Portsmouth West High School

West Portsmouth, Ohio

Volume 39

In 1978 the closing of the U. S. Grant Bridge affected the lives of everyone in the area.

Physical and economical ties were severed. But the people's resilience moved them to seek ways to keep their jobs intact and communication with family and friends open.

It seems to us, the Senatorian staff, that we can learn much from those around us who are having to reconstruct their lives to overcome the obstacles created by the closing of the bridge.

Everyday of our lives we are faced with obstacles we must overcome in order to make progress. Just as we construct bridges to cross rivers, we must build bridges to overcome ethical and educational obstacles.

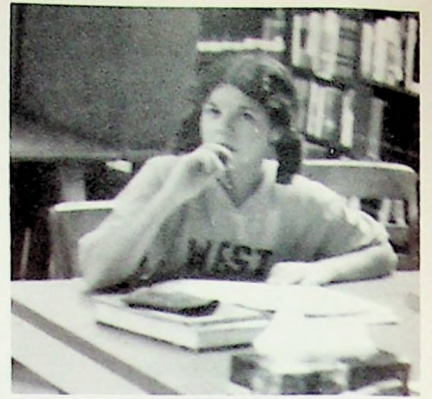

When we are young, perhaps a bridge need be only strong enough to cross a gentle stream or a babbling brook. But the more we grow, the more complex the obstacles become. Our bridges must be stronger, more durable and more resistant.

At this time in our lives, each one of us is building bridges that will greatly influence our futures. We can work together by helping and teaching each other, but each individual must accept the responsibility for his final success or failure.

Parade Entries on Track All the Way

A black locomotive with automated wheels, puffs of steam, and a blonde engineer in bibs made the West float a highlight of the 1978 River Days Parade.

Brenda Tieman, West's

Miss River Days candidate, worked during the summer to fund her float and wardrobe, and she placed as second runner-up in the contest.

Portsmouth West was well represented, with the majorettes winning a first and the band a second place, in these activities that are so special because they signal the end of summer and the beginning of a brand new school year.

Brenda Tieman on soundstage ramp during the judging. Time was too short for Brenda to create her float, but her rented locomotive was a smash. West's second runner-up in a moment of glory. Bathing suit competition was held Wednesday before Saturday's final judging.

Our blonde engineer is aboard for the parade through downtown Portsmouth. Connie, Babs, Lora, Pam, Sharon and Cheryl give added support to West during parade. West's flag corps, band and majorettes are annual River Days crowd-pleasers.

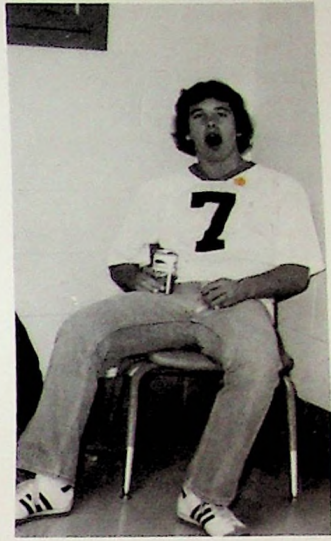

A pensive Brenda poses with other contestants. Right after the crowning, a relaxed and happy Brenda poses for the photographer outside the soundstage trailer.

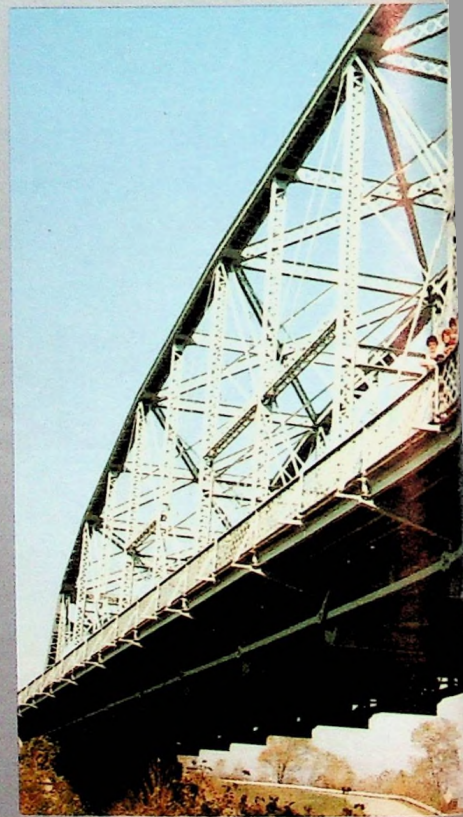

B. Bobst relaxes after a day of classes at the Ohio University Journalism Workshop. Lori and Sharon keep guard on their share of the food. Six "wild and crazy" West cheerleaders. Cheryl, Lori, Brenda, and Babs get groomed for competition at the Universal Cheerleaders Association Camp at Morehead University. Summer practice is sloppy joes and something cold to drink. Senators chow down. Brian takes a refreshing break. For lessons in photography, copy-writing, and graphics, R. Mains, B. Bobst, C. Prince, and B. McGinnis spent one week in June at the Ohio University Journalism Workshop. Connie get her "copy-right" at the Journalism Workshop.

Band Gets High Marks

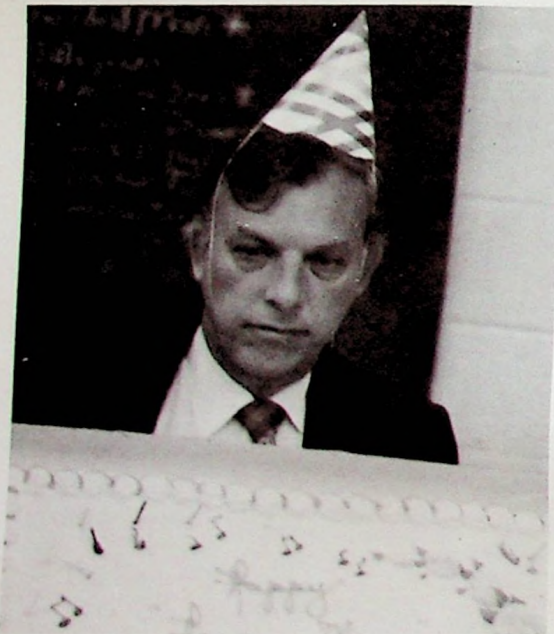

In the summer, the drum majors and the majorettes attended National Majorette and Bandfront Clinic at Springfield, Ohio, bringing home merit ribbons and a first place trophy for the majorettes.

River Days proved to be a rewarding time with the band winning the 2nd place trophy in AA competition and the majorettes winning the first place trophy.

As the year progressed, the awards continued coming with the band named "Best Band" in both the Old Timer's Parade in Peebles, Ohio and the annual Jaycees Christmas Parade in Portsmouth.

The band also attended the First Scioto County Marching Festival, the annual competition at Marshall University, and the Jackson Apple Festival where the majorettes received a 3rd place trophy.

Pregame and half-time performances by the band, majorettes, and the flag corps added a colorful touch to all of the Senator games.

