Really, we have had a lot of fun at West and we will never forget it. Don't forget the time we skipped and went to town. Don't forget the fun we had in Mr. Beasley's room our junior year.

Patty, what I really wanted to say is that you are the best friend I ever had.

Good Luck in the future and if we never meet again I'll see ya in Heaven!!!

Love,

All of Us	116

One right way to live is undefinable. Each of us must choose his own style, his own way. When we keep moving on the road we choose, that way is the only right way.

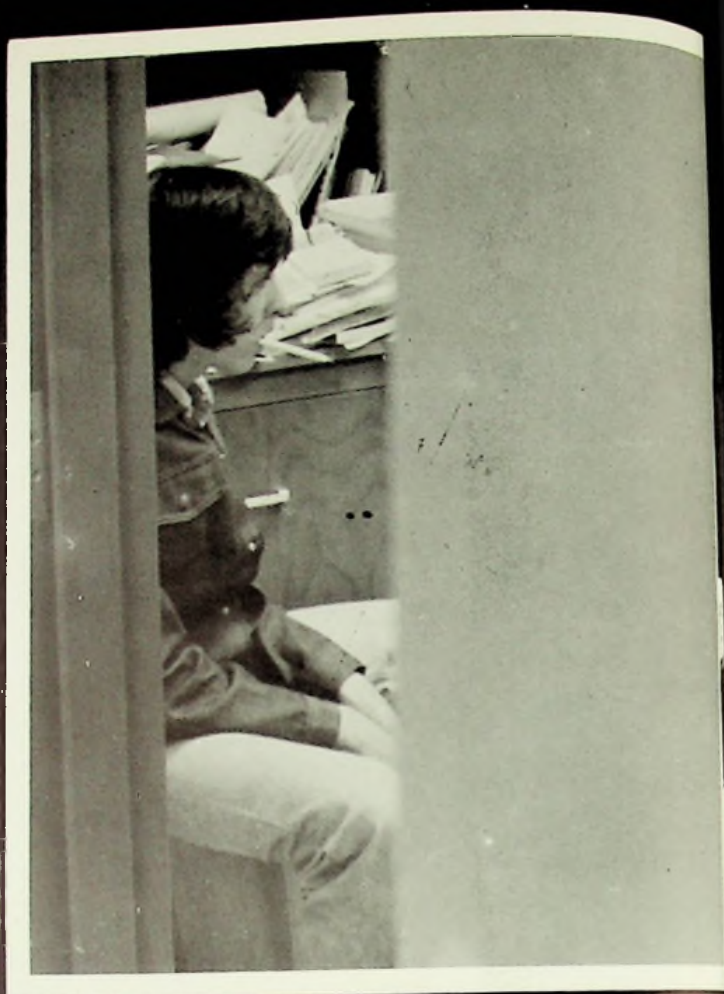

