GLENWOOD HIGH SCHOOL
NEW BOSTON, OHIO

ALMA MATER

FOR OUR ALMA MATER WE WILL DO OR DIE;
FOR OUR ALMA MATER WAVE THE FLAG ON HIGH.
AS EACH SEASON PASSES, FRIENDS WHO WERE SO DEAR
WILL LINGER IN OUR MEMORIES OF ALMA MATER DEAR.

SCHOOL SONG

SCARLET STANDS FOR BRAVERY;
GRAY STANDS FOR MIGHT.
FOR ALMA MATER, DEAR
GO RIGHT IN AND FIGHT. RAH! RAH! RAH!
EVER WE'LL PLAY THE GAME
WIN THE VICTORY;
AND THEN OUR HEARTS WILL GAIN
STRENGTH AND POISE FROM THEE.
LET US THEN BE EVER TRUE
TO GLENWOOD DEAR;
LET SCARLET AND THE GRAY
FILL OUR HEARTS WITH CHEER; RAH! RAH! RAH!
THOUGH DISTANT WE MAY ROAM, THOUGHTS WILL LINGER STILL ON SCHOOL DAYS SPENT WITHIN GLENWOOD BY THE HILL.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

President . . . . . Donna Sheridan
Vice President . . . . . Lomeda Schmid
Secretary . . . . . Patricia Williams
Treasurer . . . . . Clarice Davis

The Class of 1950 chose these classmates to guide them through the last mile of their hunt for gold at G.H. S.

They were given the coveted honor of serving as leaders of their class and are to be complimented for their excellent leadership.

The interest which these officers have shown has been greatly appreciated.

CLASS

At the opening of the 1946 fall school term there appeared at the portals of Glenwood, ninety-one lively boys and girls whose goal was to graduate in 1950.

We began our Freshman year with the election of Lomeda Schmid, president; Odie Fisher, vice president; Don Sexton, secretary and treasurer. Our advisors at the end of the year were Mrs. Caudill and Mrs. Kapps. Our Freshman Homecoming attendant was Anna Laura Floyd.

Then came vacation and we took leave of GHS to return in the fall as sophomores.

The following officers led our Sophomore class of seventy-two: Oscar Emshwiller, president; Carl Neu, vice president; Marvin Bowling, secretary; Marcella Emshwiller, treasurer; and Richard Barnes, reporter. Our faculty advisors were Miss Mitchell and Mr. Duncan.

The sophomore boys received a trophy for being the winners of class tournaments.

Our Sophomore Homecoming attendant was Ruth Thompson.

Class officers for our Junior Year were: Richard Barnes, president; Donna Sheridan, vice president; Lomeda Schmid, secretary and treasurer; and reporter, Charles Pauley. They were aided by our advisors, Mrs. Campbell and Mr. Washington.

Two events far overshadowed all others in our Junior year. The first was our class play, "The Night Was Dark." The cast consisted of: Donna Sheridan, David Staten, Carol Weaver, Ray Montgomery, Don Sexton, Mary Jo Stapleton, Ruth Thompson, Marcella Emshwiller, Lomeda Schmid, Darrell Williams, Charles Pauley, and Nate Phipps. The directors were Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Fluty. Student directors were Patty Williams and Roberta Holsinger.

The second was the Junior-Senior Banquet at the Lake White Club. The theme for our Banquet was "Circus".

HISTORY

We sponsored the Homecoming Dance for the queen and her attendants, which was given in the gym. Our Junior Homecoming attendant was Ruth Ann Hoover.

Our Honor Society consisted of the top ten of the class, as follows: Richard Barnes, Charles Pauley, Lomeda Schmid, Ruth Thompson, Ruth Ann Hoover, Doris Jones, Dorothy Keeney, Zelma Wallace, Marcella Emshwiller and Donna Sheridan.

Another big event of our Junior Year was the arrival of our class rings.

1950 finds us as fifty-five dignified Seniors remaining from the ninety-one who entered as Freshmen four years ago.

Our officers are: Donna Sheridan, President; Lomeda Schmid, vice president; Patty Williams, secretary; Clarice Davis, treasurer; Doris Jones and Charles Pauley, reporters. Roberta Barlett, Bernedia Barnett, Patty Williams, and David Staten make up our advisory council. Our advisors are Miss Wheeler and Mr. Caudill.

The name of our Senior Class Play was "Peter Beware", given May 11, and May 12. It was directed by Miss Wheeler.

Our Homecoming Queen was Marcella Emshwiller, attendants were: Ruth Ann Hoover, Senior; Wanda Weaver, Junior; Ruth Ann Schwamberger, sophomore; and Joan Lands, freshman.

We had our graduation pictures made at Martings.

Our name cards and announcements were ordered and received with eagerness.

Now we are waiting anxiously for the Junior-Senior Banquet and even more so for our Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises; but as the time grows nearer for us to leave Glenwood, we begin to regret it.