VOCAL MUSIC

The 234 vocal music students in mixed and select chorus, boys and girls' ensemble, girls' glee, and the girls' trio, enhance each season of the school year when they perform. Besides their annual concerts, Christmas and Mother's Day, the students give highly-acclaimed performances for area churches and community organizations. Highlights of '79 were the Christmas Day appearance of the select chorus and director, Mrs. Sandra Reiser, on WOWK TV'S FIVE HOURS OF CHRISTMAS and performing at the Miss Scioto Valley pageant. At OMEA competition, in Athens, the boys' ensemble received a superior rating.

SAE — Doers

The SAE, Students Appreciation for Education, a well-organized and active club, is headed by Mrs. Goode. Teacher Appreciation Day, when the students prepare a meal for the teachers, is one of the club's favorite projects. Another is decorating the annual Christmas tree in the school lobby.

The club's money-raising projects were selling posters and candy, with some of the benefits earmarked for a new sound system for the gym. On May 19th, the club rounded out a fun-filled year by "boogying" across the river to Perry's Disco Skating Rink in Ashland.

LIBRARY — The Room With A View

Students read about the lofty and the low, the past and the future, the beautiful and the hideous. Their interests are wide and varied. They play hide and seek with books — some read to hide from truth; some, to seek truths. But for whatever purpose they read, they are served by the library whose books open the doors to a world of new ideas and images.

West Journalists

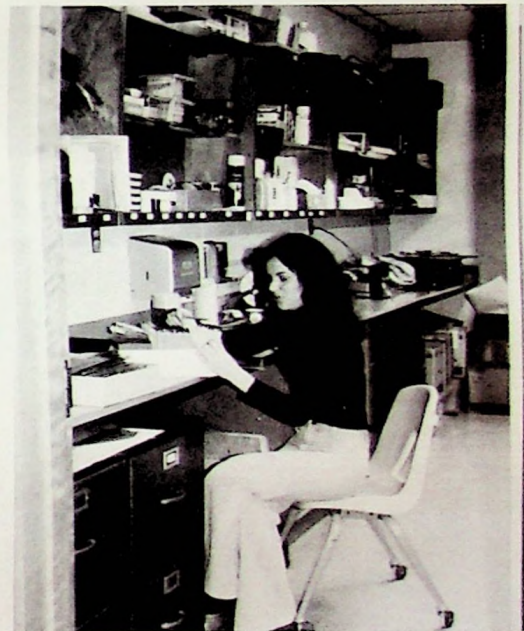

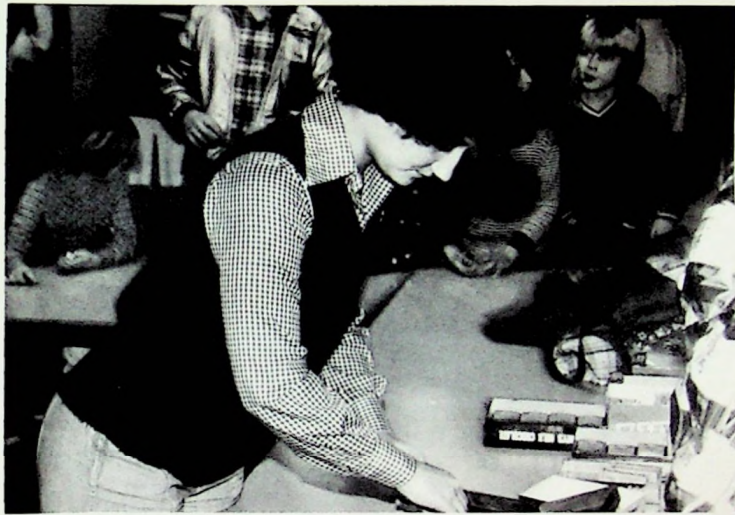

A yearbook is a collection of memories made tangible by words and pictures. The SENATORIAN staff and Mrs. Distel, advisor, plan, create and work together on every aspect of the yearbook, business, layouts, copy writing and photography. Co-editors of the 1979 SENATORIAN are Connie Prince and Brenda Bobst; business manager, Brent McGinnis; and photographers, Randy Mains and Shawn Conley.

The newspaper, also produced by this staff and newly-named the SENATOR SAMPLER, proved to be an entertaining publication, issued four times yearly and co-edited by senior, Lori Kitchen and Carolyn Berry, a junior.

West Football is Drive, Determination and Dedication

Coach Tipton's 1978 football boys provided West fans with another spirited season. The cheerleaders and the Pep Club kept the halls filled with colorful banners urging the Big Orange to "CRUSH". At mid-season the Senators had faced the toughest part of their 1978 schedule, losing to Wheelersburg and Coal Grove. But after their 7-0 win over Notre Dame, the team had the incentive they needed and went on to post a season record of 7-3.