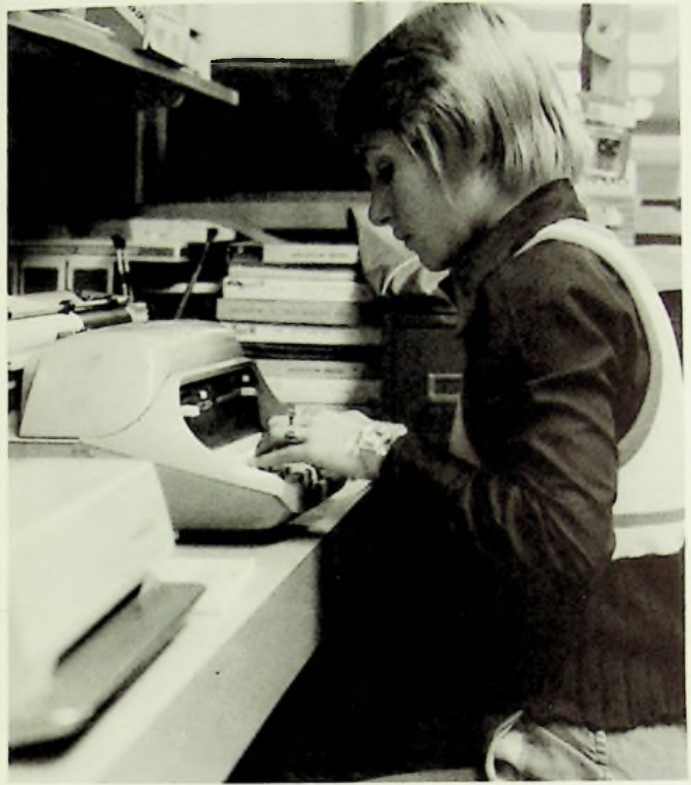

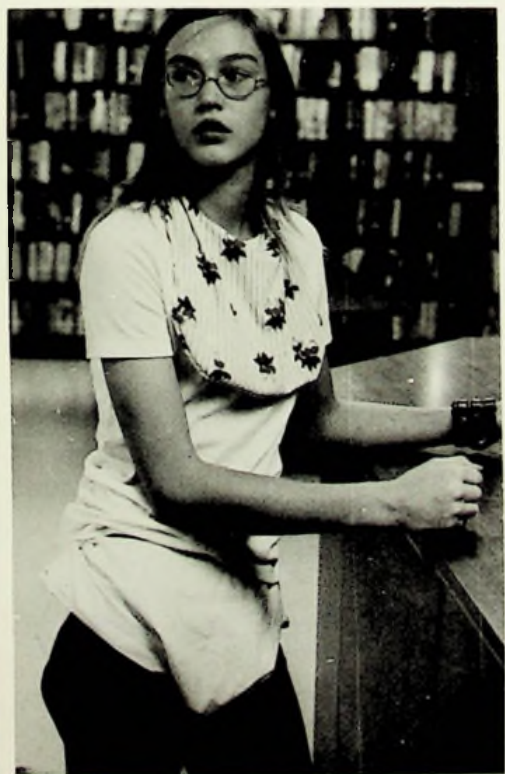

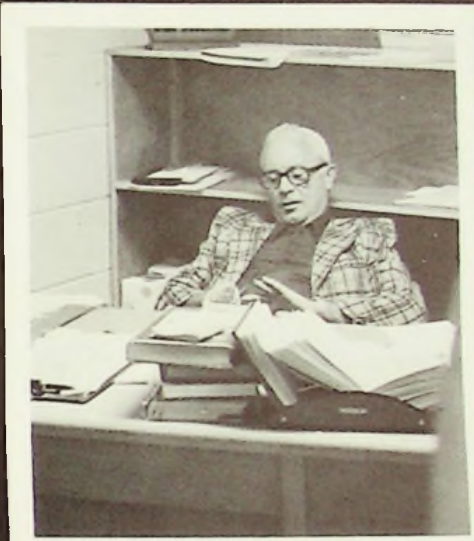

Happiness comes from finding satisfaction in our situation; finding not just superficial contentment or momentary pleasure, fleetingly here and gone, but lasting, elevating happiness. When we reach this completeness, living is easier and nothing seems impossible.

We must move to find our place; we must change, grow and learn from our mistakes. Mistakes are a more indirect path, but they move us forward to our truth, to our rightness.

