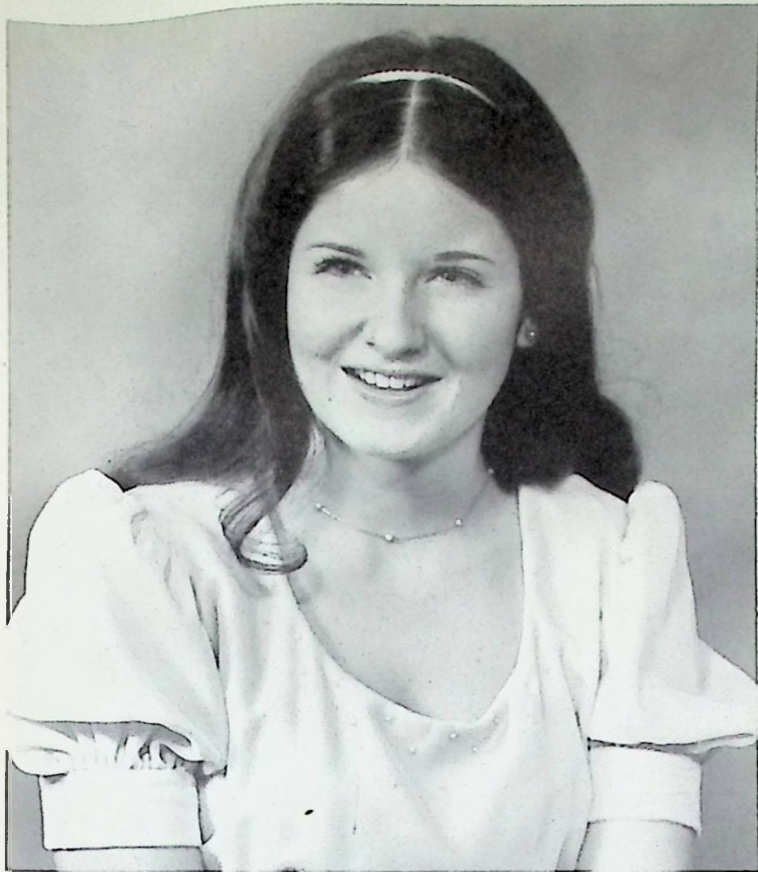

DIANE CHANDLER was our Queen for 1975. Diane walked in to the song "Close To You". Her escort was Gerry Gilliland. Suzie Frazier was our Senior attendant. Her gown was pale pink and she walked in to "I Honestly Love You". She was escorted by Rick Martin. Debbie Azbell was the Junior attendant. Her gown was yellow and her song was "If". She was escorted by Gibbie Spradlin. Julie Eastwood was our Sophomore attendant. Her gown was blue, and her song was "For All We Know." She was escorted by Phil Day. Our Freshman attendant was Carole Thomas. Her song was "Time In A Bottle" as she was escorted by Tim Erwin. Her gown was lavender. Little Jeannie McPheters was flower girl and Heath Pack was the crown bearer. A lot of time and effort was put into this year's Homecoming and it was quite obvious by the appearance of the girls and their decorations.

Hues Of Dances

Remember the glances you got at the dances
When you wore your new dress and you looked your best
And you caught the eye of that special guy. . .

The band dance went rather well.

"Just a chewin' on a weed"

Please don't squeeze my Maple!

Suzie and Scott? Getting married??

Looks like Diane is having a good time.

Naturally Gerry and Gary would dance side by side!

Rick and Cheryl really boogied!

Put your left foot down and boogie on.

Music was supplied by the Sunn.

Wonder how Mary D. got into the dance?

Honor Row

Anybody seen my date?

Don't cry Mr. B.

Listen! I hear Santa coming!

Quit pushing!

Which way to the potty?

Speak up, I can't hear you!

Oops!

Wait 'til you hear the second number!