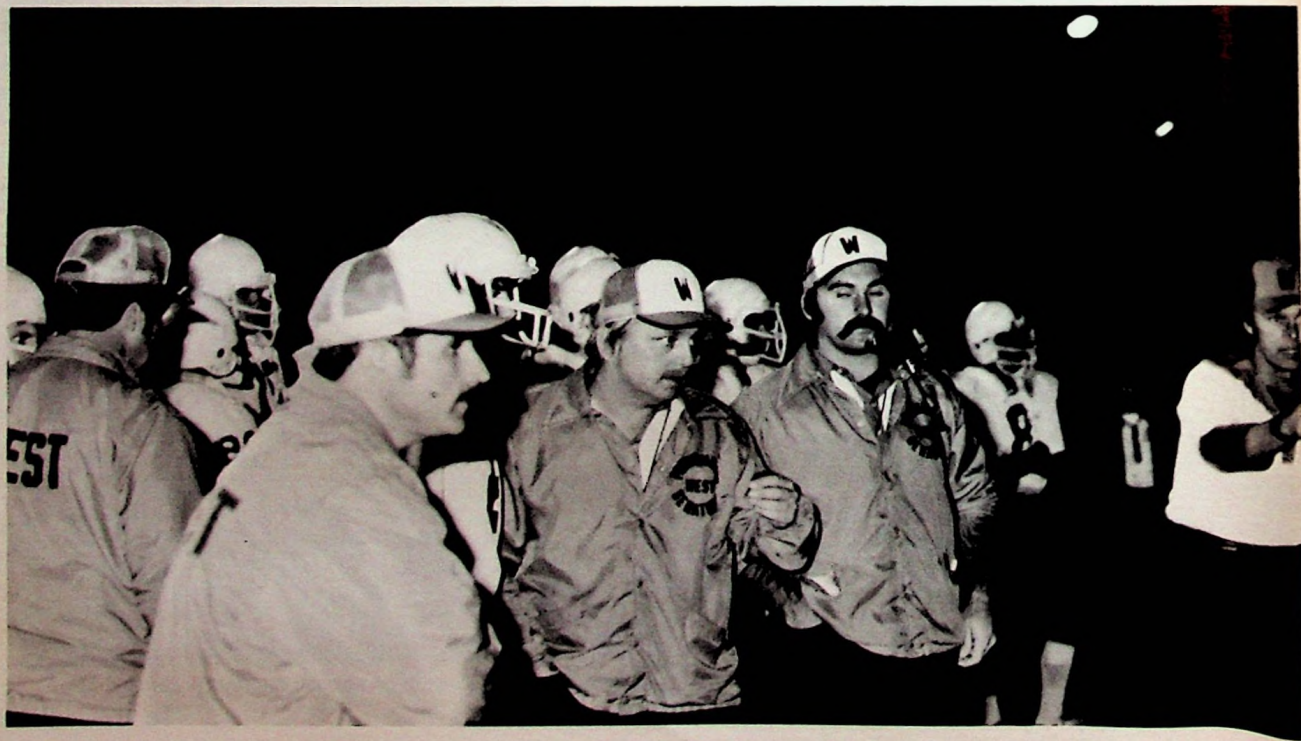

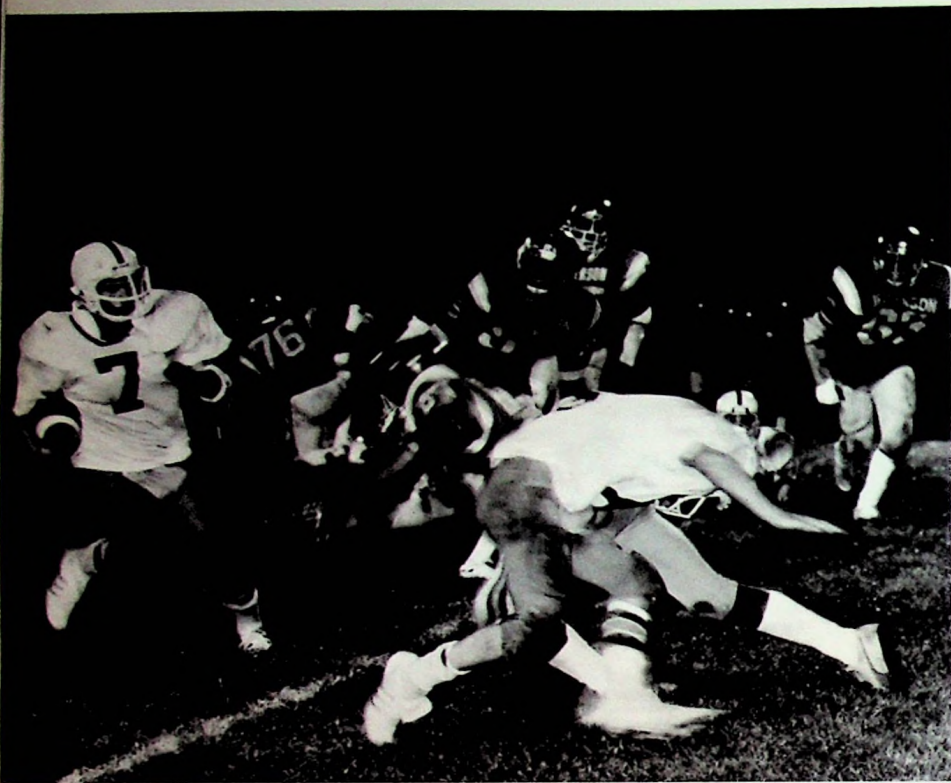

All-SOC Football First Team honors went to Brian Evans, Dan Meade, Mick Dillow and John Mauk; Second Team honors, to Rich Blakeman, Craig Bailey, Duane Pick and Dale Shupert. B. Evans, with more than 2,000 yards this season, was voted SOC Back of the Year, South East District Back of the Year, and Second Team All State. Dan Meade was voted to the First Team South East District squad. A capable Senator coaching staff — line coach, Steve Rapp, defensive secondary coach, John Boling, linebacker coach, Chris Gibson, and defensive end coach, Mike Brown — moulded a game-deciding defensive unit that was able to limit West opponents to an average of 35 yards per game rushing.

First Four-Year Volleyball Era Ends

Girls volleyball, relatively new to the West sports scene, began four years ago. At that time, Carole Farney, Kathy Coleman and Lori Kitchen were freshmen on the volleyball team. This year, these girls graduate ending West's first four-year volleyball era.

The 1978 team ended its season with a 6-5 record and 2nd place in the Valley Invitational Tournament. SOC 1st team honors went to seniors, Carole Farney and Christy Bean; 2nd team honors went to Lori Kitchen and Kathy Coleman. Coach Nordrum looks forward to next season based on the performance of this year's junior varsity who held its own with a 7-3 record. After four years, it seems that girls volleyball has found a place in the hearts of West High's girl athletes.

Senatoresses Record 5-10 Season

The girls' basketball schedule included six county schools plus New Boston, East, Notre Dame and Portsmouth High School. They scored victories over Northwest, Wheelersburg and Notre Dame.

In tournament play, the Senatoresses defeated Wheelersburg, but they went down to a powerful Ironton team.

Cherie Bricker, a junior, was named to the SOC All-Star First Team; Cathy Schackart, a junior, was named to the Second Team.

This year's Reserve team posted a record of 2-3.

Basketball Team Struggles Through Tough Season — Varsity Victories Hard to Come by

The Senators played harder and the scores got closer, but the season ended too soon for the scrappy team. In spite of small crowds, Coach Sayre and his boys kept on giving it their best shot. The 1-17 season doesn't record the whole story — it can't tell about those losses that were only a point or two short of victory.

Girls Track

The girls track team finished the season with three new school records: Carolyn Berry in the mile, 6:01.6; Kim Geyer in the 440 yard dash, 1:05.3; and Tonnie Collins, Cathy Gibson, Cindy Jones and Polly Pyles in the 880 yard medley, 2:14. The team lost Cindy Jones, the only senior, so Coach Moore will have mostly experienced runners burning up the cinders next year.

BOYS TRACK

Boys track, coached by John Boling, steadily improved as the season progressed. They competed against SOC and SCL teams, took part in the Picketon Relays and the District Track Meet at Rio Grande. Mark Crisp, Jerry Davis, Mike Geyer, and Craig Weber participated in the district meet. Crisp placed fourth in the 100 yard dash and Davis placed fifth. Coach Boling is looking forward to a promising season next year because he lost only three track seniors to graduation.

Baseball — “Sluggers”