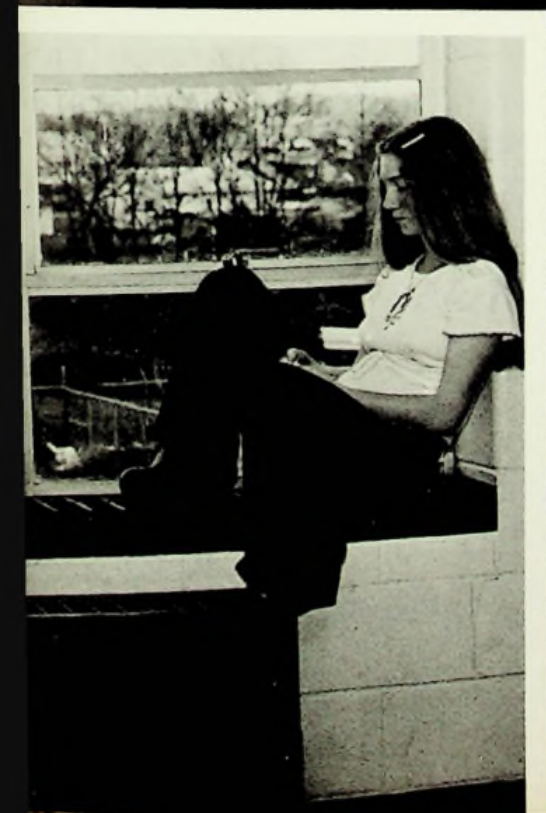

Unfilled space is a void; only lived-in space takes on shape and feeling. To escape the void, we must fill every minute with living, learning, competing. When we try, we advance. Our place becomes lived-in space.

Summer Activities Organizations

Summer— No Time For Resting

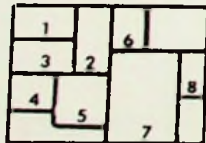

Although school was out for the summer, students hustled and bustled throughout the community. Whether making last-minute preparations on a float or touring Europe, the students dedicated their time and effort to enriching their roles at West. Publication workshops, cheerleading camps, All State Youth Choirs, River Days competition, and football practices are but a few of the summer activities. But, all this work paid off in winning seasons, excellent ratings at camp, top rate yearbooks, and a 1st runnerup in the River Days contest.

1. The band performs a snappy routine in the River Days parade. 2. "Good to the last drop," says Judy. 3. That's a mighty hard blow. 4. Boy, are we glad practice is over. 5. Only fifty more jumping jacks! 6. R. Cooper is stumped at the publication workshop. 7. Cheerleaders visit Mrs. Cannato after camp. 8. R. Sissel and T. Coleman say, "O' man, not one more time?"

West Has 1st Runner-up In River Days Festival

Our River Days candidate, Debbie Williams, spent a summer filled with nervous anticipation and many hours of hard work attending meetings, having pictures taken, and preparing for the fall festival. Her theme, that "Summertime Feeling," was perfect for Debbie atop her colorful butterfly and daisy float. Further highlighting the week's activities was her being chosen 1st runner-up. As our representative, she toured many festivals throughout Ohio promoting River Days.

1. J. Weber, P. Furnier, K. Bower, R. Bradshaw, and M. Yuenger "hangin' around" at yearbook workshop. 2. The Eiffel Tower, one of M. Dillow's many stops in Europe. 3. "Hats off" to a hard day's work. 4. Getting ready for the big day. 5. B. Simpson and T. Tolle relax and enjoy the view. 6. Our 1st runner-up is more than "just a pretty face." 7. Debbie has that summertime feeling. 8. Debbie poses for a picture before a parade.

Snow White, Seven Dwarfs Enhance Homecoming

Queen Pam and her court enhanced the "Someday My Prince Will Come" theme of the 1974 homecoming. Pam McGraw reigned over the festivities, and she and her attendants, Pam Furnier, Debbie Kegley, Annette Jones, Annette Marasek, sparked the team on to a victory over the East Tartans. After the game the students, faculty, and alumni danced in the enchanted forest of Snow White, the seven dwarfs and the delightful woody creatures.

1. Freshmen, Annette Marasek and Mark Kamer. 2. Forest fantasy provides just the right mood for dancing. 3. Sophomore, Annette Jones, and escort, Kendall Woodard. 4. Lester Sadler honors Queen Pam with a kiss. 5. Pam McGraw and Rick Carrington, regal in forest setting. 6. Junior attendant, Debbie Kegley, and escort, Mike Williams. 7. Senior attendant, Pam Furnier, and escort, Tom Perry. 8. Animated relaxation between dances.

A Warm, Sunny Day In October

Fire prevention is the responsibility of West Portsmouth volunteer firemen. Each year during fire prevention week in October, a queen and attendants selected by West students, brighten the parade. The Miss Flame Dance, an annual event, was cancelled, but the parade on a warm, sunny day in October, is never a disappointment.