CLASS

The old town of New Boston hadn't changed much in twenty years. I decided to return to my home town after receiving my discharge from the Marine Corp with the rank of Sgt. Jerry Wagner. As I was leaving the train, I saw two of my boy friends from the class of "50". They were Nate Phipps and Don Sexton. We must have created quite a scene in the station with our hand-shaking, hugging each other, and our loud talking. We decided to eat breakfast together. While eating breakfast, Don told me that he and Nate were operating a large research foundation. They had decided to take a vacation as they had been working day and night, in order to keep up with their competitor Donna Sheridan and Bill Spears. I was gladly surprised to hear Dave Staten had become quite wealthy and that he is now owner of the "Curly Wave Set Co." Dave used the same formula on his hair in high school. Other rumors were that James Giner and Willis Adams had become lady killers. And that Norma Armstrong still has the desire for other girl's boyfriends. We then rented a car and decided to see the town. Our first stop was our high school hang-out. The American Restaurant, it is still called "Joe's", but not Joe Day's. It is now called Joe Payton's. The restaurant was rather deserted as everyone was at the local theater. We thought that the show must be pretty good to attract everyone, so we decided to go. We purchased our tickets only to have them taken by Mary Jo Stapleton. Mary Jo always did have an interest in the ushers there. We arrived during the comedy which was "Mighty Mouse" starring Virgil Holsinger. Next came the news in which we saw Wiblur Pence play a brilliant football game. Wib is now playing manager of the Cleveland Browns. Next came a driving demonstration by Ruth Hoover, Ruth was the only girl in the class of "50" with driving license. At last the main feature "The Return of May West" starring Marcella Bowling Emswiller. Marcella is still as beautiful as ever. At times during the show the camera man seemed to go wild, he was none other than, Paul Ruark, Paul wasn't the only one that went wild, after seeing the show four times, we had to drag Nate from the theater. After leaving the show we decided to drive around for awhile, but first we needed some gas. We stopped at the Ashland Gas Station only to find it owned and operated by Bob Bell, assisted by a 75 cent per hour secretary, Helen Evans. Bob says that Helen is still waiting for a law making dollar per hour minimum wage, as for Helen, well, it's rumored she has an ad for a husband. As we drove out of the gas station we were almost run into by a new Chevrolet, which was driven by Pat Williams now Mrs. Charles Fannin. Patty was accompanied by Anna Laura Floyd, and Dottie Ruark. Annie is also looking for a man, "Five Husbands weren't enough for her." Dottie still has a weakness for red headed boys. While driving up Gallia we saw many signs with familiar names on them. The first sign was that of Coxey's and Sons, owned by Don Waggoner, his wife, the former Zelma Wallace and their five sons. Next to that was a studio for graceful fainting, instructors were Roberta Bartlett and Roberta Holsinger. On a billboard we saw that Ray Montgomery's orchestra was appearing at the local night club, the night club was owned by Odis Fisher. The sign was drawn by Virginia Goodman now a well known artist. La'Vonne Evans now owns the swankiest dress shop in town. La'Vonne was talented in making clothes even in high school. Doris Jones now owns the Greenwich Inn. We stopped at the next sign, it read, "Barnes steel workers cafeteria". We had the pleasure of eating with the owner, Richard Barnes. The restaurant was drafty. Don told Richard that he should have his air conditioning system checked, but when Richard said that Mary Metzler was at the other side of the room. we knew the reason for the wind. Richard gave us the "lowdown" on some classmates. Charles Pauley is president of Olivet College. Mary Pennington is married and living in the hills of Kentucky. Dorothy Keeney is trying to get Bernedia Barnetts job as stenographer at W.P.A.Y. Darrell Williams is announcer there. No one has seen Lomeda Schmid, but we took it for granted that she also had taken the fatal step and had gone to join Mary in Kentucky. Several classmates were now teachers at dear old GHS. Ruth Thompson was teaching music. Oscar Emshwiller and Dick Oakes were the coaches. Paul Ruark and Marvin Bowling had been riding the coaches pretty hard. They couldn't understand why their boys weren't playing first string. Clarice Davis was teaching Home Economics. She decided that two in a family wasn't enough teachers after all. Matrimony hadn't taken too many: Kathryn Lawson didn't intend to let her sisters out do her. She nabbed Milbourne Bowling. Betty Martin has become a housewife to a boy whom we didn't know. Kathryn Nelson is still happily married to Jiggs Porter. After a fine meal and an enjoyable talk we left the restaurant. Next on our list was a drive through the country. Finally we did see some of our old friends... of course, they were not where we expected to find them. . .rocking comfortably on the porch of the "Old Maids Home" sat Carol Weaver, Rosemary Hook and Sylvia Fout. They had done all of their running around in high school and decided to settle down and live a peaceful life. We then drove back to Joe's for a milkshake. The time had come for us to part. Don and Nate were going back to their research work, and I am going home to bed. Each one taking with him fond memories of our high school days. I later found out that the reason for Don and Nate leaving was that "The return of Mae West" was showing at the theater across the street from the laboratory. Here's hoping no lives depend on their work. If they do, may they rest in peace.

PROPHECY

FOOTBALL AND BASKETBALL COACH

Again this year our football team received competent instruction from Joe Jenkins. His type of character is one which creates sportsmanship, determination, and teamwork in our players.

During the past seven years his teams have established a very creditable record, and it is our sincere hope that Mr. Jenkins will continue here with many more years of service.

BASKETBALL AND BASEBALL COACH

This year Paul Duncan guided his reserve team to a very successful S.O.C. victory. He also spent a great deal of time assisting coach Jenkins with the football squad. Mr. Duncan's character, as well as coaching ability, has made him well liked as a coach as well as a teacher.

He also coached baseball this season with many young prospects responding. This is his second year as baseball coach.

"PETER BEWARE"

The Senior Class of 1950 chose for its dramatic production this year a three-act comedy, entitled, "Peter Beware!" The plot, skillfully unfolded by a cast of twelve characters, centered around Peter Barrett who would inherit several millions--provided he didn't marry within a year. The efforts of Eunice, his half sister, to prevent his getting the money, the way in which her efforts were blocked, and Peter's final triumph provided lively entertainment for an appreciative audience each night, May 11 and 12.

Miss Fern Wheeler directed the play, assisted by Lomeda Schmid, the student director. The committees in charge of production were directed by James Giner, the general manager.

Clarice Davis and Ruth Thompson arranged the musical numbers which provided entertainment between the acts.