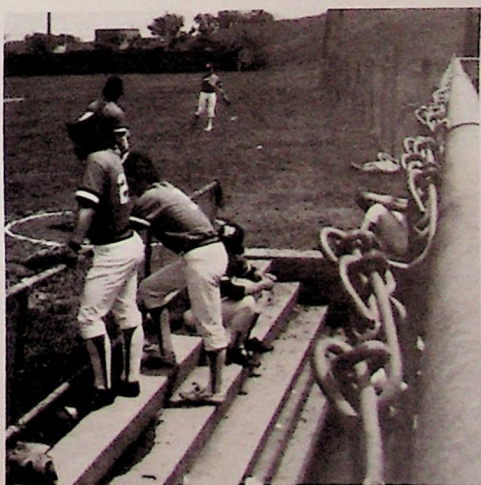

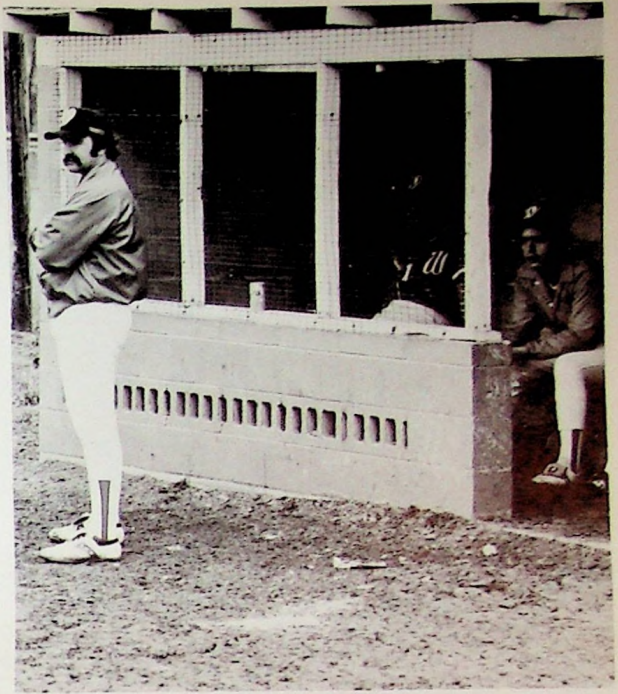

This year's baseball team, coached by Chris Gibson and assisted by Steve Rapp, was a comparatively young team that shows good promise for the future. Only four seniors were on the team that put together an 11-6 record. Replacements will have to be found for John Bloomer, Mick Dillow, Brian Evans and Jerry Newman. This year's squad was a hard-hitting group, led by center fielder, B. Evans, and catcher, M. Dillow.

An inexperienced pitching staff came on stronger as the season progressed, gaining victories over Northwest and Minford in the class "AA" sectional tournament. West then played a strong Ironton squad on even terms throughout most of the game before finally losing out 4-1 in later innings.

With the experience gained by the younger members of the squad, West could be a contender in league play next year.

Golf — Bowling

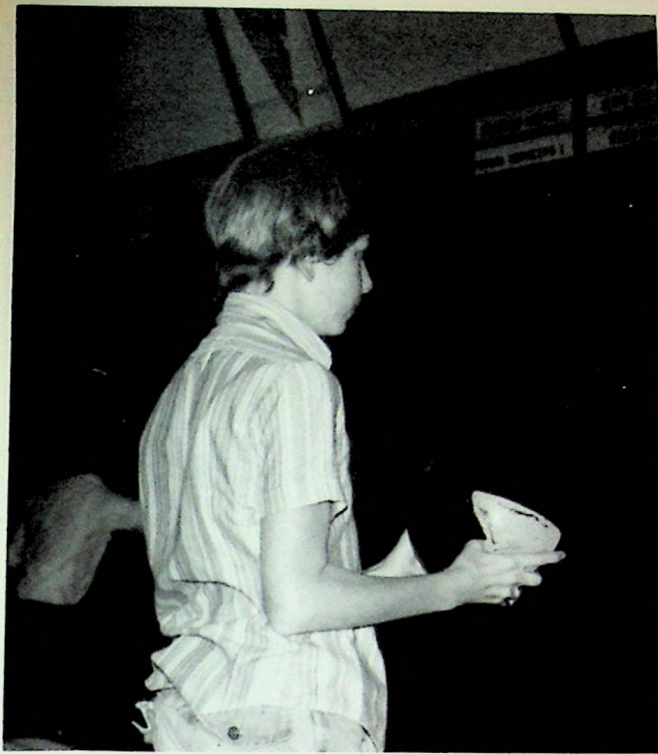

West golfers, who host matches on their "home" green at the Elks Country Club, didn't win any of their matches this season, but Coach Dunham is anticipating a more promising season next year when they return to the green with this year's experience behind them. Golf Team: Darrell Pennington, Ron Shupert, Chris Martin, Tim Kiser, Scott Smith, Tom Jones, Scott Davis, Marlin Adkins, Coach Dave Dunham. R. Shupert tees off below.

Student bowlers met at the Rainbow Lanes to challenge bowlers from area schools. Pictured bowlers: Paul Mayberry, John Barnett, David Hardy, David Tieman, Terri Crawford, Steve Colley, Jerry Book, Jeff Peters, and Mark Carpenter.

P. Mayberry, a second-year bowler, about to strike. Tom Jones working his way out of a sand trap. Scott Smith playing out the rough. Steve Colley and Terri Crawford find that bowling lanes are a great place for "good conversation".

Nordic Beauty Reigns

At West for only six weeks when she was chosen as the 1978 Miss Flame, senior, Eli Magneson, exchange student from Norway, endeared herself to all of us because she was so kind and friendly.

Miss Flame's court was Connie Prince, Vicki Norman, Val Hornung and Arlene Whitt. Saturday, October 14, the Washington Local Fire Department sponsored a dance after the crowning of Miss Flame. Escorts for Miss Flame and her attendants were Norman Hall, Bob Canter, Larry O'Dell, Greg Swearingen and Joe Reiser. The girls were also honored at the Fire Department's annual parade, Sunday, October 15, a bright but blustery day.

Miss Flame, Eli Magneson, waits for parade to begin. Vicki Norman, now at Vo-tec, was chosen as the Junior attendant. The band makes its annual appearance in the Miss Flame parade. Majorettes step briskly to keep warm on cool, windy day.

C. Prince, senior attendant, flashes a warm smile. Freshman attendant, A. Whitt, rides with sophomore attendant, V. Hornung. Miss Flame and her attendants brace themselves against the wind. The 1978 Miss Flame catches her tumbling crown.

Harriet (Lisa Roark) readies herself for the widow's role. The cast — thespians all. Miss Emmett takes a relaxed approach to holding practice in school cafeteria. Fitzpatrick (Lori Kitchen) scans her lines one last time. Maids (Lora Shaffer and Terri Swords) tend the body.

Highwayman (Winnie Tatman) takes aim. Patridge (Mike Parry) denies that he is Tom's father. Miss Western (C. Prince) fans away her frustration. Tom (B. McGinnis) pleads, "Who am I?"

Seniors Challenged by Tom Jones

Chosen as this year's senior class play was Tom Jones, a comedy about the London adventures of an orphan boy who was shunned and ridiculed by society.

The play, performed on bare stage, with only a few portable props, really intrigued the cast who had to master 18th century English dialect and perform in bulky uncomfortable costumes.

Much doubling was necessary, with some students playing dual roles and girls acting the parts of male characters. But the seniors met the challenges head on and were thoroughly prepared when they and their director, Miss Emmett, presented the play to the students and the public in late October.

Justice Dowling (B. Nichols) passes judgment. Maids, L. O'Rourke, S. Kalb, L. Shaffer and E. Magneson listen with Blifel (R. Prater) at Squire Allworthy's (B. Canter) bedside as he gives a portion of his wealth to Tom (B. McGinnis).

Mrs. Waters (K. Coleman) tries to thank Tom for rescuing her. Mrs. Whitefield (C. Bean) waits with student director, Robin McGraw. Thwackum, (P. Smith) and the Squire (C. Bean) seize Blifel, the villain. Lady Bellaston (B. Bobst) takes a last look at her lines.

Honour (M. Fazio) memorizes last minute details. Director, Miss Emmett, checks Harriet's (L. Roark) hoop skirt. Backstage looking for her props is Bridget (D. Conley). Miss Western (C. Prince) is a bit confused by the antics of the Highwayman (W. Tatman). Tom and Sophia kiss, but they don't tell. Tom Jones (B. McGinnis), who consoles Sophia (C. Jones), is regarded suspiciously by Mr. Western (J. Barnett.).