1. Kathy follows the band in the annual Fire Prevention Parade.
 2. Miss Flame and attendants from left to right: Sharon Sanford, Junior; Sherry Swearingen, Senior; Kathy Bloomer, Miss Flame; Karen Heller, Sophomore; Peggy Mundhenk, Freshman. 3. Karen Heller, Sophomore. 4. Sherry Swearingen, Senior. 5. Sharon Sanford, Junior. 6. Peggy Mundhenk, Freshman.

ADRIFT IN NEW YORK a Senior Smash

The Seniors attempted a new kind of play this year and delivered a real "mellow-drama" relating the perils of poor little Nellie ADRIFT IN NEW YORK and at the mercy of the culprit, deadly Desmond. Of course, good and innocence prevail. Miss Emmett, the director, and her talented cast scored a smash hit with plenty of color and laughs.

1. Babs Coleman, Kelly Yount, Melinda Yuenger, Rhonda Bradshaw, Judy Weber, Richard Cooper, Joey Simon, Marty Dillow, Dee Rickman, Kathy Bower, Debbie Williams, Linda Renison, Kim Pierron, Rick Carrington, Pam Furnier, Scott Reiser, J. D. Kennard, Jerry Rollins, D. Blevins.

A Camelot In Our Minds

A spell of romance seemingly cast by sorcerors . . . Satin banners against moist stone walls . . . Rough hewn wood with hammered brass . . . Misty gowns and velvet cloaks . . . Juniors Are 3 Dimensional

For their first dramatic effort, the Juniors presented three one-act plays. The opening comedy, HIS WIFE, THE MIDNIGHT TRUMPET PLAYER, was a laugh-treat lead into THE INEXPERIENCED GHOST which brought the audience in touch with the supernatural. The last play, SEAN, THE FOOL, THE DEVIL, AND THE CATS, left the audience with some serious thoughts about the consequences of evil. Such variety—humor, the supernatural, and evil—is always a challenge to the audience as well as the cast but we enjoyed both the variety and the challenge.

Journalism: Quips And Quotes

I just dripped sauce on my new pants. I wonder who's winning the game? That popcorn oil made another blister on my arm. I'm sorry, we're out of gum. Don't we have a picture of him? I can't find the cropper. We're out of rough draft sheets. This is the seventh time I've typed this copy. This picture just won't fit. Does anybody know this girl's name? No, I didn't see the movie. I was working on my layout. Does anybody know what period this is? I'm sorry, all I have are plain M&M's. Don't leave anybody out. They broke up yesterday. You can't put that in there. Just type it over. I'll be home sometime tonight, Mom. You lost your article? Will it be run off in time? That was my finger you just stapled. There's a page missing. I have blisters from cutting that tape. We're out of tape. Yes, if I see any more pictures of you I'll get them for you. They gave us an ad last year. Do you understand the assignment? What is today? Mine's not ready. I didn't hear the bell. Do you need anything from town? No, you have paid only $2.00. Today's the last day. The yearbooks are in!!! Look, I did this page, and this one. . .

Parlez-vous, français? Si, senior.

Learning a foreign language is more than just conjugating verbs. Language students learn to understand the people and customs of Spanish and French-speaking countries; they raise money from bake sales to send Mrs. Potts, the advisor, and club members to language fairs. This year they attended the fair held in Athens at Ohio University. Getting a taste of foreign culture helped the students to realize that their foreign friends aren't so different after all.

Time Spent At Vo-Tech Is Time Well-Spent

The Scioto County Vocational School combats a major 1975 concern, unemployment, by providing students with practical skills that make them front runners in the long job lines. The students work toward their chosen occupations, but they get from Vo-Tech the experience, confidence, and skill to benefit them in any work situation. Vo-Tech encourages students to take advantage of the "good times" while preparing for possible "hard times."

Ohio State Poet Comes To West

West's English Department added two new teachers, Miss Pflieger and Mr. Beasley, who along with Miss Emmett and Mr. Kirby, pool their various talents to make English come alive. The novice mentors soon were right at home, directing plays, cavorting with the students on the basketball court, and sharing experiences with their classes. Their combined innovative energies brought to West students a stimulating poet, Phil Bioarski. Mr. Bioarski read his poems and discussed poetry as therapy for the emotionally unstable.