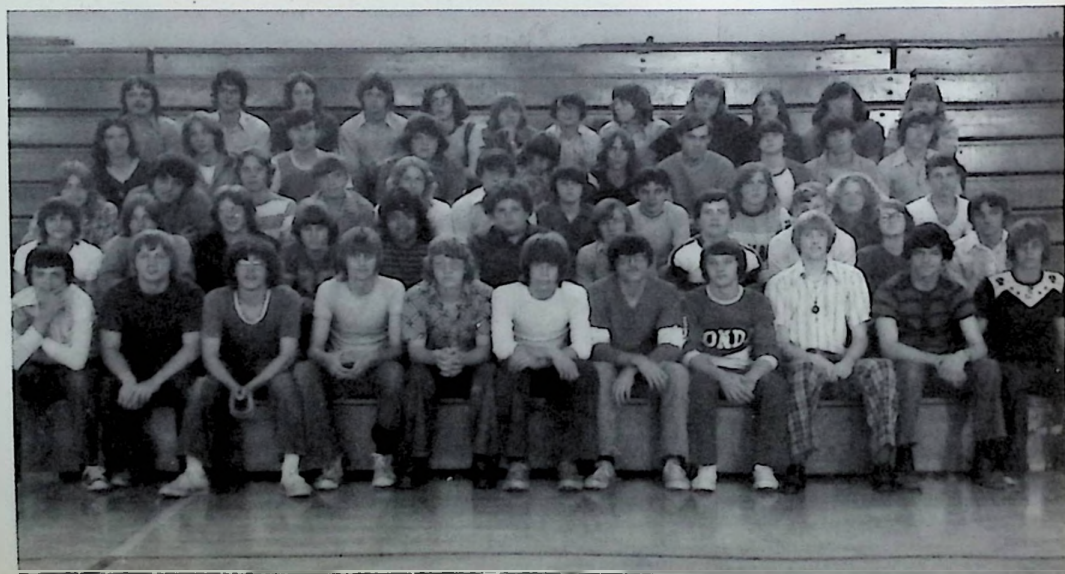

Who turned off the power?

Easy two points.

Thank you I'll take that!

I heard a good joke on the way . . .

I think there's a fly on your head.

What are you doing after the game?????

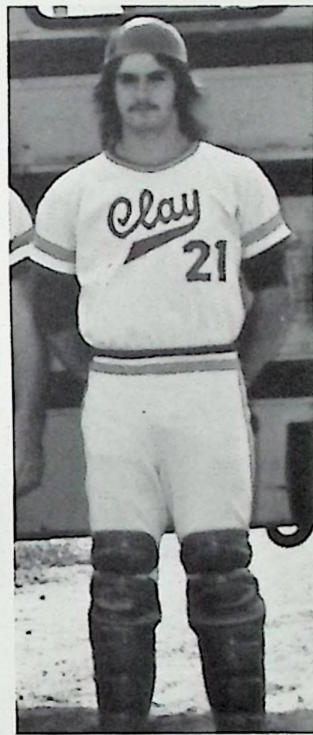

Look Mom I can slid!