BASKETBALL HOMECOMING

ALWAYS AND FOREVER is just how long Queen Pam and her court will remember being honored at the 1979 Basketball Homecoming. JUNIOR, Susie Perry, FRESHMAN, Arlene Whitt, SOPHOMORE, Terri Montgomery, and SENIOR, Sandy Hicks made up the Queen's Court. SENIOR, Pam Ratliff, chosen by the students, reigned as Queen for a night. The royal crown was bestowed by team captains, Mick Dillow and Brian Evans. Other team members offered friendly arms for the girls to cling to: Craig Weber, Terri, Tim Kisor; Bart Evans, Susie, Brian Hopper; Mike Geyer, Sandy, Tom Kennard; Bill Frantz, Arlene, Scott Stidham.

The background of stately columns, entwined with ivy, was provided by Mrs. Rapp, cheerleader advisor, assisted by cheerleader, Lora Shaffer and helpers.

FOOTBALL HOMECOMING

Torrential rain made it almost possible to "COME SAIL AWAY" on homecoming night. Queen Christie Bean and her escort were prepared, but formal ceremonies were postponed until the following week. The dance in their honor was held as scheduled. Attendants were: SENIOR — Cheryl Jewett, JUNIOR — Pam Estep, SOPHOMORE — Christine Farney, FRESHMAN — Sally Perry. The girls dressed in muted autumn colors, carried bouquets of dried wild flowers. Escorts were: Brent McGinnis, Rick Rickman, Gary Erlenwein, Joe Powell and Marlin Adkins. Tri-Captains, Danny Meade, Mick Dillow, and Brian Evans honored Christie with flowers, a crown, and the traditional homecoming kiss. A "steamboat on the river" background, created by Lora Shaffer with the help of the cheerleaders, carried out the "COME SAIL AWAY" theme.

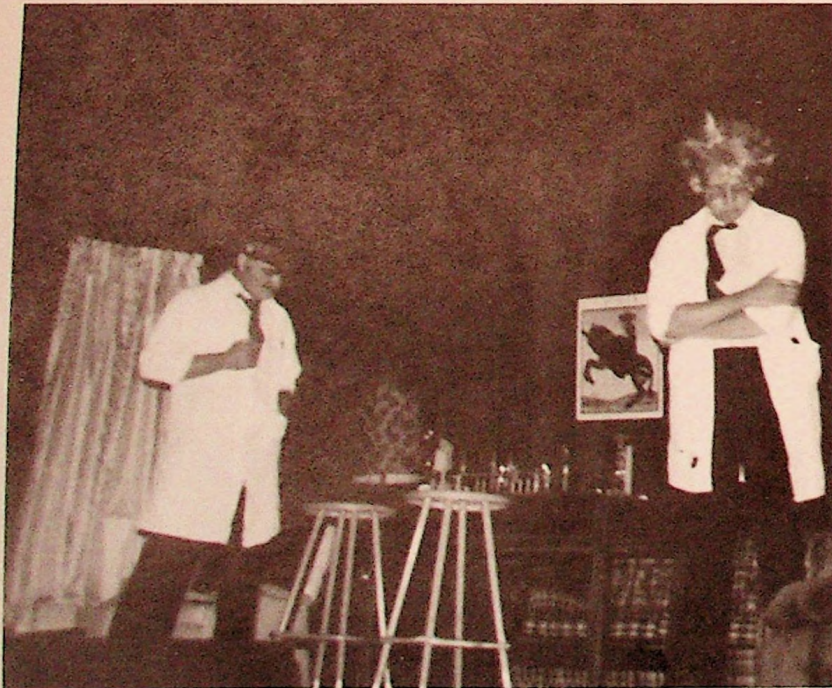

JUNIORS PRESENT MYSTERY-COMEDY

Two zany scientists, a lady in red, beautiful but "less-than-bright" twins, an exotic spy, and a strange man in the closet provided a good balance of love, intrigue and laughter in SUITABLE FOR HANGING the Juniors' spring class play. Mrs. Distel, director, was assisted by Melinda Sparks, student director, and a hard-driving crew, Tammy Book, Tom Kennard, Mark Lakin, Les Bradshaw and Lori Mitchell.

John Parker fights off hypnotic spell. Elaine Loless listens in as Bob Bussa sets up audition for Mary Berry and Angie Williams. Eddie Hileman and John Major, mad-cap scientists in search of truth. Sue Andrews, the mysterious "lady in red".

Angie Williams dressed for stardom. Brian Hopper and Diana Litteral in "cloak and dagger" roles. Most of the cast and crew in a relaxed moment. Elaine Loless consoled by Cathy Cline in a dramatic scene.

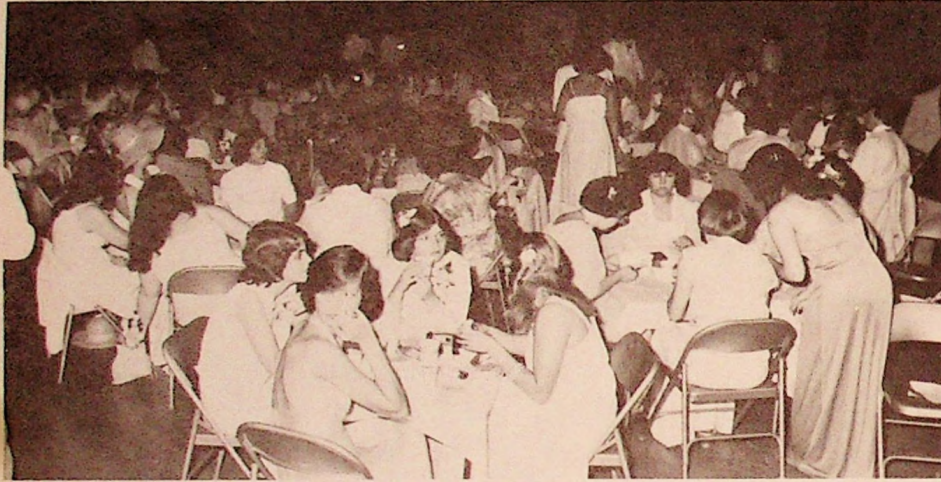

J. Major and E. Hileman, the professors in thought. C. Cline, the elite Mrs. Raney. C. Murphy doing his "Columbo" act. J. Jenkins Charley's proud Mama. L. Mitchell, a crew's work is never done. M. Berry and A. Williams as Mini and Maxi ready for Broadway.

M. Sparks backstage with sound effects button. B. Hopper (Anatole), M. Lakin, crew, D. Litteral (Hilga), E. Loless (Abby), M. Berry (Mini), rest after pushing sofa onstage. Cast members take a breather on the lawn. T. Book checks out last minute details. J. Parker (Charley) and B. Bussa (Sam) wrestle with the loot.