1. Miss Pflieger reads a "heated" letter. 2. A smile always helps a first year teacher. 3. Mr. Beasley says, "can't take my eyes off of you. . ." 4. "Hold still, J. D., your mascara's smeared!" 5. Miss Emmett conducts "bull session." 6. Phil Bioarski, Ohio State Poet, reads poems to attentive students. 7. Mr. Kirby casts a wary glance over his shoulder.

Metrically Speaking. .

Now that the U. S. is "going metric," the study of math and science is more challenging than ever before to both students and teachers. Faced with the unfamiliar problems of inflation, unemployment, and an energy crisis, students accustomed to affluence must learn to convert newly-learned equations and formulas into solutions for some of the nation's problems. More and more, students seem less concerned with the technological sophistication of the Space Age and more concerned with applying what they've learned to making the world a better place in which to live.

The Lively Art Of Learning

Whether one studies art, music, social studies, or a foreign language, the teachers at West find a fun way to present it. If you are walking along the halls and glancing into rooms, and if you happen to see exotic sights and hear some strange sounds, fear not! That noise is just a "learning happening." When we are surprised by a new work of art on the bulletin board or entertained by songs from the music department, we realize that life goes on with zest at West and that's what makes it fun.

Home Economics, Industrial Arts, And Business

Teachers in the shop, business and home making classes teach their students the skills necessary to success in the fields they choose. Aided by power tools, typewriters and sewing machines, the students gain general experience that equips them to become builders of a better America.

Today it is just as important to get a driver's license and to keep physically fit as it is to improve the mind. The teachers realize the importance of these special needs and do everything possible to help their students succeed in these areas.

Curtain Rises On New Scene

Not only does West have a new librarian, but there are other changes as well. The students seem to be more comfortable with, and more adept at using, the audio-visual materials. The paperback section is rapidly becoming one of the busiest areas of the library. Books and magazines are changing hands faster than ever before. Research and reading are the key words these days.

1. Mrs. Distel and Dwayne Conley search for Civil War material. 2. Mrs. Distel and Mrs. McGinnis are kept busy in the library. 3. Annette Farney learns to use audio visual equipment. 4. "Which one of the paperbacks shall I read next?" says Kim Colley. 5. Kathy Bower finds the library useful in her study of Shakespearean plays. 6. Pat Perry, Jon Burchett, and Rocky Swearingen browse through the latest HOT ROD issues. 7. Andy Reiser enjoys contemporary reading.

New Coach Spurs Senators

The 1974 grid season proved to be most successful for the Senators. Under their new mentor, Dick Tipton, the team rolled to an impressive 8-2 season. The Big Orange displayed an immovable defense complimented by an unstoppable offense. The '74 season brought an excitement back to West football which had been lost for some time. Although many seniors graduate, returning will be numerous talented lettermen who will try hard to better this year's record.

Desire And Pride Motivate Young Team. . .

A young varsity experienced a mediocre 7-12 season, but eight of those twelve defeats were decided by only ten points or less. After a shaky first half-season, that saw the Senators lose seven of nine games, the boys pulled together and boasted five victories in the campaign's closing half. Coach Sayre's leadership, faith, and unlimited patience, plus the squad's desire and pride, sparked the improvement. Spirited crowds aided the team's climb to second half success. Only three seniors graduate, leaving nine talented underclassmen who should insure a prosperous future in West basketball.

Season 1974-75

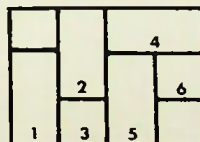

"So close and yet so far away," pretty well sums up the 1974-75 reserve basketball season. Although the team started the season with high expectations, they finished with a disappointing 10-8 ledger.

That five games were lost by a single basket is indicative of what transpired throughout this uneven but exciting season.

Fast Start Fizzles Slightly

After winning three of their first four contests the freshmen fell on hard times, closing the season with a 3-7 slate. The final five games were barn burners with the club losing three games by one point.

At home or away, the team had really enthusiastic fan support.

