The 1975 Bobcat

GREEN HIGH SCHOOL / FRANKLIN FURNACE, OHIO

Dedication

To Dorothy Clark, Annual Advisor Treasures

Coins of silver, bars of gold
Diamonds, rubies, pearls, and jade;
Gauge of riches since of old;
Mark of fortunes men have made.

Guarded, hoarded, watched with care;
Precious more than life some say.
These howe'er can ne'er compare
To those treasures gi'en away.

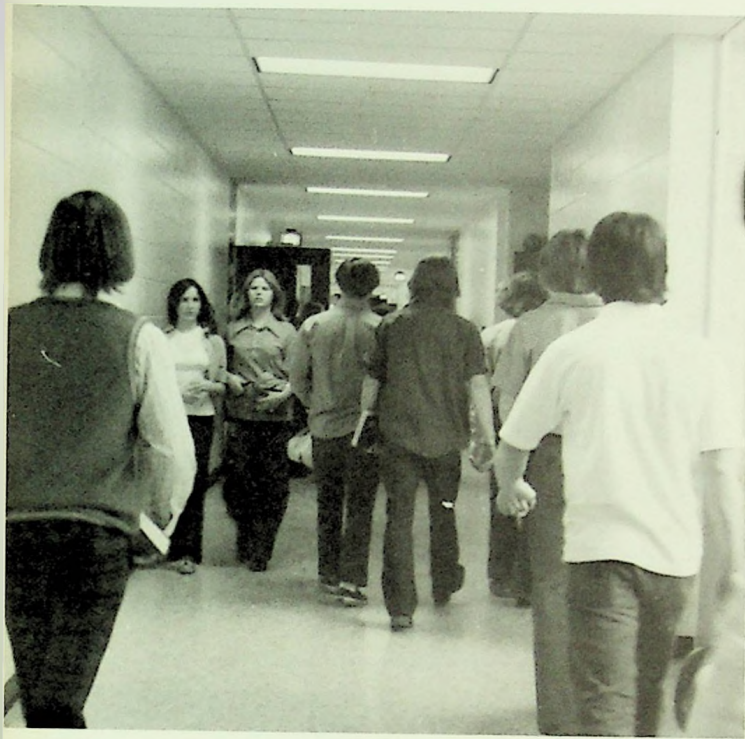

Friendship given selflessly
Caring shown in everyway,
Honor shown in honesty,
More than gold and silver weigh.

These, though precious truly are,
Are but the reflections of
Treasure precious more by far
That of a soul filled with love.

—Michael Porter

Moments To Remember

Studying is very important during our High School years. Beside all our daily work and many tests, we still had time for all the ballgames, assemblies, and just plain fun. The following life pictures show just a part of the many facets of school life and that they are truly the "Moments to Remember."

Graduation Prayer

We'll not pass this way again.

High School days and years have passed.

As this stage of life begins.

Help us, Lord, recall our past.