Prom — heavenly

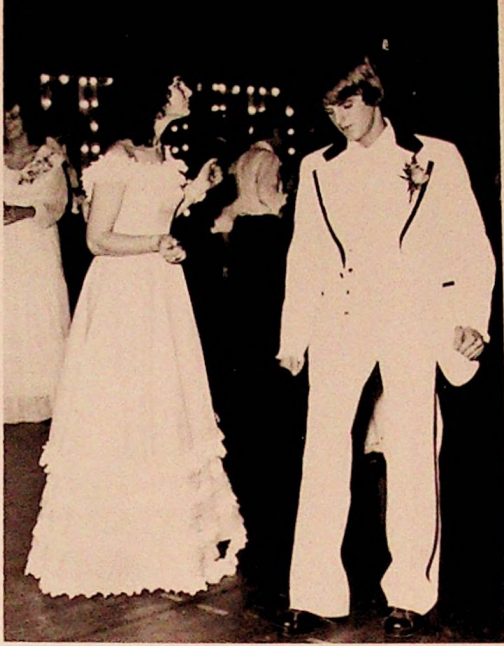

TOO MUCH HEAVEN, theme of the Junior-Senior Prom, was carried out to perfection by Mr. Kitchen, Junior adviser, and a student crew who transformed the gym into a star-studded wonderland. Sophomore cherubims, the hosts and hostesses, gave service with a smile as they dispensed cola to faculty and thirsty students who were getting down to SIZZLER, the red-hot band who was right at home in Heaven.

C. Russell says, "Who are all these people in their glad-rags?" P. Ratliff and S. Journey during the last dance. Everyone liked that joke except Craig and Randy. D. Litteral and Matthew Morgan give their feet a rest.

Put your little foot right out, Charley. Hats off to the juniors for a heavenly night. Prom royalty: Connie Prince and Jerry Newman. C. Dunham and Cathy Johnson set this one out. Six little angels all in a row: D. Weaver, T. Hamilton, C. Gibson, B. Prince, T. Book, W. Colley.

B. Evans does a slow hustle. D. Darby gets down to the beat. The crowd boogies on down. That devilish John with his littlest angel. T. Marasek and A. Lewis at gateway to Heaven.

V. Norman and E. Fyffe pause at the fountain. Girl talk: T. Evans, C. Dunkin, D. Timberlake, S. Duellley. Wearing the laurel wreaths are: T. Shaffer, S. Stidham, J. Pick, M. Bricker, R. Riffe, B. Frantz. Connie Prince and Brent McGinnis cross over the bridge. M. Dillow swears he'll dance if the band ever comes back from break.

Vo-Tec Offers Career Opportunit- ies

Having a special work skill is an asset that endures throughout one's life. Votec offers this training; the students who take advantage of it become that most marketable commodity — a reliable and confident craftsman.

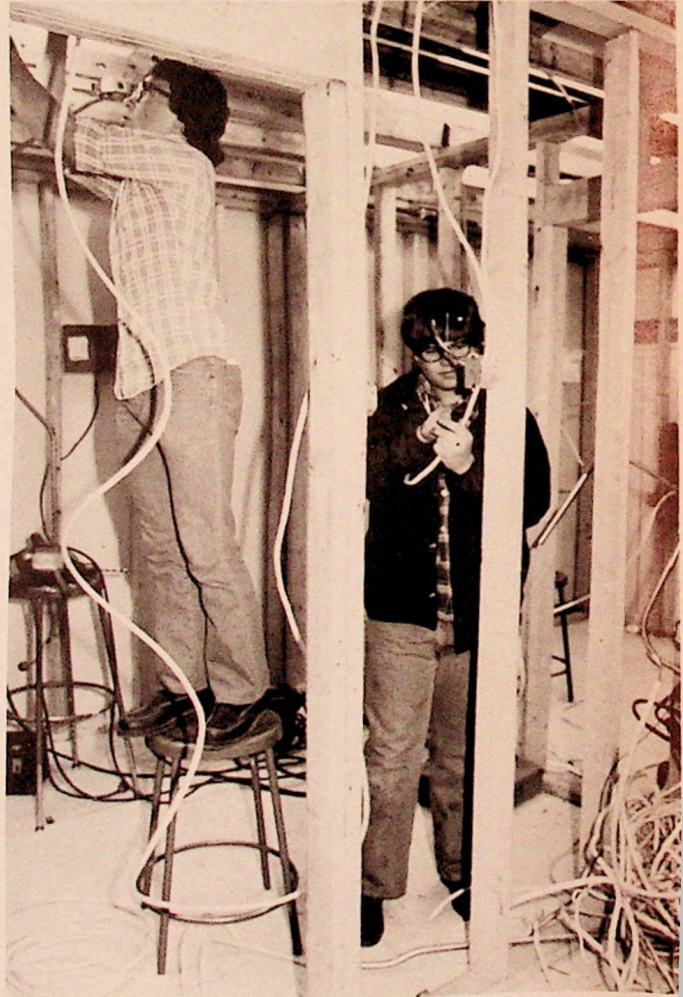

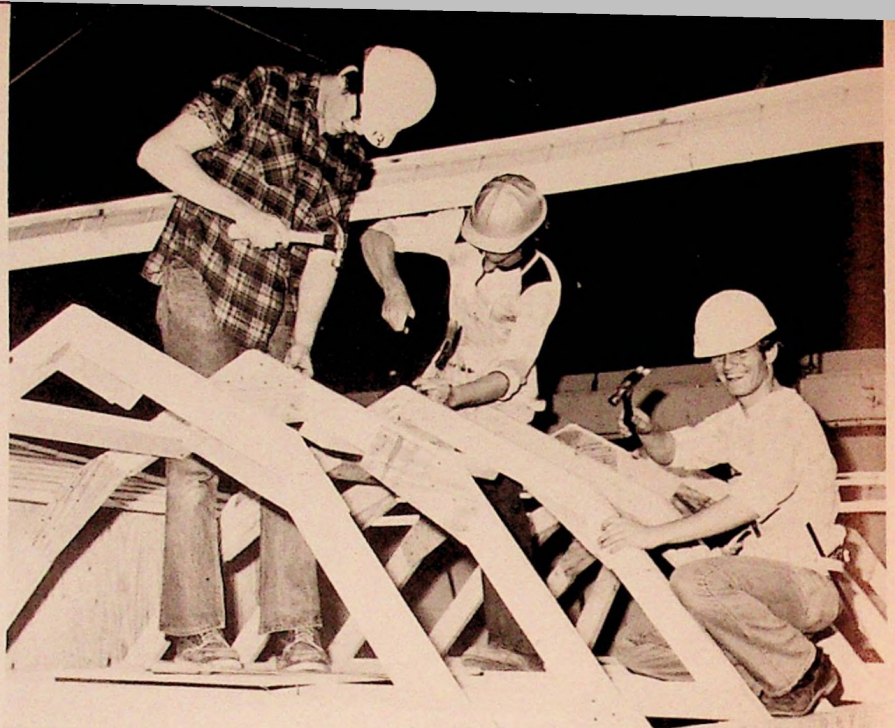

Community businessmen are beginning to reap the benefits of having so many young apprentices enter the work-a-day world. With their vocational training, and healthy ambition, these students won't be apprentices long. West students are among those who are joining the ranks of reliable workers.

The Senatorian Staff regrets that the picture of senior, Barry McGraw arrived after the printing of the Senior Class section.