1. Freshman team: Mr. Boling, coach, BACK ROW- J. Adkins, T. Thacker, R. Frantz, D. Haywood, B. Partlow, E. Whitt, manager, FRONT ROW- J. Litteral, R. Davis, P. Hart, M. Peed, J. Pyles. 2. Disappointing Diamond Year

The 1975 Senator nine finished their campaign with an unexciting 9-12 ledger even though tremendous power marked the season with the team belting out fourteen homeruns, the highest total since Coach Sayre has coached the team. Kenny Bailey captured the coveted triple crown award leading the club with a .393 batting mark, 25 runs batted in, and 3 homeruns. Barry Litteral challenged Bailey for the batting crown with his .343 average.

Academic Skyrockets

Many students know they don't have to be smart to "get through" high school and are satisfied to glide through with C's. So when students care enough to excel academically, they deserve commendation. West's super scholars score high because they devote extra time and effort to their studies and take pride in education. 1. Valedictorian, Peggy Hartstein. 2. Jay Pyles, Gen. Science Scholarship Test, 2nd in District, Hon. Mention in State, 7th in District regardless of classification. 3. Kim Frantz, Geometry, 17th in District. 4. Debbie Williams, Salutatorian. 5. Students Make Good Show For West

The following students had impressive records of achievement: 6. Representing West at VoTec, winning recognition for bricklaying, is M. Bibbey who, in 1974, placed 3rd in Regional Competition, and in 1975, 2nd in State Competition and 1st in Regional Competition. 3. P. Bates won an award sponsored by Throckmorton Kitchens, for her kitchen design. 4. Judy Weber served as President of the Ohio Student Librarians Association. 5. C. Prince won the Betty Crocker homemaking award. 2. D. Zempter, N. Roe, M. Dillow, and K. Coleman represented West in the county typing contest.

Responsible Representation

Class officers have the responsibility of representing the will of their fellow students. As freshmen, they organize the game-ball raffle; as seniors they choose graduation announcements; but whatever they do, they put forth their best efforts.

Representing their classes this year are Freshmen: Debbie Shaffer, Karen Caudill, Rocky Swearingen, and Sharon Caudill. Sophomores: Karen Berry, Rich Bailey, Cindy McGraw, and Teddy Tolle. Juniors: Ken Bailey, Joni Lakin, Debbie Kegley, and Jim McCullough. Seniors: Peggy Hartstein, Linda Renison, Rhonda Bradshaw, and Debbie Lindsey.

Seniors Honored For Academic Excellence, Creative Talent and Hard Work

Opportunity knocks on many doors at West High, but not all students respond to its challenge. The 1975 SENIOR WHO'S WHO is honorary recognition of those students who welcome opportunity and make it the stepping stone to creative self-expression in language, music, art and physical fitness.

"Just how does a student get to be in the Who's Who?" is a question often asked. These students are chosen by the faculty for their outstanding contribution to the school and the community throughout their four years as high school students. They are the students who do not feel they have done their part until there is nothing left to do. They are willing, eager, enthusiastic, usually pleasant, always dependable. They are energetic people whose academic pursuits have involved them in a variety of new experiences. They have traveled to Europe, state competitions, music festivals, library and Journalism workshops, athletic tournaments and camps to improve their skills. They have represented their schools, West and VoTec, as award-winning craftsmen, artists, scholars, musicians, and future homemakers. But chiefly, they are Good Will Ambassadors for West, highly respected by faculty and students because they get things done.

SAE Goes Into Action

Miss Pfleger, new advisor for Student Action for Education, really got a good thing going this year. She, along with the enthusiastic club members, reached their goals: the purchase of a new bike rack, the acquisition of two large signs for the front of the building, to help visitors locate Portsmouth West, and finally, having the fun of a trip to Perry's Monument at Lake Erie, where they gathered historical information for the school and enjoyed the first SAE overnight trip.

Moving-On Purpose

It is not easy to leave the security of school, the often hostile and competitive challenge, and the class of '75 who were tired of graduation farewells, fond good-byes, and friends taking divergent paths. Four years at West they have filled their space, and they have tried to fill it well. Now they know it is time to move on, to leave space unoccupied, to give others the chance to become. Moving on is poignant, but it is also purposeful, and the class of '75 will be remembered as the class with a purpose.