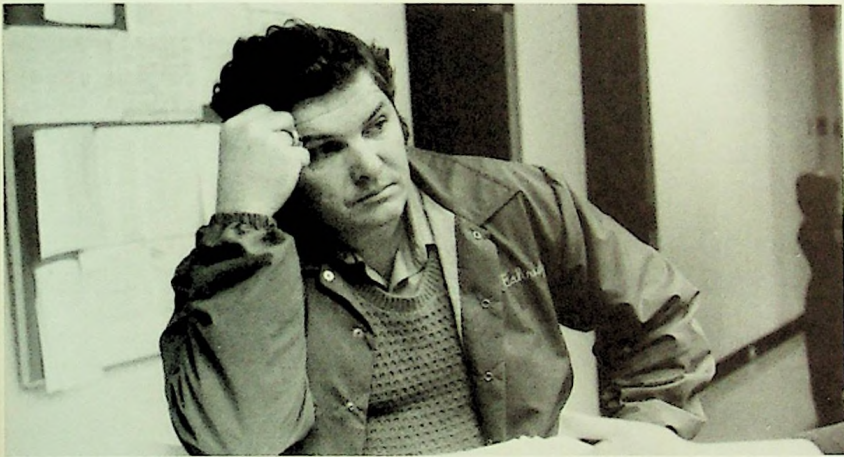

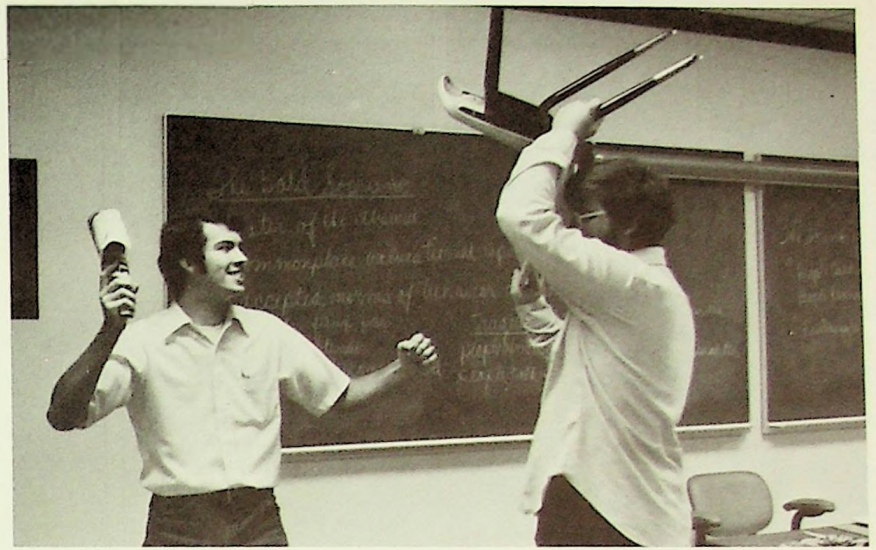

E'en though graduation means

Friends and teachers parted be.

Grant that we recall school's scenes

E'en throughout eternity.

Times of happiness all shared,
Losers' groans and victors' cheers,
Times when we knew others cared,
Every scene of high school years.

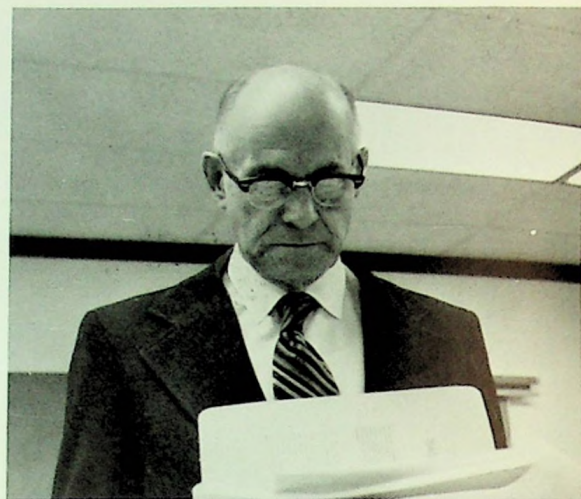

Preserve, Lord, the memory —
Memory of learning's start.

Laughter shared, camaraderie
These inscribe upon each heart.