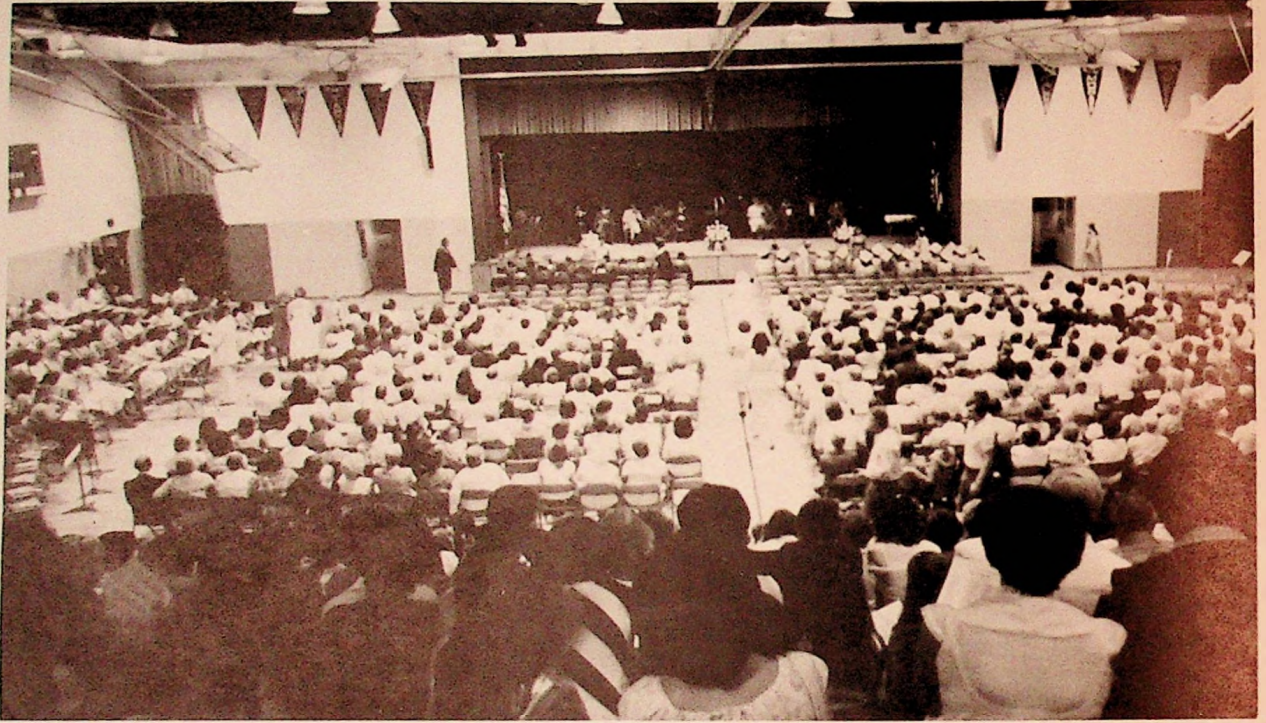

A YEAR OF IMPORTANCE

GRADUATION — A FAMILY AFFAIR

Kitchen and Tatman Honored

The graduation ceremony — a pinnacle of achievement. Barbie Nichols and Pam Smith pose with Winnie Tatman, class salutatorian, and Lori Kitchen, valedictorian. Randy Mains receives his diploma from Mr. Folsom.

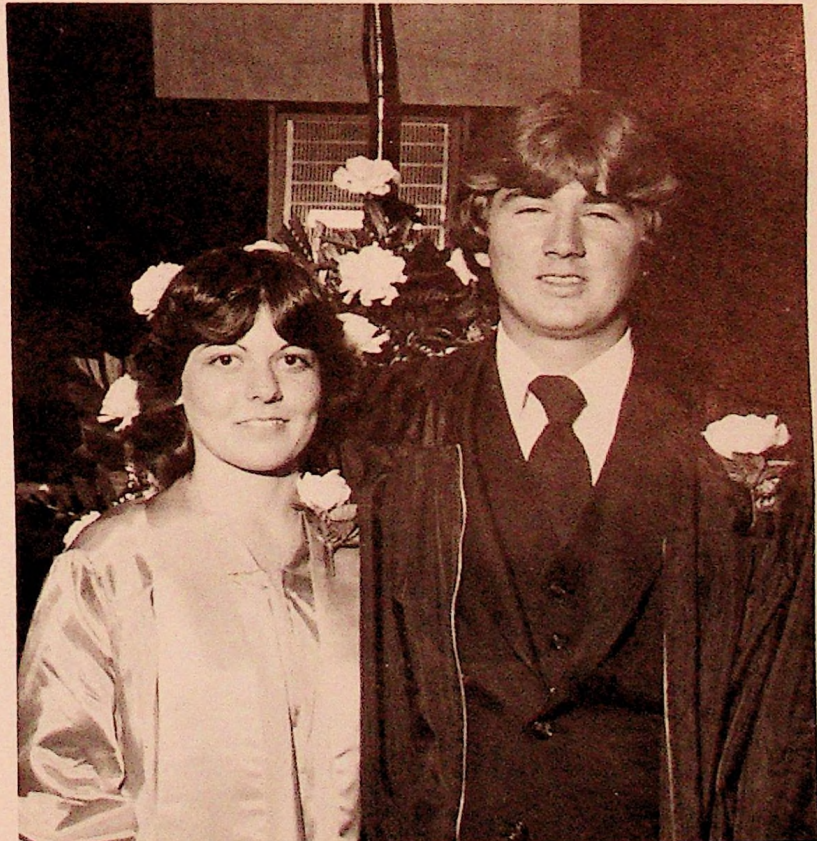

Rick Swearingen and Ruth Picklesimer look to the future. Bob Canter and Brenda Tie-man know that friends are like family. Terry Swords gets a proud hug. Sharon Whitman helps brother, Perry, with his cap.

Music Mates: Robin McGraw and Chris Murphy. Mary Jones tries to smile through tears. Tonya Montgomery sings in heartfelt harmony. Pam Ratliff and Scott Journey, a picture of togetherness.

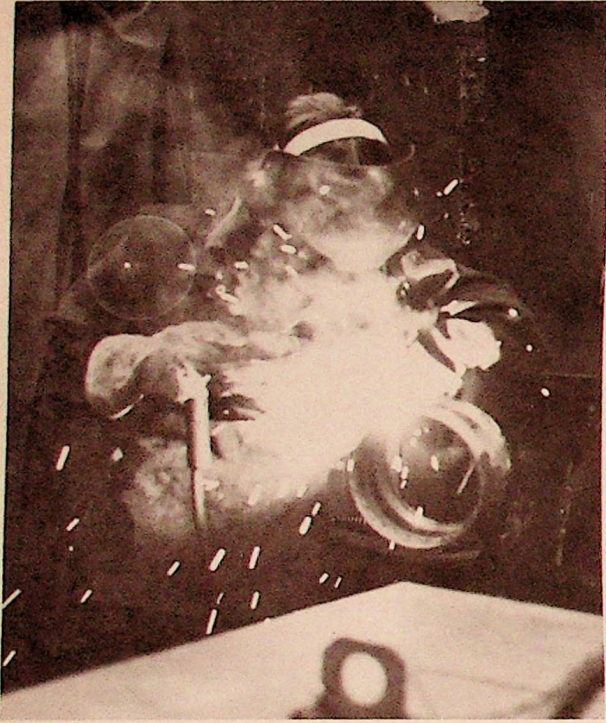

Jimmy Hughes delivers an inspiring message. Brenda Bobst and Christy Bean relax after the ceremony. Stephanie Boyd, a graduate of both West and VoTec credentials Senior flautists: Tonya Montgomery, Lora Shaffer, Connie Prince, Cindy Jones, Brenda Bobst. Mike Bradley is capped by Mrs. Meeker.

