Thurs. Aug. 1.
A fine day.
Clear.

George & I have been out for today.

Finished out an egg for the first.

Sun Aug 4.
A very warm
day.

Bob took some ice and peeps
down home
where we had a big time.

Genl. B. Ring
came over last night.

He had a fine
big turkey for dinner and
then ice cream.

As Luskam's
all came over
and Hattie was down and a time we had.

Mon Aug 5.
A very warm
day.

I finished the garden peeps
plowed the potato
and plowed
this afternoon.

June May 6

A nice day
A light shower
with some clouds.
Railroad surveyors
passed through.

We have been very busy today
all got a patch
ready for potato
and planted most of them.

Wed May 7

A rain during forenoon but did not rain much.
George hauled
rails and manure.
I trimmed 2 calves
for Lordean & on
for myself.

They went down
to Charles Taylor
to see a calf
but did not Ella went up to Chubbe with me and got some mutton.

The railroad surveyors came on
and went on with their surveying.

Thurs May 8

A coal mine
A large pit
by the side of the road
with a large dog
& a large pit
planting potatoes
George & I
passed & drove to the bank
to draw on the potato patch.

Fri May 9

day.
George & I
put up wire
fence all day.

Sat. May 28

A big fire
No damage
but a cool day

I went out to Mr. Lane's and found his old
shed house.

They used
the wheel bar,
the rest of the day

Thurs. May 25

A big fire
but a light
damage.

Washed up a little

and left a clear
day.
I planted

Fri. May 30

A fine day.

Thermus

A fine day for dissection.

We got ready
and all went out.

We stopped at the Th. museum.

Bill Cook was very kind.

He was discussing
economics.

A hard day.

A large crowd
and a good time.

Sat May 31

A warm day.

Thermus
at home.

Worked on toward putting plants in.

Failed to get at 2000.

and the insects
at 2000.

Then checked
around.

Planted
some corn.