What a day

Another easy play

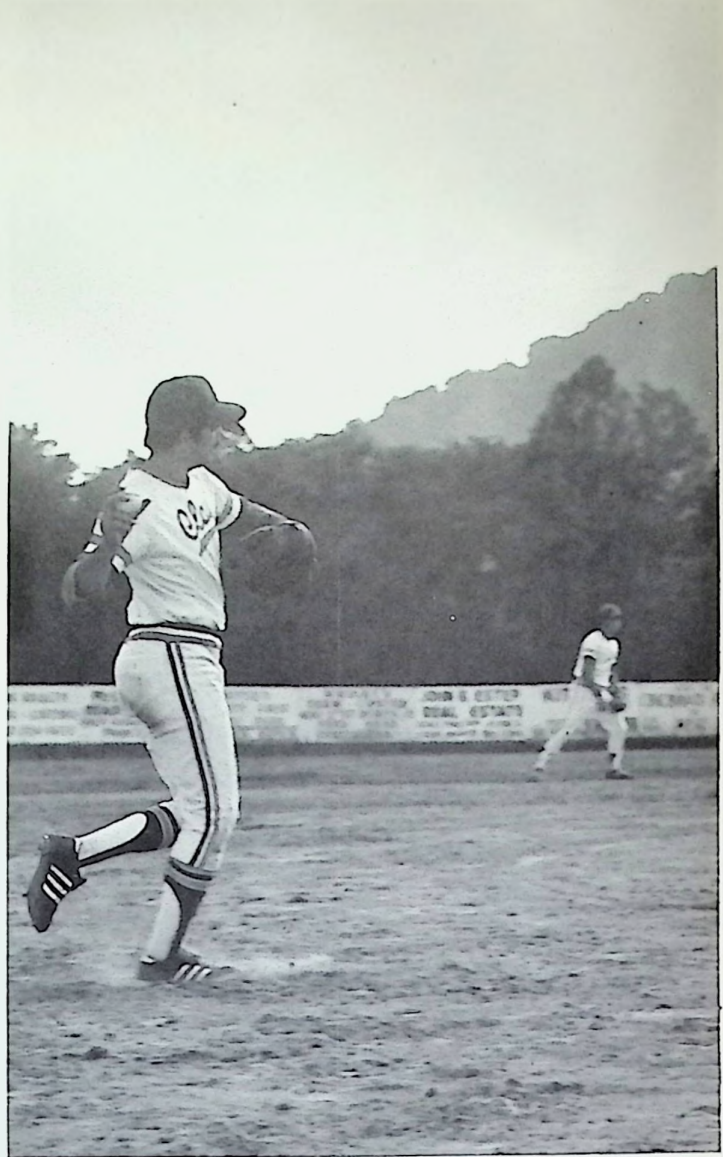

Move over J.B.

I know I can bet it!!

Easy double play

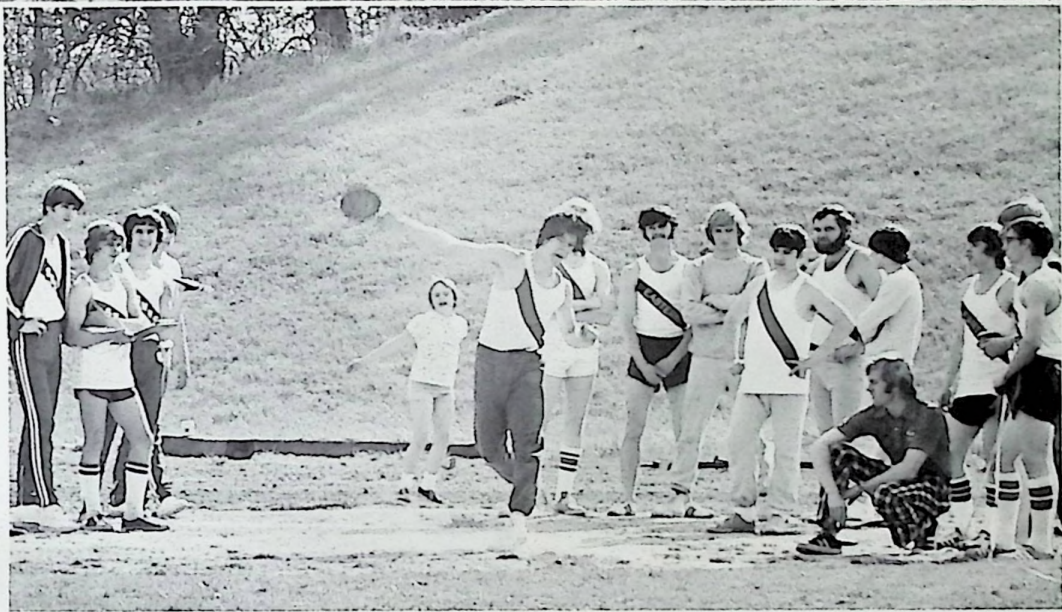

Who are you- the next manager?

Look at that stance

Biting the western dust

Workout before a meet

Up and Over

What a time to lay down!

Surely that isn't heavy?

Even the rain didn't stop our team!!