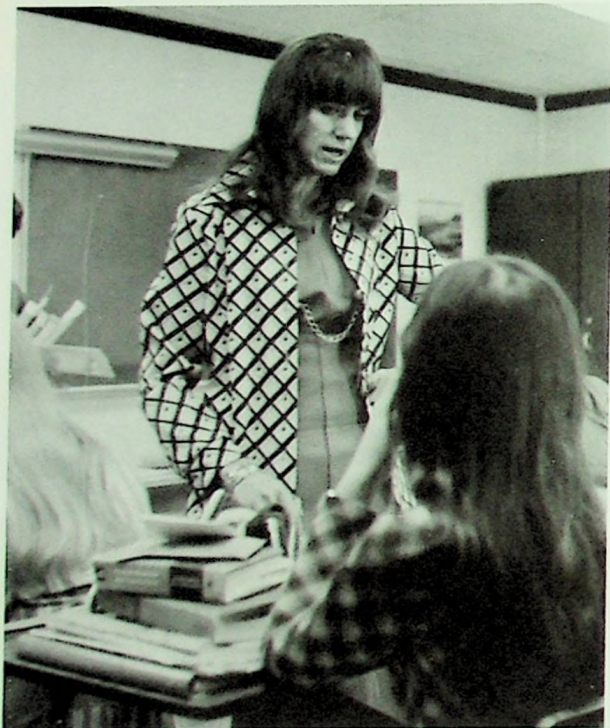

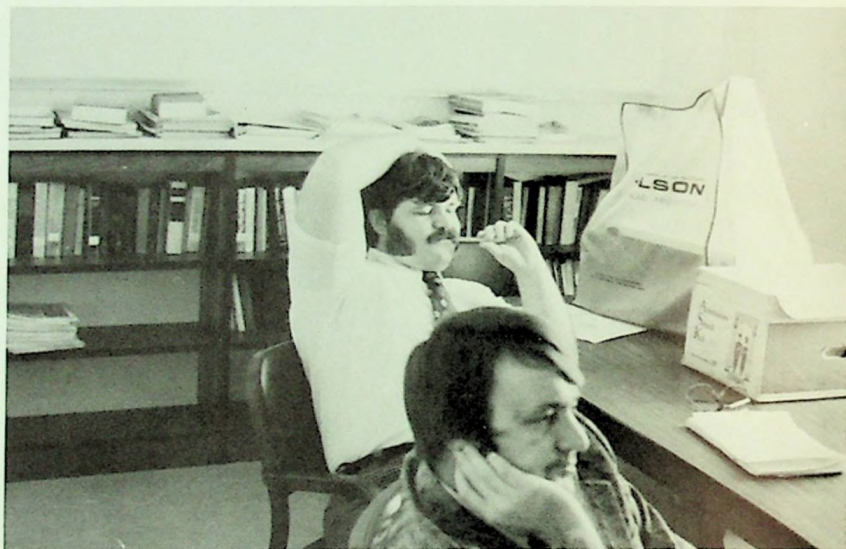

We're eating what?!

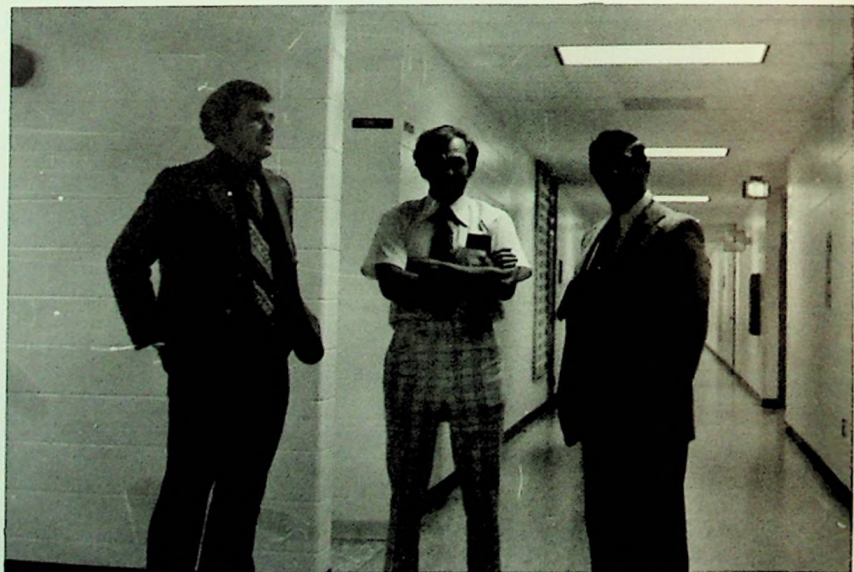

Mr. Pugh in action.

And where is your homework?

The Thinkers

What do you mean, where's our hall pass?

If it takes one hundred bananas and one hundred oranges to make fifty boranges, how many peanuts would it take to feed all of the elephants that you could buy with the number of slaves it would take to work a plantation that you could buy for the number of mules that are equivalent to the price of one thousand coconuts if today is Tuesday

Psalm Twenty-Three

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever