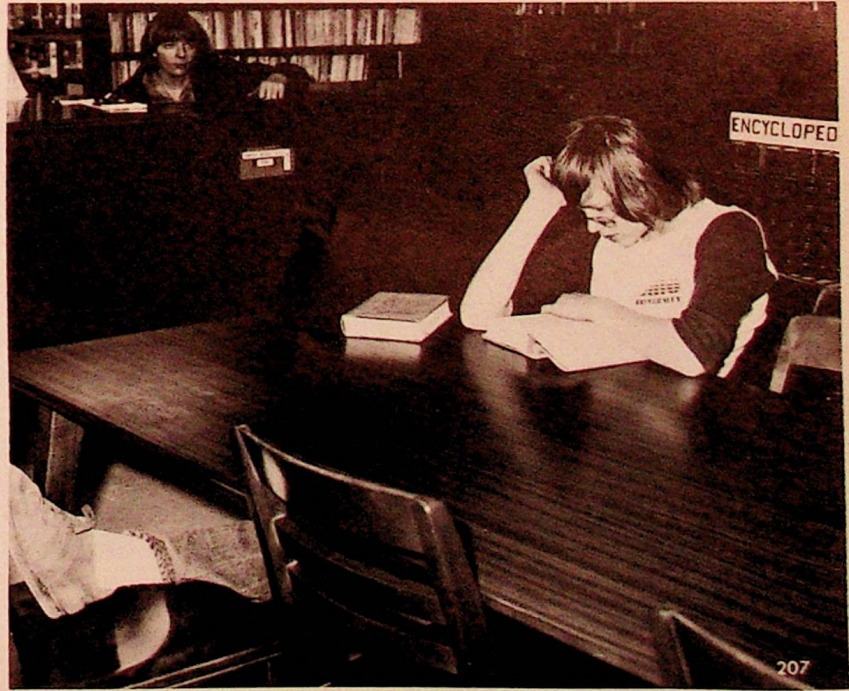

The procession begins. Lori Shaffer and Mr. Conley, Senior Class Adviser. Jenny Bell, Pam Smith, Connie Prince, Babs Thompson, Robin McGraw, Kelly O'Rourke, join to sing praise for their alma mater. Maxi Grooms in a serious mood.

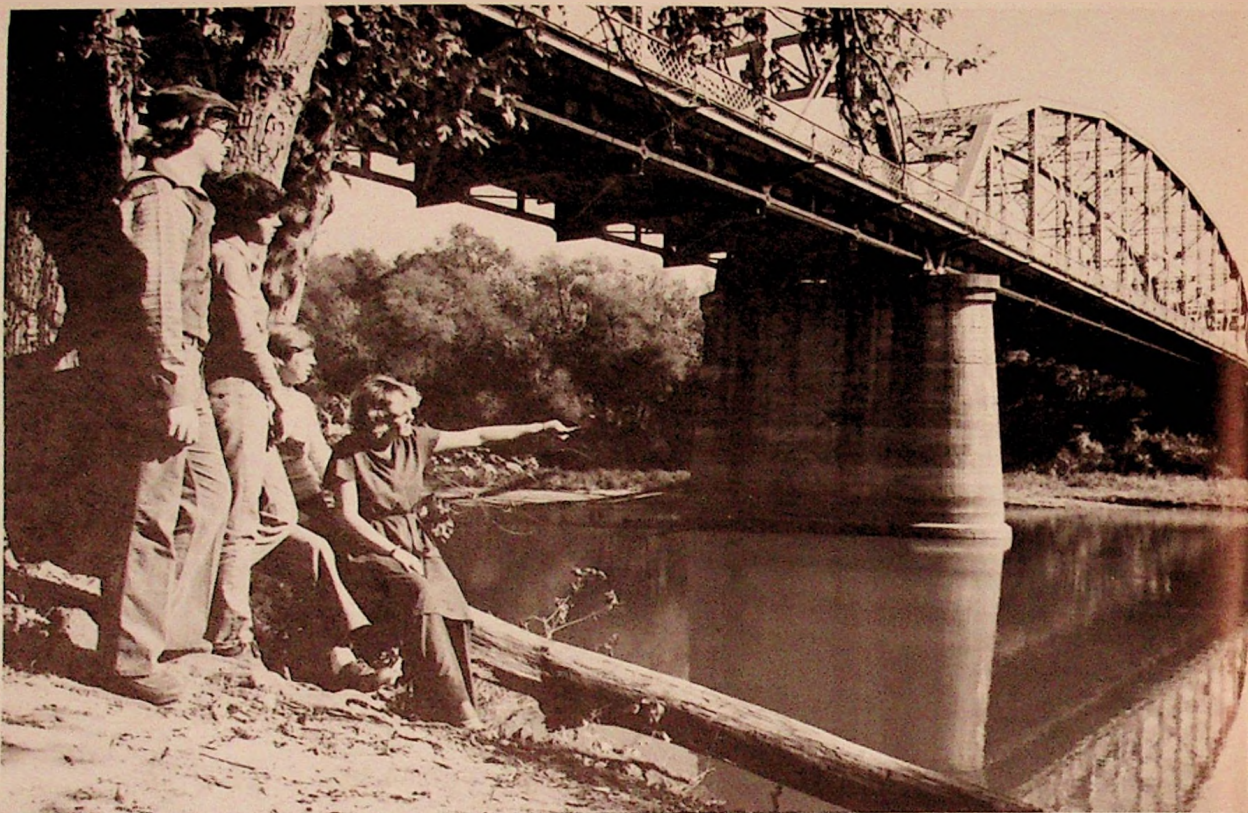

We have concluded one more year at West. The vacation ahead is only a respite, a time to gather our thoughts, examine our weaknesses, and intensify our strengths. We have prepared ourselves to cross other bridges. The future beckons; eagerly, we move toward it.

Looking back on this year, certain memories stand out. In this SENATORIAN, we have tried to capture the emotions and the moods of Portsmouth West in '79.

The book's message reveals that we have discovered the joys of youth, and through the strength we've found in each other, we've overcome many obstacles.

Now, strengthened, we face the future on our own. James Thurber, the American author, says it very well when he suggests:

Let us not look back in anger,
nor forward in fear,
but around in awareness.

To Karina
a very nice, cute girl I've known for a long time.
and is very in love with Marie
Good luck with

Karina,

Although I haven't known you very long. I've learned to like you for a good friend. I didn't think I would find a person who has so much in common with me. Remember me always.
Tell Marie Hello!

9/20/79 Friend,
Cheryl

Karina,

9/20/79