Working For West

1. SCHOOL BOARD—President: James Folsom, William Diller, Vice President: Kenneth Horsley, Thomas Partlow. NOT PICTURED—Noel Bridwell and Marianne Lucas, Clerk-Treasurer. MAINTENANCE- 2. Hursel Adams. 3. Robert Swords. 4. Bill Skaggs. 5. Mr. Terry Williams, Director of O.W.E.

Cooperative Efforts Make West A Winner

The students of Portsmouth West are fortunate to be a part of a school supervised by such an efficient and well-organized administration. Many of these administrators do not work directly with the students, therefore their work often goes unnoticed but never unappreciated. Though it is difficult to give recognition to each worker for specific tasks, it is not difficult to see the results of their efforts as the school runs smoothly year after year.

1. OFFICE: Mrs. E. Easter, Mrs. M. Lucas, Mrs. P. Meeker, Mrs. D. Wellman. 2. Local Superintendent, Eugene McKenzie. 3. Dietitian, Mrs. J. Cooper. 4. Asst. Principal, Stanley Doddridge. 5. Principal, Marvin Distel. 6. Guidance Counselor, Orville Reiser, Jr. 7. Audio Visual Co-ordinator, Eugene Crum.

Seniors Make Awesome Move Into The Future

Alphabetically, for twelve years, we have followed the orderly patterns established for us, moving under the careful and thoughtful guidance of parents and teachers. Now, we must break order. Individually we are responsible for breaking time-worn molds and creating new ones, for adding new nsions and depth to our lives, and for finding our own place.

But that's tomorrow. Today it's "Good-bye, old Me."-
"Farewell, Room 107."-
"Thanks, Mom, Dad, Friends."-
"C'mon, Flute, it's our last note for West High. Let's make it good."- "Yes, Future, we'll make it good."

1. C. Vastine, J. Weber, S. Swearingen. 2. B. Whitman, D. Williams, K. Yount, M. Wise, M. Yuenger. 3. T. Adams. 4. J. Folsom. 5. D. Ervin, B. Coleman, B. Matthews. 6. M. Yuenger. 7. M. Dillow. 8. B. Bogan, K. Boyd, K. Bower, R. Bradshaw. 9. D. Blevins, D. Torres, J. Ayers, B. Arnett, S. Adams.

Some of us are moving on, but others are moving in to fill the vacated spaces. For some moving on is difficult, but for those who have found their places, it is just one more necessary move.

Just finding a physical place that is our own is not so important. We must find a place in our minds. When we find that place, changes are easier for us to make. We will have a continuity about us that will help us to fill our space.

Remember, we move to keep things whole.
Judy

To Patty,
a real nice in the good duck good future good duck!

Good Clemen

Patty

A real nice
and sweet person, I have known for a long time. Good Luck Always.

Sharon
Sanford

Patty yours are also a real sweet girl who I haven't known that long. Stay that way. Friends Kathy Madden
a 76"

To Patty,
I have loved and never give up on you and I take great pleasure in you.
I hope you are well. Love,
John M. F.

Patty

To a very nice and attractive girl. I really enjoyed having you in my English class last year.
I wish you the best in everything you do.
Mr. Beasley

To Patty
A real nice friend. but kinda off at times.
Good Luck
Shari Kohser

To Patty,
What can I say except what everyone else says: you really sweet. I really do mean it. I wish you the best everything. Nanci Osborne '76

To Patty,
A good little gal who liked to give Mrs. Shaker a lot of trouble last year.
Carol

To Patricia,
A real stupid dummy
if a friend. I always thought you were kind of dumb. But now I know for sure that you are.

Good luck in your therapy class to improve your brain + thinking.

Pulling for you all the way.

Your friend
Mary Pierce
"76"

To Patty,
A really sweet + cute girl that's really like good-luck with everything in life. Best of luck

KEEPING THINGS WHOLE

In a field
I am the absence of field.
This is always the case.
Wherever I am
I am what is missing.

When I walk
I part the air and always the air moves in to fill the spaces where my body's been.

We all have reasons for moving.
I move to keep things whole.
